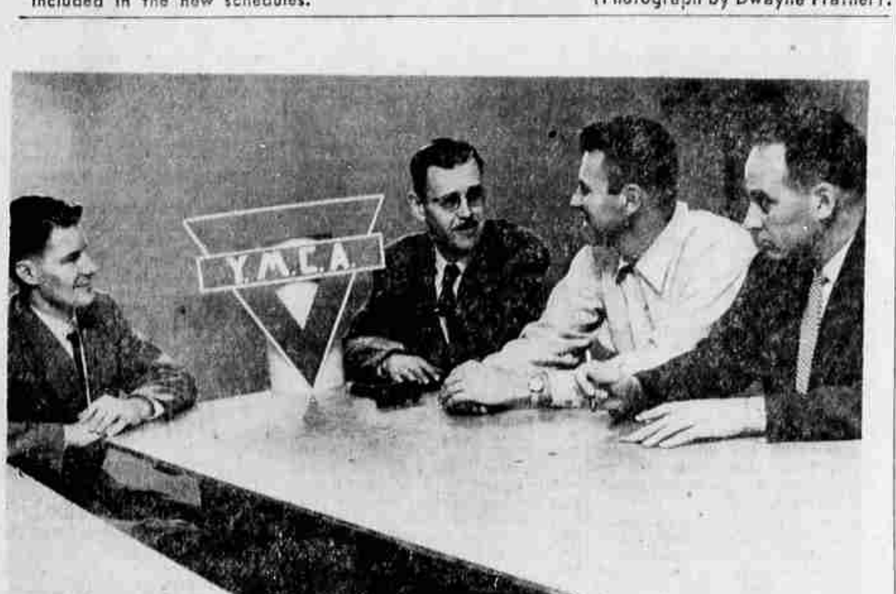
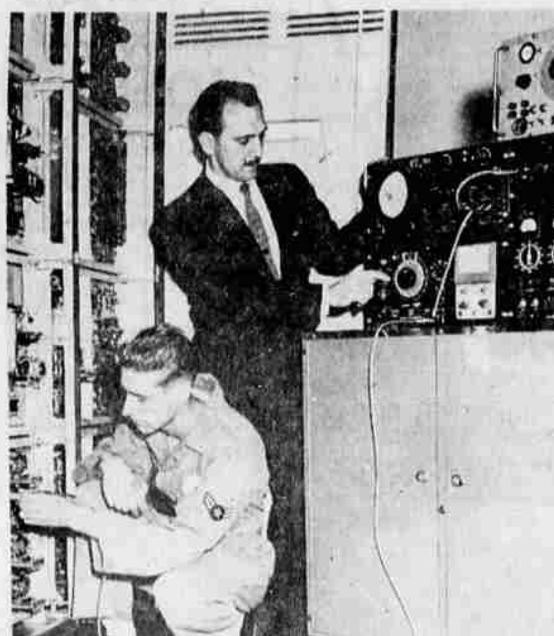
"DO YOU NEED a subject for credit in graduation, Larry?" queries Klamath Union High School counselor Howard Bailey. Larry Snead, senior, was but one of hundreds of KUHS students who passed through the counseling offices last week, as part of the spring semester registration routine. Counselors corrected conflicts in programs, and checked that required subjects were included in the new schedules. (Photograph by Dwayne Prather).



IT TAKES PLANNING to keep the ball rolling at the YMCA headquarters. Here, left to right, are Lyle Kellstrom, vice president of the board, Bill DePew, president; Jack Douglas, treasurer and Don Piper, secretary, officers of the 1956 slate. Kick-off breakfast for this year's membership roundup was held at the Winema Hotel today.



CHECKING THE "BRAIN" of an F-86D simulator at Yokota Air Force Base in Japan is Airman First Class Dennis Short, kneeling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick A. Short, 234 North First Street. Airman Short (who was promoted to A-1c after this picture was taken) is a maintenance technician with the 40th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron. He is assisting Vincent Patti, engineer with the Erco Division, ACF Industries, Inc., builders of the electronic machine. The trainer is used to train jet pilots in emergency procedures in the F-86D, the type of aircraft expected to be stationed at the Klamath Falls air base when it is operational. Short was graduated from Klamath Union High School and attended the University of Oregon for two years prior to joining the Air Force.

Retail Merchants Plan Meeting

DUNSMUIR — A new slate of officers will take over the Dunsmuir Retail Merchants Association at the February 6 meeting at the Hotel Dunsmuir. Benne Slimmer, owner of Slimmer's Furniture store, is the newly elected president.

Marjorie Young, owner of Young's Furniture store, was elected vice president at the January meeting; Don Bottega, owner of the Sweet Shop, secretary; and J. Lachenmyer, owner of the Toggery, treasurer. The association is a branch of the Dunsmuir Chamber of Commerce.

A special promotional event for the latter part of February will be planned at the next meeting. Meetings are held at the conference room of the Hotel Dunsmuir.
