Wally Palmberg's Oregon Technical Institute Owls and Don Peterson's Klamath Union High School Pelicans both leave town this weekend for basketball outings in Mounmouth and Bend. The Owls face the Oregon College of Education Wolves tonight and Saturday, and the Pelicans meet the Bend High Lava Bears in a single game Saturday evening.

For the Mile High Campus quintet, this weekend could mean the difference of finishing in last place of the Oregon Collegiate Conference standings. Tech currently leads the Wolves of OCE who are winless in five games. For the Pelicans, the Saturday night game is a non-league battle and means very little, except for the win-loss record.

Leading the pace for the OCE Wolves as they meet the Owls will be last year's leading point-maker, Ron Jones, a 6-1 sophomore forward. Transfers Daryl Girod from Willamette and Doug Rogers from Oregon are also aiding coach Bob Livingston's charges.

Livingston will probably open with Jones at one forward and either Rogers or Dale Andrich at the other front position. At center for the Wolves will be Wayne Young, a 6-3 letterman from Coos Bay. Working in the backcourt for Oregon College will probably be Girod or Cece Miller for Ken Boydstron.

Palmberg will probably open with the same lineup that carried the high-spirited Owls to a split with Southern Oregon this past Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Johnny Foster and Bob Frost will be at forward, John McCutcheon at center and Paul Hatcher and Bobby Whitman will handle the guard positions.

This will be the final weekend-road trip of the year for the Owls. The only remaining junket that faces Tech is a one-night jaunt to Ashland for another battle with Southern Oregon.

For the Pelicans, Peterson may be forced to go against the hustling Lava Bears without the services of Glenn Moore, 6-6 sophomore center, who at the present time is leading the KUHS cagers in scoring. Moore suffered a bad injury sprained right wrist Wednesday, and has his hand and forearm in a cast for protection. Peterson said he had hopes that Moore would be ready to go against Bend. "But in case he isn't, we will not take any unnecessary chances with him. This game is important to win, but not so important as take a chance on re-injuring Moore's wrist," added the KU coach.

The Pels will probably open against the Bears with Earle Tichenor, Moore or Cliff Sutherland at the post position, while the three outside spots are a tossup between Donn Taucher, Dutch Kimpson, Jerry Burke, Ernie Perkins and Dave Peede.

For Bend, coach Glen Kinney will start with an all-veteran lineup up all of whom were starters on Bend's club last season. At forward will be Ron Anderson and Denny Leunburg, while Roland Coleman will handle the pivot chores at center. The guards for Bend will probably be Denny Olsen and Bob Bonnell, the two leading scorers for the Lava Bears. Olsen has bucketed 164 points in the first 11 games for Bend, while Bonnell follows with 122 in 10 contests.

For the Pelicans, Moore took over the point leadership when Tichenor was forced to sit out last week's series with Ashland. The talented sophomore pivotman has tallied 168 points in 12 games. While Tichenor has 138 in 10 other Pels and their point totals include Taucher with 125, Kimpson with 66, Sutherland with 65 and Perkins with 53.

Tulelake, Malin Divide KBI Games

Tulelake and Malin divided a pair of Klamath Basin Independent League basketball games last night at Malin High School. The Malin Athletics topped Tule's As 62-42, and Tule's Bs won over the Malin Bs 69-56 in the other fracas.

Jim Conroy hit for 29 points to lead the Athletics, while Rod Dietrich accounted for 18 more. High for the losers was DeLain with 15. The Malin As led 20-11 at halftime.

In the B game, Santos tallied 33 for the Tule quintet, while Stevenson had 17 and Lyon 11 for Malin's Bs.

Old Time Memories Forgotten

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Time too often dims our memories of the old heroes of sports and you can take as case in point, a pair of matches between Gene Sarazen and Craig Wood.

Twenty years ago, thousands cheered as Sarazen fired his famed double eagle at Augusta to win a playoff for the Masters championship from Wood.

Last fall, Wood finally got even as he won the New York Seniors championship from Sarazen. The only ones following them were their caddies.

That long ago day at Augusta, Sarazen had a 72 and Wood a 74. In their match last September, Wood shot a 70 and Sarazen a 71. Which brings to mind the fact that the old war horses are far from through—and that finally something is being done about it.

That something is the National PGA Seniors championship which starts today at Dunedin, Fla. There, in a three-day 54-hole tournament, the "fifty-ish" former tournament stars will play for a $6,500 purse, the Ronald Teacher Trophy and an all-expense trip to England to meet Great Britain's senior champion.

Teacher, a Scotsman who once was a four handicap man, came with the idea because "the old timers were getting lost in the rush." He provided the impetus through which Sarazen, after winning the seniors two years ago, went to England and played and beat Percy Allis—another foe of 20 years gone by.

For the Pelicans, Peterson may be forced to go against the hustling Lava Bears without the services of Glenn Moore, 6-6 sophomore center, who at the present time is leading the KUHS cagers in scoring. Moore suffered a bad injury sprained right wrist Wednesday, and has his hand and forearm in a cast for protection. Peterson said he had hopes that Moore would be ready to go against Bend. "But in case he isn't, we will not take any unnecessary chances with him. This game is important to win, but not so important as take a chance on re-injuring Moore's wrist," added the KU coach.

