Mrs. W. P. Myers Born 80 Years Ago Friday the 13th Is Party Honoree

Friday the 13th was no mere day of apprehensive superstition to Mrs. W. P. Myers, who was born 80 years ago on Friday the 13th—and who, on her 80th birthday anniversary, was feted with a surprise party.

Part of the plot was a dinner invitation extended to her and Mrs. Faye Bevins by Jack McNies—who took them to dinner in town at 6 p.m.

When they returned to Mrs. Myers' home, 879 Lakeshore Drive, they were met by a roomful of friends, all of them singing "Happy Birthday to Mom." The happy birthday wish was also repeated in frosting on the elaborate cake, which had been brought by the crowd with other types of party food and numerous gifts.

Cards were played during the evening by the honoree and the co-celebrants, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mason, Mr. and Mrs. William Behrendt, Chuck Oliver, Mary Piquet, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Simmons, Jack McNies, Mrs. Faye Bevins, Mrs. Ann Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ogier and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hakenson.

The spry and lively octogenarian is a busy business woman—actively occupied as owner and manager of her nursery and landscaping business.

She has lived on Lakeshore Drive since 1928—when she moved into her new house that year. The Myers bought the first lot sold in that Lakeshore district in 1928.

KITCHEN GLAMOR

The kitchen is no longer the home decorator's step child. It has come a long way since the days when it was given a fresh coat of white or buff paint once a year and let go of that. Today we plan our kitchens with the same thoughtful care that we give to planning our living rooms. We use color as lavishly (if not more so) as we do in any room in the home.
