Dons Maintain Lead in Basketball 4th Place Taken By Kentucky

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

You have to string along with a winner—especially when the winner carries it to record lengths—so the amazing Dons of San Francisco University are rated as the nation's leading college basketball team for the sixth straight week today.

The nation's sports writers and broadcasters picked them by a margin of nearly 150 points over equally unbeaten Dayton and San Francisco ranked up victories over Santa Clara and Fresno State last week to run its two-season winning streak to 39 straight games. That equaled the major college record, held by Long Island University and Seton Hall.

Kentucky moved ahead of Vanderbilt into fourth place in the rankings. Illinois pushed into sixth ahead of Duke, Temple, the third unbeaten major team, took over eighth as Louisville moved into the top 10.

Apparently these changes weren't just a matter of wins and losses, for the only displaced team that lost a game was Ohio State, which dropped from seventh to 11th after being thumped by Iowa early last week.

North Carolina State, a one-time loser, clung to third place, well in front of Kentucky.

Illinois' thumping 96-72 victory over Indiana apparently impressed the voters more than Duke's three wins. Louisville caught their eyes by beating Notre Dame and Valparaiso to run up a 13-1 record. The leaders, with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. San Francisco (87) 1,257
2. Dayton (13) 429
3. N. C. State (9) 420
4. Kentucky (9) 415
5. Vanderbilt (6) 326
6. Illinois (1) 458
7. Duke (1) 438
8. Temple (1) 388
9. North Carolina 296
10. Louisville (1) 203

John Sullivan Tops Johnson In U.S. Debut

NEW YORK (UP)—Johnny Sullivan of England, who had to shift from the English style to the American during Monday night's thrilling fight to beat light heavyweight Tom Johnson, may get another TV bout at St. Nicholas Arena on Feb. 13 or 20.

Johnson, former British middleweight champion, "made a big hit" Promoter Tex Sullivan said today. "And we're going to use him against Gene Fullmer, who got us still in business in February."

Whether Sullivan and his boxing director, Willie Gilzenberg, can continue to promote at St. Nick's will be decided Thursday at a hearing before the N.Y. State Athletic Commission.

Monday night English Johnny, 23, wound up with a split 10-round decision over Johnson, a New York Greek who had a nine-pound pull in the weights. Johnson sealed 172½ pounds; Sullivan, 163½.

Johnson started off fighting from the English upright stance at long range, but he lost the first two rounds on the sheets of all three ring officials. Then he changed to the American bob-weave and began pressing his heavier opponent at close range.

Again and again Johnny forced Johnson's right hand into the ropes and blasted him with short, accurate left hooks to the head. He cut Johnson's right hand from the seventh session and had him bleeding from the nose. Johnson was sent to the canvas in the ninth round by a left to the body and a shoulder-bump. Referee Mark Conn ruled it a "slip."

Positively Says Retiring Graham

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UP)—Oto Graham is sure his retirement will stick.

Asked Monday night if he was serious about his retiring, the great passing quarterback of the Cleveland Browns, said, "Positively, absolutely."

Graham, who led the Browns to another National Football League championship in 1955, was here to receive the S. Rae Hickok $10,000 trophy as "Professional Athlete of the Year."

After a spectacular passing performance in Los Angeles which beat the Los Angeles Rams for the league title Dec. 26, Graham announced for the second time he was through with retirement.

He came out of retirement to lead the Browns to the title. Graham became the sixth winner of the award.

"Boss, would you step out here and see me... I've decided to let you give me a raise again!"

Jefferson Tops Prep Hoop Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jefferson of Portland jumped into the top spot of the Associated Press high school basketball poll this week, with defending champion Eugene claiming a notch into second place.

Franklin of Portland, last week's poll leader, took an unexpected trimming and fell to fourth place behind the Medford Black Tornado.

Of 18 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the state voting this week, Jefferson won the first place spot with 12 first votes. Other first place votes were divided among Eugene, Medford and Franklin.

Klamath Falls, seventh place holder in the first poll of the season, took a pair of beatings from Medford and slipped out of the top ten. Albany was the newcomer to the list in tenth place.

The ballots gave fifth place to Milwaukie, sixth to Marshfield, seventh to South Salem, eighth to Milton-Freewater and ninth to Beaverton.

Albany was a surprise on the list with its record of five wins and six losses. But the answer seems to lie in a rough start and increasing skills. Albany leads its district and holds a win over seventh place South Salem.

If the leaders play up to the rating given them by the sports experts, the next games scheduled should cause them no great concern. However, Jefferson will have a weary eye on his Wednesday meeting with Grant.

The poll results with won and lost records and total points:

- | Points | Team                       |
|--------|----------------------------|
| 151    | 1. Jefferson (9-1)         |
| 125    | 2. Eugene (8-2)            |
| 106    | 3. Medford (10-2)          |
| 106    | 4. Franklin (8-2)          |
| 85     | 5. Milwaukie (7-2)         |
| 85     | 6. Marshfield (6-2)        |
| 50     | 7. South Salem (7-3)       |
| 40     | 8. Milton-Freewater (10-1) |
| 30     | 9. Beaverton (8-2)         |
| 30     | 10. Albany (5-4)           |

Others: Beaverton 21, Lincoln 13, Klamath Falls 9, Corvallis 9, Astoria 8, Corvallis 3, Redmond 3, North Salem 3, Grant 2, Gresham 1, Ontario 1, Burns 1 and Dallas 1.