'Decision Day' Here For Johnny Cherberg

SEATTLE, Wash. (UP)—Today was D-for-Decision Day on the University of Washington campus where football Coach Johnny Cherberg was on the spot to prove he had regained harmony on his squad.

Cherberg, whose alleged "tyrannical tactics" as a coach caused 70 per cent of the squad to rebel against him and demand his ouster last November, was to meet today with athletic director Harvey Cassill.

Pin Lead Taken By KC Paints

KC Paint Store moved into top spot of the team event last night as the 16th annual City Women's Bowling Tournament passed the halfway mark at Lucky Lanes.

Final team action continues tonight at the South Sixth Street alley with the last eight teams slated to go after the city championship. Last year's winner was Shoop and Schulze.

The KC pin team rolled a 2648 series to nab the top spot. Another new team moved into second place as Klamath Saddle Club tallied out with a 2576 series. Third place is shared by three teams, Medo-Land Creamery, Pelican Drive Inn and Klamath Flower Shop, all with scores of 2561.

Mary Bothwell rolled a high game of 217, during last night's pin-busting session, while Opa McDonald rolled a 598 handicap series. Scotty Bray still holds the high game honor with a 221, and is second in handicap series with a 591 that was rolled when the tournament opened last Monday evening.

Bothwell is leading in the chase for all-events honors with a 550 scratch series. LaRayne Harris, the defending all-events champion, is next in line with a 540.

The tourney will draw to a close Sunday with a day-long shift scheduled for doubles and singles competition. Starting at 1 o'clock the doubles will roll. The singles will take to the LL alleys later in the afternoon.

The public is invited to attend, there is no admission charge.

New Olympic Records Said To Be Coming

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—A man who should know today predicted three new world records in the four Olympic speed skating events beginning tomorrow.

Per Christian Andersen, Norway's walking encyclopedia of winter sports, said Russia will win the 500- and 1,500-meter races in world record time on the lightning-fast surface of nearby Lake Misurina.

He also forecast a new mark in the 5,000 meters, but couldn't pick a winner between Norway's Roald Aas and Boris Schikov of Russia. K. Johannsen of Norway is his choice to win the 10,000-meter grind, but the veteran newsman who has covered every winter Olympics but one does not think Johannsen can better the world record.

Per Andersen, news editor of Aftenposten, one of Oslo's largest papers, likes Yuri Sergeyev, holder of the current 500-meter world record of 40.8 seconds, in skating's sprint event. This despite the fact Eugeny Grischin skated 40.2 here last Sunday while Sergeyev was doing 40.4.

Andersen picks Schikov, holder of the world 5,000-meter mark, in the 1,500.

YMCA Church League

The LDS First Ward basketball team continued a torrid assault on the Altamont Junior High nets in one of the four YMCA Church League games played last night. Led by Jensen's 22 points, LDS smothered Klamath Lutheran 57-35. In the other Senior Division game, Lost River DeMolay outscored First Christian 22-16 with Short leading the way on five points.

Salvation Army turned back Church of the Brethren 33-24 on a 10 point scoring effort on the part of Cooper. High for the game was the Brethren's Gordy with 14. The LDS First Ward entry in the Unlimited Division found the going tougher than their brothers as Peace Memorial registered a 28-24 triumph, Dearing led the winners with nine.

Streaks Boosted By Teams

St. Francis of Brooklyn and Temple University emerged from their latest basketball battles with their best 12-0 records shining brightly today, and in the bargain St. Francis also had half a lock on the New York City area championship.

St. Francis, pretty much overlooked although it is one of the only four major-college teams in the nation still unbeaten, proved its class again with a come-from-behind 81-78 victory over Seton Hall.

And Temple, facing weaker opposition, had no trouble trouncing Delaware, 108-81. The only other major teams with perfect marks are San Francisco and Dayton, which are rated one-two nationally by the United Press Board of Coaches.

The St. Francis-Seton Hall scrap on the losers' court at South Orange, N.J., matched the two teams now considered tops in the New York area.

It was only the second loss in 15 games for Seton Hall. Both teams are virtually certain of a bid to the National Invitation Tournament and only a tremendous upset now can keep St. Francis from winning the unofficial but coveted New York Crown.

Temple's easy win at Newark, Del., set new court records there for both teams. Moreover, little Seton Hall of the Owls pumped in 32 to become the third Temple player in history to notch 1,000.

In other leading games: Drake snuffed a four-game losing streak by beating Bradley, 79-73, and Niagara downed Duquesne, 60-51. Three Pacific Coast Conference games help to highlight tonight's court program. Southern California and Washington, currently in second place, hope to keep the pressure on packmaking but idle UCLA by beating Idaho and Oregon State, respectively. And Stanford, ranked 20th nationally, shoots for its 12th win in 14 games against Oregon.

