THIS NEW BRICK BUILDING at 2123 Holly Street is the home of the Olympia Grocery, owned and operated by Gus Lampropulos, now open for business. The building, in addition to the modern grocery store, contains two newly completed two-bedroom apartments with all up-to-date features. Lampropulos carries a complete line of imported and domestic groceries and fresh and cured meats at the new location. Grounds about the building will be blacktopped when weather permits for the convenience of customers and tenants. Joe Johns was the contractor. Former location of the business was at 1130 Main Street.

Weather Seer Said In Love

SUN PRAIRIE, Wis. (UP)—Love in bloom may prevent the foretelling of the end of winter's gloom by Sun Prairie's albino groundhog weather prophet.

This happy but pride-wounding news came from Sun Prairie groundhog watchers who claim their community is the "Groundhog Capital of the World." The title is disputed in no uncertain terms by equally ardent citizens of Punxsatawney, Pa., who say their groundhog is the sage of the world and the only one entitled to predict the end of winter.

"Our little groundhog, Prince Dauphin, may not put in an appearance, because to put it mildly, he's in love," sadly explained Wally Braatz, Sun Prairie Groundhog Club member.

"He is very temperamental — so much so you can't get near him."

Groundhog day is Feb. 2. On that day each year the furry little animal, according to tradition, pops his head out of his burrow for a look around after sleeping all winter. If he sees his shadow in bright sunlight, he goes back to sleep—for six more weeks. No shadow—spring is just around the horizon.

Sun Prairie, however, will not relinquish the honors to Punxsatawney.

If Prince Dauphin is too suby with amour, retired champion "Sir No Talk In Sleep" will be called out of retirement to do the honors, club members said.

Jackie Barnett Probably World's Fastest Tunesmith

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—One of the unsung geniuses of television is a man who writes a song every day—all because Jimmy Durante murders popular music.

On the Durante show you see his credit line, "Songs by Jackie Barnett." That's his only notice for turning out the equivalent of a Broadway show almost every week.

For each program Jackie pens seven songs—some of them dashed off in five minutes, making him probably the world's fastest tunesmith. He also has the distinction of furnishing tunes for the only regular TV show that has original music.

"It's all because Durante can't sing popular songs," Jackie explained today when I tracked him down at NBC's television studios.

"He does a type of music we call Durante music. It's bombastic. Popular songs just aren't geared for him."

Jackie started out as a gag writer for the program and graduated to his unique post of song writer. By now he has turned out more than 600 original songs for the Durante show. After spirited arguments, he has even induced the sentimental Durante to try singing mambos and spirituals.

The program's writers often order certain songs from Jackie. Other times Jackie will be inspired to do a tune and has the writers fashion a show around it. His fastest time was turning out a ditty titled "Crazy Jimmy Style" in four minutes for Janet Blair to sing.

"I just went into the next room and wrote it," Barnett says casually.

Jackie has one frustration. Most of his original tunes are buried forever after the TV show. Some are too Durante-ish for others to sing. Most Jimmy prefers to keep for himself. Dinah Shore and Danny Thomas once asked to use Jackie's songs, but "Schnoz" turned them down.

Some Barnett tunes have slipped into general use, however. Helen Traubel uses one to close her night club act. Jimmy has recorded several and sings others in his nightclub act.

Jackie feels his amazing output of songs is of one great benefit—it saves popular songs from being massacred by Durante.

"Years ago Durante was responsible for a big song hit," related Barnett.

"I heard 'Nature Boy' and told Jimmy, 'This has a lot of heart. It would be a change of pace for you.' Jimmy sat down and sang it for me."

Barnett then did for me a fabulous imitation of Durante singing "Nature Boy": "A little shy. . .and sad of eye. . .and what a bum was he."

"I said, Jimmy, better forget it," Barnett went on. "He never sang it. And that is the reason that song went on to become one of the biggest hits in the last 15 years!!"

More Jap POW's May Be Released

TOKYO (AP) — Reports from Japan's overseas diplomats indicate that most of the 431 Japanese war criminals still held in Sugamo prison will be released by spring.

Former Lt. Gen. Kenryo Sato, director of the wartime Military Affairs Bureau and the only Class A war criminal still imprisoned, is expected to be paroled about April. He was one of 18 major war criminals sentenced to life imprisonment by the joint Allied international military tribunal. Seven others were executed.

