

WITH THE AUTUMN semester completed, Klamath Union High School students were busy last week with registration for the spring term. The change of semesters brought the usual schedule changes, and as a result, additional work for KUHS counselors, Rulon Hicks, sophomore (left) and an unidentified student, patiently watch vice-principal Wendell Smith (center), and mathematics instructor Donald Ross arrange the schedule they will follow until the last day of school, June 1.

4-H JUNIOR BRONCS
4-H Junior Broncs held a meeting January 9, at 7:30 at Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Woody's place. The meeting was called to order by the president, Dotty Riker. The members that wanted saddle racks for keeping their saddle on and to display their saddle at the fairs, were to call Mr. Woody. The saddle racks will cost about $5.
We are inviting some members of the American Legion to give a talk on the etiquette of the U.S. Flag. The members and leaders of the club would appreciate it if someone or some organization would donate us a United States Flag.

The 4-H notebooks for the year were handed out. The meeting was adjourned and Mrs. Woody served Dixie Cups and Rice Krispies and Marshmallow Squares.
Sharon Unruh, News Reporter

THE GOOD COOKS
The meeting was called to order December 22, by the vice-president Karl Kerns at the home of Mrs. John Kerns on the Keno Highway. Our leader instructed us to make hamburgers as our home project for the coming week. Refreshments were served of popcorn balls, pop and candy. We cleaned the kitchen.
Our Christmas party was in the front room. Gifts were exchanged. Celia Kerns received a paring knife, Grover Clark some toys cars, Sandy Clark, barrettes, Karl Kerns a gadget, Danny Riggs a yoyo, John Riggs a ball and Mary Ellen Hess a paring knife. Grover's little brother, David Clark was a visitor, and received a yoyo and also Celia Kern's brother Timmy received a yoyo. Our leader, Dee Kerns, received a telephone pad. The meeting was adjourned.