Utah, ranked 13th nationally, plays Hawaii for the second of three times this week in Honolulu and other features include Wake Forest-South Carolina in the Atlantic Coast Conference; Texas Western-Nevada in the Mountain West; and Connecticut-Syracuse, Eastern Kentucky-Murray St., Georgetown (D.C.)-St. Peter's, Mississippi St.-Memphis St., Montana - Montana St., St. Francis (Pa.)-Seattle.

Another day of practice shooting is on the agenda of the Klamath Gun Club's Sunday calendar as all local scattergunners are welcome to turn out at the Wocus traps.

Firing time starts at 10:30. Last week, Rod Selby, John Lichtenstern and Vern Moore all tied for the 16-yard event honors with 49, while Marion Grant won the handicap laurels with a 46 of 50. Results of last Sunday's shoot are as follows:

16-yard Handp	Score

Heaton's '5', Blues Victors

DeMolay Blues walloped their brothers, the Golds 50-29 last night at Pelican School in one game of the evening's Victory League schedule, while Heaton's Steel was dumping the Gun Store by a 64-28.

Punky Adams hit for 18 to lead the Blues, while Larry Bean tallied 11 more Blue points. High for the losers was John Weber with 14. The halftime margin gave the Blues a 23-12 lead.

Art Lapsley carried the load for Heaton's, with a 26-point scoring surge. Wait Johnson added 12 for the Steelers who held a 25-13 halftime lead. Julio Gonzales hit for 10 to top the losers' scoring.

Amateurs Set For Ring Card

The second all-amateur fight card to be held in Klamath Falls within the past year will unfold Saturday night at the Fairgrounds Exhibition Building, and Basin fight fans are guaranteed one of the finest "fight for fun" programs that can be seen anywhere.

The first of 11 bouts will answer the bell at 8 o'clock and action galore is expected to follow the entire program through the outstanding double main event, which will top-off the evening's show.

Jackie Puscas, national amateur champion from the Medford Police Athletic League will vie with Dale Nicely, Tennessee AAU titlist, now pitching punches for Portland's Multnomah Athletic Club in one of the two main events. Puscas has recently toured Europe with the United States amateur boxing team, and is recognized as one of the country's most promising pugilists.

In the other half of the double main event, Medford's Larry Lewis, Oregon AAU champion, will trade blows with Darryl McQuary of the MAC. This bout is a rematch of a recent Portland battle between the two 114 pounders, which had the City of Roses clammering for more.

Mose Martinez of the Klamath Moose Boys' Club will face Lorne Christean of Medford in the top-billed battle of the preliminary card. Ramon Unive of KMBC tangles with Bob Turner in another pre-fight encounter that is expected to draw plenty of leather tossing antics before the final bell rings.

Other bouts pit Wrex Cruse of MAC against Johnny Jackson of KMBC, Darrell Erdmann, M.A.C. against Klamath's Jackie Gibbon and Dave Peters, MAC's 140-pound entry, faces Ray Lalo of the local Boys' Club. Chuck Boyd of Portland tangles with Eddie Cole of KMBC, while Cho Cho Esquedo another Klamath Falls fighter is slated to face an unnamed battler from the Medford Police Athletic League in the 90-pound class.

The evening's program will be opened by two "paperweights" as Randy Jones and Arnie Callagher, all of 35 pounds apiece, will vie in a special two-round attraction as the curtain raiser. These two Chilouin youngsters have captured the hearts of fight fans all over Southern Oregon and put on a good fight as their part of the amateur fight card.

Tickets are on sale at Dick Reeger's Store for Men in Klamath Falls. The ticket booths at the exhibition building will be open for business at 7 o'clock.

Weiss Says Yankees Fear Cleveland Most

The Yankees fear the Cleveland Indians more right now but a host of young players coming up could make the Boston Red Sox "the American League team of the future."

That's the official Yankee "party line," issued today by Yankee General Manager George Weiss. Weiss admitted, "It is a question of whether they are quite ready to do it in 1956, and as of now I'd have to figure Cleveland as more dangerous with those two young pitchers, Herb Score and Ray Narleski, developing into real aces."

But Boston has the strongest back line of any of our rivals," Weiss continued. "They have fine prospects developing on their farms and good players coming back to them after having been in military service."

While Weiss' prediction may cheer Red Sox, there was good news on prospects today for fans of the Kansas City Athletics, New York Giants and Chicago Cubs.

From San Juan, Puerto Rico, came word that Vic Power of the A's has been officially acclaimed batting champion of the Puerto Rican Winter League with a .334 average for the Caguas Club. And that right-handed pitcher Steve Riddick, whom the Giants drafted from the Pacific Coast League, was the top pitcher with 14 wins and three losses.

And there was a report that third baseman Don Hoak, whom the Cubs obtained from the woe-champion Brooklyn Dodgers in the deal that sent Ransom Jackson to the Brooks, has been one of the top players in the Dominican Republic Winter League. This report was given the Cubs in Chicago by catcher Harry Chitt, who called Hoak "the best base runner I ever saw outside of (Pee Wee) Reese and (Jackie) Robinson."

The Baltimore Orioles, Philadelphia Phillies, and Pittsburgh Pirates reported action in the signings department.
