Barbara Ann Brosterhous Weds Vincent N. Baxter In Sacred Heart Church

Barbara Ann Brosterhous became the bride of Vincent N. Baxter, December 28, in a nuptial Mass celebrated at 9 a.m. in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Monsignor T. P. Casey, officiant.

The between-Christmas-and-New Year wedding was a major Klamath Falls social event of the past year — and is of wide interest to the many friends of the bride's family. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Brosterhous, 734 Eldorado, well known Klamath Basin family. Barbara Ann's husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Baxter, Staten Island, New York.

Poinsettias and red carnations with splashes of white carnations and chrysanthemums were effectively employed in the seasonal floral church decorations.

The bride, escorted by her father to the altar, wore a princess style gown of white nylon lace and net, ballerina length over a graceful hoop skirt. A pearl-and-sequin-encrusted cap of lace held her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bridal bouquet was an arrangement of baby white orchids and Stephanotis carried with a white satin prayer book.

The "new" was a circular pin of cultured pearls, gift from the bridegroom; a tiny pocket in the traditional blue garter also held the lucky penny.

Mrs. George E. Brosterhous, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor; and it was her prayer book used at her own wedding over eight years ago — that Barbara Ann carried December 28. Mrs. Brosterhous and flower girl, three-year-old Kristen Brosterhous, were mother and daughter attendants — with Kristens' four-year-old brother, George Brosterhous Jr., serving as ring bearer.

The matron of honor's frock of pink tulle was princess style with a full ballerina skirt. She carried a spray of carnations in two shades of pink; and her headpiece was of matching carnations. Kristen wore pale pink and white nylon with a spray of carnations. Her hair was styled in a bouffant skirt — and her hair flowers and bouquet were miniature replicas of her mother's.

Best man was Robert Forsythe, boyhood friend of the bridegroom, from Monterey, George E. Brosterhous, bride's brother, and Thomas Perkins ushered.

Susan Vandenberg, organist, accompanied the Sacred Heart Academy choir.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Brosterhous wore a blue lace dress with scattered touches of sequins. Her small hat was of matching blue sequins and net. Mrs. Baxter, mother of the bridegroom, chose a gray silk ensemble and a hat of soft rose fur felt. Both mothers wore corsages of complementary deep pink rosebuds.

The reception was at Reames Golf and Country Club. Miss Marie Brosterhous, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. Alvin Brosterhous, cousin, cut and served the wedding cake. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. L. D. Stephens, Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Irving C. Burke and Mrs. Willard Ward. Mrs. Rex Young carried the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Baxter, Staten Island, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsythe, Monterey; Miss Marie Brosterhous, bride's aunt, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Brosterhous, great-aunt and uncle of the bride, Escondido, California; and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Brosterhous, bride's cousins, Hayward, California.

Barbara Ann has been living in Berkeley for some time, and before she came north for her wedding, friends in the Bay Area honored her with two miscellaneous showers. Because she was not home until shortly before the wedding — close friends have invited her mother to "stand-in" as her mother at a local prenuptial shower for Barbara Ann.

The couple honeymooned in Carmel — and for travel the new Mrs. Baxter wore a blue tweed knit dress with a small white satin pill box hat. Her corsage was the orchids from the bridal bouquet.

Since January 8, the couple has been at home, 283 Park View Terrace, Oakland, California.

Morning Coffee Honors Mrs. Neal Stewart

Mrs. Walter Beane and her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Adams, were hostesses at a morning coffee given January 4, in the Pelican Party Room for Mrs. Neal Stewart, visiting here from Honolulu.

Almost 200 guests called during the hours from 10 a.m. to noon.

Pouring during the morning were Mrs. Hugh Campbell, Mrs. John H. Martin, Mrs. R. Parcher, Elingson, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill and Mrs. Richard Beane.

The hostesses and Mrs. Stewart will sail for Honolulu on the Lurline from San Francisco, January 18. After a stay in the islands, Mrs. Beane and Mrs. Adams will leave March 22 on the President Cleveland, on a cherry blossom cruise to the Orient.

Olive Branch Gift Exchange

WEED — Prizes were given for package decorations at the Christmas gift exchange of the Olive Branch Club members at the Christmas meeting held at the home of Mrs. Leslie Kyle in late December.

Mrs. Ethel Barron, Mrs. Alvin Austin and Mrs. Chester Paulson were selected the winners and the judging was based on the most original wrapping, for the most Christmasy, the most beautiful and most novel.

A short business meeting preceded the exchange of gifts and the revealing of secret pal names. Co-hostesses, Mrs. Harry Hedgepeth and Mrs. Kyle served refreshments to members, Mrs. J. H. McMichael, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Ray Bullis, Mrs. C. A. McRae, Mrs. Frank Meline, Mrs. Alva Welch, Mrs. Fay Welch, Mrs. Mildred Wilmarth, Mrs. Robert Porter, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Clair Mulvany, Mrs. Les Boydston, Mrs. Paulson, Mrs. Alfreda Rose, Mrs. James Kirk, Mrs. Irvin White, Mrs. John Kerkes, Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Mrs. Emelia Kegg, Mrs. Hugh Anderson, Mrs. J. Flook and Mrs. C. Flook.