USC Coach Says Trojans CC Contender

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The coach of Southern California's basketball team says the Trojans are a solid contender for the Pacific Coast Conference title.

"We have to be figured in the race," Coach Forrest Twogood told the Southern California Basketball Writers Assn. Monday.

He said the club found itself in taking two games from Oregon State here last Friday and Saturday and that the play of Jim Kaufman and Tony Psalis was encouraging.

"Kaufman was magnificent," said Twogood, "both offensively and defensively."

He said the youngsters had been having trouble adapting himself to the Trojan style of play, and that Psalis found himself at the same time, ran the club well, and began clicking on his shots.

Coach Jimmy Wooden of UCLA told the writers that Washington State Coach Jack Priel, after watching Morris Taft score 33 points in two games against the Cougars, couldn't understand how the Bruin star could jump as well as he does while wearing a brace.

Taft was hospitalized for two weeks at the start of the season with a back injury. Wooden said the Bruins had been fortunate in meeting Idaho and Washington State at the start of the season, and that UCLA's record of four wins and no losses wasn't necessarily reflective of outstanding strength.

"I wouldn't want those four wins to mislead anyone," said Wooden. "If we lose either Willie Naft or Taft for a while in any game we'd be in for trouble."

The two players have accounted for 197 points in UCLA's four Pacific Coast Conference victories.

Brawling Dayton, NC State Push USF

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP)—Basket-brawl is proving today that Primo Carnera was born 30 years too soon.

Da Preem was a big man with a "pouch." Those two qualities, as debatable as third second may be, would have made him a sensation under or on the boards.

Which apparently is the state of basketball this season.

The latest in a voluminous file of fisticuffing contests this year concerned Scranton, Pa., and St. Peter's of Jersey City, N.J. Don Kennedy, the St. Peter's coach, hailed his team off the court because he feared it was going to get an anthracite "belt."

"The whole stands were heading for us," Kennedy alleged. "There was no police protection because of the home club's negligence."

That was the first game forfeited this season. G. I. F. O. I. dropped a game to Southern California via the same route when spectators began pitching pennies at the officials.

Loyola of New Orleans had hassle with Bradley and the conduct of the spectators was questionable in that case, too. St. John's of New York set a new tournament record in the recent Holiday Festival at Madison Square Garden by staging bouts with both UCLA and La Salle.

The only apparent decision rendered in any of these pugilistic encounters was when Ray Felix of the New York Knickerbockers planted a hay-maker on the kisser of Boston's Jim Loscutto. That resulted in four stitches and the harried James' observation:

"I underestimated his reach." This increasing belligerence is explained partially by Johnny Bach of Fordham, who, as an Irishman, should rate as a competent analyst.

"Competition has leveled off to such extent that rarely anymore do you have such a thing as an easy game or a so-called bread-crumbs contest," he said. "The pressure builds up on the kids all year and, sooner or later, it is bound to communicate itself to the spectators."

NO TROUBLE One of the few players who should have little trouble, even if matters get worse, is six foot, seven inch Sweetwater Clifton, a 235-pounder who plays for the Knicks. When he entered the league, he silently took a terrible pounding until irate Coach Joe Lapchick told him he'd have to fight.

"Can you fight?" Lapchick demanded.

"Coach," Clifton said with hanging head, "I'm terrible."

In the first game the following season, Clifton exchanged words with a Boston player and the whole rivet bench started for him. Sweetwater and you could smell rubber burning as the other contestants screamed to a respectful stop.

"I thought you couldn't fight," said Lapchick.

"I didn't say that," Clifton replied. "I said I was terrible when I got mad."

Clifton then revealed that he once had boxed regularly with Bob Satterfield. And if Satterfield, whose couple of inches, he, too, might make the grade in basketball as it's played today.

Ski Mecca's Secret Gone

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—This picturesque little Alpine village long has been a mecca for the real winter sports enthusiasts, but they've tried to keep it a secret.

But a secret no longer and Cortina will be the center of the sports world from Jan. 26-Feb. 7 when the seventh winter games are held.

It's ready for its role, too. There probably are more good skiing slopes you can see from an hotel window here than anywhere on earth.

Here, the natives will tell you: "My friend, in Cortina you can always ski with the sun. When it disappears on the western slopes, they cross our town and ski on the east."

The main jumping hill is among the three or four best in the world. The bob run is like the one in St. Moritz, Switzerland. Three ice hockey matches can be played simultaneously in the Olympic Stadium.

The stadium seats 11,500 spectators and is complete right down to an underground waterway which carries away surplus ice after it has been scraped from the rink. Nearly $1 million dollars has been spent by private and official sources to get the village in shape. The only little Cortina can reel in back is to become a boon town for a little more than a week.
