

West Okays Ike's Stand On Red Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western world has generally approved President Eisenhower's stand on a 20-year "treaty of friendship" between Russia and the United States proffered by Premier Bulganin.

The Kremlin, as had been forecast by officials here, gave evidence that it intend to squeeze every bit of propaganda it can from the exchange of letters between the two.

The Soviet press yesterday headlined the news of Bulganin's proposal. Moscow papers carried the full text of his letter and treaty draft.

But Russian papers carried no word of Eisenhower's reply that such a pact is unneeded and might create a false illusion. Thus it appeared that Moscow hoped late publication of the rejection would give it greater impact on the Russian people.

In its issue today, the Communist party paper Pravda called Bulganin's offer "a deeply thought-out system of measures to re-establish the historical friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States."

It cautioned, however, that "it cannot be considered that the threat of a new war has disappeared."

"It is deeds and not words alone which count," Eisenhower told Bulganin in the exchange made public over the weekend. He said that what is needed to promote world peace is "a change of spirit."

Bulganin had written that it would be "an act of great international significance for peace if the United States and Russia would sign a treaty pledging (1) to settle disputes peacefully, (2) to avoid interference in each other's affairs and (3) to strengthen economic, cultural and scientific cooperation.

Eisenhower's letter, as courteous in tone as was Bulganin's suggested that Russia join in steps to unify Germany, end the threat of atomic war, free Russia's satellite states and abolish the Iron Curtain. He invited Bulganin to write his reactions.

Fireman Dies In Explosion

BOSTON (AP)—One fire fighter was killed and seven others injured last night in an explosion-punctuated fire which destroyed the Sons of Italy Hall in congested East Boston.

Thomas Slattery, 28, was killed when trapped beneath tons of debris from a fallen ceiling.

Lt. Michael A. Langone, 47, trapped with Slattery, suffered serious burns and was in critical condition.

Damage was estimated by Patrick Pignato, a former venerable of the Sons of Italy Lodge, at $100,000.

Police Probe Mass Slayings

PARSIPPANY - TROY HILLS, N. J. (AP)—Investigators questioned relatives today in a continued effort to learn why William Bauer wiped out six members of his family with a shotgun and then took his own life.

Morris County Prosecutor John D. Collins said that, to all intents, the case of the shooting rampage by the 48-year-old churchgoer is closed on a verdict of homicide and suicide.

He said, however, that county detectives will question relatives of Bauer's wife in a probe for the motive.

Bauer, a civil engineer described by neighbors as a kindly and devoted family man, used a 12-gauge shotgun Friday to slay his wife, two children, his wife's two parents, his own mother, and finally himself. The family had been preparing to go to Florida for a two-week vacation.

The victims were Bauer's wife Florence, 36; his children Elizabeth, 5, and Peter, 20 months; his mother Emma, 84; and his wife's father Unique C. Neuber Sr., 66, and his wife.

TWO MEMBERS of the YMCA-OTI Student Center try out one of the billiard tables in the main recreation room at the center, which was formally opened Saturday. Making a shot is John Buckley, as Ted Hall awaits his next try. The center was developed by the students in cooperation with the Klamath County YMCA, and the opening was a highlight of National YMCA Week, which ended Saturday night.

Mollet To Ask Assembly Approval Of Cabinet List

By CARL HARTMAN
PARIS (AP)—Socialist Premier-designate Guy Mollet asks the National Assembly tomorrow to approve his government team of 13 Cabinet ministers and 22 under-secretaries.

Some observers predicted Mollet would be confirmed in office by nearly 400 of the chamber's 590 deputies. A major factor was believed to be his appointment of ex-Premier Pierre Mendes-France, Radical party leader, as deputy premier without a departmental portfolio, rather than to the Foreign Ministry he wanted.

This was counted on to bring Mollet votes from the Catholic MRP (Popular Republican Movement), which is still bitter against Mendes-France for his refusal to push the ill-fated European army plan while he was in office.

If approved by the deputies as expected, Mollet plans to be off soon to Algeria for a try at halting the guerrilla revolt there.

He also plans to install 79-year-old Gen. Georges Catroux as resident Cabinet minister for Algeria.

Previously Algerian affairs had been administered by the Interior Ministry because legally the North African territory is considered an integral part of France. Creation of a special department for Algeria could foreshadow a measure of independence for the area plagued by nationalist strife.

Catroux once held a similar Algerian post in a government headed by Gen. Charles de Gaulle and authored a decree, never fully implemented, making Algerian Moslems full French citizens.

French forces, meanwhile, pushed their campaign against the Algerian guerrillas. Officials reported 50 rebels slain and 50 captured over the weekend. French losses were put at four killed and a dozen wounded.

French troops also fought the biggest battle of their four-month campaign against rebellious Riff tribesmen in the mountains of eastern Morocco. The French reported more than 40 rebels and 12 Foreign Legionnaires were killed in the hand-to-hand engagement Saturday six miles south of the Spanish Moroccan border.

Mollet declined to announce the rest of his Cabinet now but hinted broadly that lists published by Paris newspapers were correct. These allotted the Foreign Ministry to Socialist Christian Pineau

Banker, Son Found Shot

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—A prominent Rockford banker and his 26-year-old son were found shot to death yesterday.

State's Atty. Robert R. Canfield termed it "an apparent murder and suicide" but declined to comment further.

The bodies of George H. Arnold, 59, vice president of the Illinois National Bank & Trust Co. for 23 years, and his son Robert were found by the elder Arnold's wife Rose. They were four feet apart in the two-car garage of the family house—a showplace near the Rockford Country Club.

George Arnold had been shot once in the right temple. The son had been shot three times—once in the back of the head, once behind the right ear and once above the right ear.

A .22-caliber revolver was found at the feet of the banker.

A note which police believe was written by the son and addressed to his mother was found in a pocket of the father's trousers. It read:

"Dear Mom, I'm sorry for what happened, Bob."

Police declined to speculate on the meaning of the note.

Young Arnold, a graduate of Northwestern Naval and Military Academy in Lake Geneva, Wis., recently was discharged from the Navy.

Mrs. Arnold, who spent the afternoon at a hospital where she was a volunteer worker, found the bodies on her return home. Police said she was too hysterical to be questioned immediately.
