Jensen To Play In St. Louis

Kenneth Jensen, son of LaMar Jensen, director of bands at Klamath Union High School, has been selected to play the oboe in the Golden Jubilee National High School Orchestra to be presented in St. Louis, March 12-18 in observance of the 50th anniversary of the Music Educators' National Association.

The national orchestra will be conducted by Thor Johnson, permanent conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. This orchestra of 150 members was a screened and selected first in each district and then by state committees and later by a national committee. Only students who have indicated superior talent and ability on their respective instruments are selected.

The orchestra will rehearse under Thor Johnson before commencing their intensive training with a concert in the Kiel Municipal Auditorium.

A cellist from Salem High School has also been invited to participate.

MEANS BUSINESS

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Gov. A. B. Chandler meant business when he said recently state-owned vehicles were to be used for business only. Yesterday he ordered State Police to stop any state-owned vehicles they see on the highways at night and on Sunday. Drivers of the vehicles — presumably state employees — would be asked to explain to their superiors why the vehicles were in use.