Snowman favors made of silver beads were presented to each member.

Shower Honors Mrs. H. Snyder

LANGELL VALLEY — A beautifully arranged wedding shower honoring Mrs. Harold Snyder, nee Catherine Dearborn, was given recently in St. Barnabas Parish Hall. Hostesses for the large party were Mrs. Rex Thomas, Mrs. Luther Noble, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Marion Lindsay, Mrs. Dick Derry, Mrs. Ted Schmidt and Mrs. Louie Randall.

Mrs. Wes Dearborn and Mrs. Les Leavitt, mother and aunt of the bride, helped her open the heaps of gifts.

After a social evening refreshments were served to the 100 friends who honored Catherine.

Icing Booties On Shower Cake

BLY — Mrs. D. L. McGee was feted at a pink and blue shower at the home of hostess Mrs. William A. Hatzl Wednesday afternoon, January 4 at 2 o'clock.

Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. McGee and Mrs. Thomas Thomson.

After the presents were opened, a dessert course was served featuring a large white cake decorated in a pink booties motif by Mrs. Joe Kendall.

Guests were Mrs. Ralph Webber, Mrs. Vince Kilken, Mrs. Dale Smith, Mrs. Jerry Ogil, Mrs. Thomas Thomson, Mrs. Joe Kendall, Mrs. Dave Campbell, Mrs. Monte Cline, Mrs. Franklin Hall, Mrs. F. W. Hyde, Mrs. August Tikkauch, Mrs. James Perry and from Roseburg, Mrs. Laura Webber. Invited but unable to attend were Mrs. Herb Hadley, Mrs. Carl Chase and Mrs. George Fullerton.

ALTAR SOCIETY AT BONANZA

BONANZA — The Altar society of Bonanza Catholic Church, St. Francis Cabrini met at the Bonanza Library January 5 for a potluck luncheon which was served at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Florence McCartie presided at the business meeting and gave a report of the activities of the past year. The secretary, Mrs. Nonie Scholer, read a letter from a former member, Mrs. Katherine Billingsly, now living in Iowa. The next meeting will be at the library February 2.

Present were the Rev. John Phelan of Merrill; Hattie Walker, Janet Pernlund, June Nork, Nonie Scholer, Wilma Rice, Emma Ralph, Margaret Chartrand, Marie Eland, Pat Wakefield, Sadie Walker, Florence McCartie and Jeanette Grallan.

TRI TAU TOY PROJECT

Flour, salt, paper plates and oatmeal boxes became toys at last Tuesday's meeting of Tri Tau. Directing finger pointing, clay and rhythm toy activities was Mrs. Leslie Carr. Each member was given recipes to follow these projects at home.

Mrs. Glenn Miller, who hopes to start another Tri Tau chapter in Klamath Falls, was guest of the evening where she interviewed members about past demonstrations.

During the refreshment period, Mrs. Long was surprised with a stork shower. Gifts were opened and guests were served from a cake decorated with blue booties.

Those present were Mrs. Lewis Hamblin, Mrs. Kenneth Schneider, Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu, Mrs. Owen Robbins, Mrs. Samuel Ramsey, Mrs. George Cunha, Mrs. James Rodgers, Mrs. Richard Finnell, Mrs. Paul Stewart, Mrs. Pat Ryan, Mrs. Donald Baldwin, Mrs. Vern Hengl, Mrs. Glenn Kireher, Mrs. Long and Mrs. Carr. Mrs. William Sari was unable to attend.

INSTALLATION SLATED JAN. 5

WEED — Installation for elect officers of the Foresters of America and the Shasta Lily Circle, Companions of the Foresters, was planned at the January 5 meeting of the circle. Ceremonies for the joint public installation will be held January 28 beginning at 8 p.m. in the Foresters Hall.

Mrs. Frank Paletta, presiding chief companion, was awarded the traveling prize for the evening and Mrs. Orville Renning received the dime cake award. Mrs. James DeLuca furnished the dime cake for the evening refreshments.

Future activity plans discussed during the business session included the "rummage sale" set for February 22, the place to be announced.

'Job's Daughters Bethel No. 6 Candlelight Installation

In a setting of candlelight and flowers, the new officers of Bethel No. 6 International Order of Job's Daughters were installed December 29 at the Masonic Temple, with Mary Lou Craig, retiring officer.

Parlor 159 NDGW Installation

ALTURAS — Alturas Parlor 159, Native Daughters of the Golden West, held its annual meeting and installation of officers the evening of January 5 at the IOOF Hall.

Doris Clark was installed as president for 1968. Serving with her will be Neva Ross, first vice president; Kay Mathews, second vice president; Katy McRoberts, third vice president; Vivian Englebert, marshal; Katy Doolittle, treasurer; Laura Stark, financial secretary; Hazel Schorch, recording secretary; and Irma Laird, organist.

Minerva Hess will be inside sentinel and Claire Ebbe, outside sentinel. Trustees elected were Harriet Sharp, Myrtle Williams and Josephine Fitzpatrick.

Before the meeting, members and their husbands celebrated the 48th anniversary of Alturas Parlor 159 with a dinner, planned and served by the outgoing officers.
