Gladys Ann Kendall Weds Robert E. George In December

FORT KLAMATH — The Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church was the scene of an impressive candlelight wedding at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, December 28, when Gladys Ann Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall, Fort Klamath, was united in marriage to Robert E. George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor George, Oakland, California.

In a holiday setting of greenery and Christmas decorations, the Rev. Edmund B. Stanton, pastor of the Chillicothe and Fort Klamath Community Methodist churches, read the double-ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Pews were marked with wide white satin ribbon, caught with sprays of evergreen and small pine cones.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a simple street length white tulle gown, with matching white hat, veil and accessories. Her wedding dress was represented "something new," and she carried a single lavender orchid with white satin streamers, resting on a white Bible, which had been carried by her sister, Mrs. Theron Winn, at her own wedding. The Bible was something borrowed; for something old, she wore her paternal grandmother's crystal necklace. Something blue was her bridegroom's befrilled blue fraternity garter; and a penny in her shoe completed the traditional items.

Mrs. Winn, who attended her sister as matron of honor, wore a sleeveless street length dress of aqua tulle, with matching black accessories and white carnation corsage. Bridesmaid was a second sister, Mrs. Frank Hale, Klamath Falls, who wore aqua tulle in similar design as that of the matron of honor, with aqua accessories and white carnation corsage.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kendall chose a brown tweed ensemble with matching dark brown accessories and lavender orchid corsage.

Theron Winn, brother-in-law of the bride, attended the bridegroom and Larence and Dale Kendall, young brothers of the bride, acted as usher and candlelighter, respectively. Little Mary Brattain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Brattain, made a charming flower girl, in pale blue embroidered nylon tulle, with contrasting pink velvet sash and head band.

Elida de Bortoli, Chillicothe, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" during the wedding, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Gerald Wolff, Chillicothe, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY AT HOME

LANGELL VALLEY — The Bob Colwell home in Upper Langell Valley was the setting for a hilarious party on New Year's Eve. Picnic and canteen were played until a late hour when a buffet supper was served.

Balloons decorated the rooms and noise makers were plentiful.

At the party were Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Keyser, Joan, Kathleen and Mary Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scott, Donna, Wayne and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. George Pernlund, Linda, Fred and Eddie, Mrs. Lou Penner, Ivan Younce, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Spillane, Nora, Shelia, Patricia, John and Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden, Mr. and Mrs. Orval DeVaul and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Noble, Virginia, Dale and Nancy, Mrs. Rose Stalaker, Rosemary and Raymond, Bob Colwell, Margaret, Den and John.

THE ANNUAL DE MOLAY SNO-BALL was a gala event on December 27, from 8 to 11 p.m., at Reames Golf and Country Club; and for the occasion, the room was lavishly decorated. Focal point was a huge revolving snowball. The ceiling was completely covered with white crepe paper streamers and dotted all over with blue balloons.

'Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 130 Installs New Honored Queen

WEED — New officers assumed their stations for the Mount Shasta Bethel No. 130, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the first meeting of the new term, Monday night, January 9, at Howe Hall in Mount Shasta.

Carlene Walter, honored queen, presided at the session and introduced a new council member, Mrs. J. Kersey. Weed, who will be installed as guardian council treasurer for the Bethel.

Bethel guardian, Mrs. George Walter, and the associate guardian, Chester Kinney, were escorted to the east and introduced by the presiding officer.

Major items of the evening included the vote by the attending members to aid the Job's Daughters Bethel in Yuba City with individual contributions earned by the members within the next two week period; and tentative plans were made for a Valentine party to follow the February 13 meeting.

Cotton snowmen marked the twenty individual places for refreshments served from tables centered with "winter scene" arrangements.

Ann Franks, Muriel Astmann, and Sandra Cross, Mount Shasta members, served as hostesses for the meeting.

Attending from Weed were Marcia Holley, Shirley Holley, Christy Kersey, Lani Gaynor, Natalie Ewer, Andrea Schneberger, Sally Gilliam, Bethel members; and Mrs. Kersey, Mrs. Andrew Schneberger and Mr. and Mrs. Kinney.
