CORTINA, Italy (UP)—The seventh and biggest winter Olympic Games of modern times open today in this chalet-studded village a mile high in the Dolomite Alps with Russia picked to win the unofficial team championship.

with snow delivered not from the skies but by snow shovels.

CORTINA D'Ampezzo, Italy (UP)—The honor of carrying the U.S. flag in the colorful parade opening the seventh Olympic Games Thursday went to husky Jim Bickford, 43-year-old hobsledder from Saranac Lake, N.Y., who is participating in his fourth Olympics. He is a forest ranger.

NEW YORK (AP)—Hank Greenberg, who in 1936 came within three of breaking Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs, and Joe Cronin, the most expensive player in baseball, took their places alongside the game's immortals today in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

The two slugging right-handers were inducted into the shrine at Cooperstown, N.Y., yesterday when they received more than the necessary 75 per cent of the vote of the 10-year members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. Greenberg was the 80th and 81st Hall of Famers.

Appearance

Mrs. Minuzzo represented 947 athletes from a record number of 32 competing countries, including Russia. It marked the Soviets' first appearance in the Winter Games since the czarist days.

Pel Wrestlers Host Grants Pass Friday

Klamath Union High School's wrestling team goes out in search of victory number five Friday afternoon at Pelican Court as the Pelts host a threatening Grants Pass mat squad in another Southern Oregon Conference match.

The first bout of the afternoon will get underway at 2:45.

Coach Dutch Simons' Pelicans are currently riding just above the 500 mark — 114 four wins against three losses. After already turning back Roseburg, Prineville, Medford and Lebanon, and falling before the OSC Rooks, U of O Frosh and Redmond High School, the Simonsmen will be seeking to add the Cavemen to their list of victories.

The Friday afternoon clash is expected to bring together the two toughest clubs in the district, and should answer any questions as to what the local grapplers must face in winning their seventh consecutive championship. Grants Pass and Medford are almost always the toughest competition Klamath

Included in the 13 bout match will be a featured tilt pitting Klamath's Richard Berg against Grants Pass' Dave Flipse, a Caveman football star in the recent gridiron season. Flipse was a Kansas state champion, while Berg nailed down the Oregon prep title last spring. The two will probably square off in the 147-pound bout.

Flipse missed the Medford match because of a slight case of flu according to Grants Pass coach Bill Martell. Both teams are hoping Flipse returns in top shape to settle the question as to what section of the county the prep wrestling power is found.

Michaelis Leads SHA

Dean Michaelis set a new seasonal scoring high Tuesday night at Bly as the Sacred Heart Trojans turned back the host Bobcats 88-59 in a non-league contest. Michaelis, SHA sharp-shooter, netted 32 points for high honors.

Sacred Heart held a 26-20 halftime margin. The academy also captured the B game, 45-39.

Late Game Gift Shots Hand SOC 69-66 Win

ASHLAND (Special) — Southern Oregon College's Red Raiders evened-up their Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball series with the visiting Oregon Tech Owls here Wednesday night, but it took a last minute spurt of free throw shooting before the Owls bowed to a 69-66 decision after leading through most of the maple court battle.

Tuesday night in Klamath Falls, Tech walloped the Raiders in a surprise 68-48 battle to win the first half of the cross-mountain series. Unlike Tuesday's contest when four cagers—three from SOC and one from OTL—were ejected from the game, last night's fracas was not marred by unnecessary roughness on the part of the players. Wednesday night the spectators at SOC's Memorial gymnasium carried the load of excitement.

Guy Munsell, former Klamath Union High School athlete, led the major portion of the load as Southern Oregon bounced back from a 61-51 deficit with a little more than seven minutes remaining in the game. The ex-Pel tapped in two field goals and a pair of free tosses in a Red Raider flurry as the Tech lead was cut from the 10 point margin to a 63-62 count.

Punk Biddington then fired in one from the field to give SOC its first lead of the second half with 1:56 remaining to play. Bob Whitman sent Tech to the front again with two free throws, but Munsell came right back for Southern Oregon with a field goal to make the score 66 Southern Oregon and 65 Oregon Tech with exactly one minute left in the game.

With 49 seconds showing on the clock, Whitman tied the score for Oregon Tech with one of two free throws, and the Raiders went into a stall in an effort to save their lead. Bob Frost was called for fouling Munsell with 43 seconds left, and Guy hit on one of his two tries. SOC recovered the rebound and went back into their keep-away tactics leading 67-66.

Again Frost was called for fouling his fifth of the game, and Chuck Crandall tallied twice from charity lane with only 20 seconds remaining to assure the home folks that Southern Oregon had gained at least a split with their arch rivals from the Mile High Campus.

In the first half, Tech jumped to a 7-0 lead before Lloyd Hoffine hit with a long one-hander for SOC. The Owls held their lead until Hoffine again twisted the twine with only four minutes left in the first stanza to give the Raiders a 24-23 heading. In the last four minutes of the half-raising first half, the score changed hands or was tied on nine different occasions in a "shot for shot" exchange. Jerry Fastean gave Tech a 35-34 halftime bulge by hitting from the field with very little time left.

Scoring honors for the evening went to Hoffine with 19, while three Owls and a Raider finished with 16 points. OTL's Johnny Foster, Whitman and Paul Hatcher each collected 16, as did Bill Hollingsworth of SOC. Munsell finished the night with 11, all coming in the last half, nine in the final seven minutes.

Tech was able to outshoot their hosts in both the free throw and field goal departments. The Owls hit 22 of 43 attempts from the field for a 51.2 average, while SOC was hitting 407 of 28 of 64 tries. From the free throw line, Tech averaged 22 of 30, while the Raiders had the same number of chances and hit 17. The evening's rebounding was led by Southern Oregon, 30-23.

This Friday and Saturday, Tech players bag and heads for Month and a two-game series with Oregon College of Education in another pair of Oregon Collegiate Conference battles.

In the Wednesday night preliminary game, Southern Oregon's Jaycees whipped OTL's junior varsity 64-54. Tuesday night the junior Owls fell 68-63. Jim Carlisle of SOC and Cal "Sugar Jet" Smith of OTL led the prep scoring with 19 points apiece.
