

BASIN BRIEFS

Meeting—Prosperity Social Club, OES, Main will meet Thursday, January 26, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Kalina for its regular January meeting.

Enlisted—Robert W. DeBois, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. DeBois, Box 62, Chiloquin, enlisted in the U.S. Air Force on January 16, according to information received from T-Sgt. Don Adams, local USAF recruiter. Airman Basic DuBois will be stationed at Parks AFB, California, for his basic training.

Hawaii Tour Seats Listed

There are still several vacant seats on the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce air tour to the Hawaiian Islands at the McIntyre Travel Service, who is in charge of the arrangements, reported today.

Departure date for the special plane to Honolulu has been set for 10 a.m. February 6 at the Klamath Falls Airport. The Transocean Airlines DC4 plane will fly directly to Honolulu, and the tour group will return on another special flight February 14.

Highlights of the tour will include the Mount Tantalus tour, a Hawaiian "Luau" at the Queen's Surf, boat rides at Waikiki Beach, and a tour of a pineapple cannery. Included in the tour is a full week at the New Edgewater Hotel. All details of the Hawaiian portion of the tour are being handled by the airline, which will also furnish tour guides where needed. Reservations may be made at McIntyre's office in the lobby of the Willard Hotel.

Dunsmuir Sets Railroad Days

DUNSMUIR — Varied entertainment is being sought for Railroad Days to be held in Dunsmuir, June 15, 16 and 17. Mrs. Reva Coon, entertainment committee head, has announced she is ready to handle applications from individual entertainers, organizations and groups. She is also seeking public opinion as to what is the most desirable entertainment.

Francis McEnerney, president of the Railroad Days board of directors, has announced the following committee appointments: Reva Coon, chairman; Henry Schroeder, Beverly Mason and Marjorie Young, entertainment; F. F. Kohlbaker, chairman, L. L. Griffith, and Kenneth Burns, decorations and construction; Bob Kenoyer and Kenneth Burns, finances; Lee Hudde, publicity; and F. F. Kohlbaker, parade.

Public entertainment in the downtown area will not be a feature of the celebration this year, McEnerney has announced. "The ball park and adjacent parking facilities can handle the crowds we expect to entertain," McEnerney said. The board is setting up special transportation facilities between the ball park and downtown, it was announced.

SYMPATHY

MOSCOW UP — Sympathy for the American taxpayer as he dies down to meet payments to Uncle Sam came from an unexpected quarter Tuesday. The Communist Party newspaper Pravda said the American taxpayers were not getting the break they deserve because the U.S. government keeps increasing the "cold war budget" and cutting funds for social services.

23 Years Ago

Monday, January 23, 1933 — The Oregon Mothers Club was entertained Monday evening by Mrs. E. M. Chilcote at her home on Mesa Street when five tables of bridge were in play. High score at the close of the evening was presented to Mrs. C. E. Morrison and second high to Mrs. James Stark. Mrs. Charles Garcelon and Mrs. Willard Peyton will act as hostesses at the February meeting.

Tuesday, January 24, 1933 — Mrs. Walter Waggoner will entertain the Linness club, Monday evening, at her home 920 Grant Street. Mrs. Fred Heilbranner and Mrs. Lottie Curran will be assisting hostesses.

Wednesday, January 25, 1933 — Two students from Klamath Falls won positions on the University of Oregon honor roll for scholastic excellence in the school term just closed. They were John William Morrison, junior in art, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Morrison, and Ruth May Chilcote, freshman in English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote.

Thursday, January 26, 1933 — Children will be allowed to coast on the Washington Street hill and Second Street, crossing Washington, will be blocked, according to an announcement from Sergeant Carl Cook, of the police traffic department. Portland Avenue will also be blocked in order that youngsters may enjoy the winter sport.

Friday, January 27, 1933 — G. C. Motley was elected president of the Klamath Falls association of Building Craftsmen's Employers this week. Leo Hulls was named vice president. H. J. Lorenz was elected secretary for the third year in succession.

Saturday, January 28, 1933 — Mrs. C. A. Humble, Mrs. Richard Smith and Miss Aila Massey presided as hostesses at the January meeting of the American Association of University Women held Saturday afternoon at the Pelican Grille where luncheon was served at half past twelve o'clock.

Dunsmuir Court Fines Ormsbee

DUNSMUIR — Orrin Keith Ormsbee, 45, of Dunsmuir, was fined $263 in Dunsmuir judicial court on Monday morning after being found guilty of driving while intoxicated.

Ormsbee was arrested by the California highway patrol about 7:20 p.m. Saturday following an automobile accident just north of Dunsmuir. The northbound car driven by Ormsbee veered across the highway into the southbound lane, resulting in a head-on crash with the automobile driven by Stanley Dwight Wallace, 36, Carmichael, California, according to the highway patrol. Wallace was not injured, the report said.

BANUELOS RELEASED

DUNSMUIR — Victor Banuelos, 54, of Kegg Pit, has been released on a $2,000 bail bond after pleading not guilty to an assault charge in Dunsmuir judicial court. No date for a hearing has been set. Banuelos was arrested on a warrant last week in connection with a stabbing incident in a Dunsmuir restaurant.

CofC Groups Hold Meeting

Officials of the chambers of commerce of Southern Oregon and Northern California attended the annual Chamber Workshop held all day Saturday in the Jackson Hotel in Medford.

The workshop is an annual affair set up for new directors and officials of the chambers. The problems of the chambers are discussed and new ideas explored. The subjects studied included: "The responsibility of the board of directors and the staff in a chamber of commerce," "Developing Southern Oregon industry," "Developing tourist travel and convention business in Southern Oregon," "Experiences in chamber of commerce financing," and "Chamber of commerce activity in the field of taxation."

The day's activities began with registration and breakfast at 8 p.m. A luncheon was served at noon and a social hour held at 5:30 p.m. with a dinner at 6:30 following. Chamber officials from Klamath Falls attending the workshop were: Warren Bennet, president; Robert E. Veatch, vice president; directors Alice Vitus, Grant Cosgrove, Dick Gallagher, James Patterson and Bob Henry.