Of the 430 Class B and C war criminals still in Sugamo, at least 350 are expected to be released outright or paroled before June, a government source said.

Lions, Rotary Set For Fight

DUNSMUIR—It will be the Lions Long Johns against the Rotary Triangle Cuts in a benefit basketball game Wednesday night which will climax the March of Dimes campaign in Dunsmuir. This event will begin with a preliminary game between the Dunsmuir elementary school and Cottonwood elementary school teams at 7:30 at the elementary school gym.

For the Lions-Rotary contest, rooters are being asked to help decide who wins the game by tossing small change into scoring boxes for each team. Cash will prevail over baskets when the referees announce the winner.

The losing team has agreed to clean up the city park next spring if the winners will be hosts at a picnic when they turn out for the job.

Strategy for the game was discussed this week at the Lions dinner on Tuesday evening at the Travelers Hotel and the Rotary luncheon on Wednesday at the Hotel Dunsmuir.

Both clubs had as their guest speaker last week, Buz Lauer of Los Angeles who represents the Gerrold Corporation, TV equipment supplier. He was introduced by John Burgess who has the franchise for the Dunsmuir television cable system.

Lauer explained the various difficulties the cable system had to surmount to bring TV to Dunsmuir and of the advantages of the cable system.

Archers Plan Fund Campaign

Klamath Archers announce their first money-making project in their program to raise funds to start an indoor shooting range. For the last two years the group has built and maintained the outdoor field course for public use at Moore Park.

Two evenings' entertainment are scheduled at Mills School for Tuesday, January 31 and Wednesday, February 1, starting at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

"Alaska, the Wonderland," wildlife films made by Ted Haynes, who formerly lived in the Klamath Basin, will be supplemented by the showing of a Howard Hill archery hunting film.

Tickets are on sale at Joe's Sporting Goods Store, Hal's Sport Shop, The Gun Store, Don Diven's, Poole's Bicycle Shop, Roberts Hardware, Peterson's Market, Curley's Texaco Station and Farmers' Lumber and Milling Company.

Seats may be purchased at the door on each evening, also.

Earl Cahoon is president of Klamath Archers whose membership numbers about 80 archery enthusiasts. Bud Vroman is vice president and Audrey Baxter is secretary treasurer. The group meets regularly on the first Thursday of each month in the basement of Moose Hall where it has an indoor archery range.

Klamath Archers plan an invitational field tournament to be shot on April 29 at Moore Park.

Eisenhower Not Avid Video Viewer; Simply No Time

By CHARLES MERCER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Like many another busy male citizen of the United States, President Eisenhower is not an avid viewer of television. He simply doesn't have the time.

But he is deeply interested in television and watches a variety of programs whenever he can. Available to him and Mrs. Eisenhower in various rooms of the White House living quarters are four black-and-white TV sets and one color set. They also have television sets at their farm in Gettysburg, Pa.

It would make interesting news if one could report the specific favorite programs of the President and Mrs. Eisenhower. But that's top secret. As the Eisenhowers and their official family are keenly aware, their personal likes and dislikes would attract so much public interest in certain programs that the result could be most unfair to many other programs.

Whenever possible both the President and his wife view at least one televised news program in the evening. For relaxation, when time permits, the President enjoys watching a good mystery drama.

Mrs. Eisenhower, on the other hand, is an avid television watcher. She takes TV programs pretty much as they come. She enjoys music and there is one specific weekly dramatic program that is her personal pick of the many regular dramatic shows on the screen.

Naturally the Eisenhowers always are interested in seeing news program pickups of the President's televised press conferences.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty says the White House is greatly impressed by the numbers of letters that pour in after a televised press conference.

"The President thinks of television as a great medium of both entertainment and education," says Hagerty. "He believes it should be applied to government and the news events of the world. It helps keep people informed every day."

Norway Leader Faces Crisis

AALESUND, Norway (UP)—Norwegian Foreign Minister Hallvard Lange sped home from Denmark today to face a threatened international incident stemming from the seizure of Russian fishing boats by Norweign naval vessels.

Tough Norwegian sailors flourishing pistols and machine guns boarded and captured four Red fishing boats and a factory ship Monday for violating Norway's territorial waters.

Norwegian torpedo boats raced out at dawn after radioed reports from Norwegian fishermen said "several" Red boats which escaped Monday sneaked back during the night.

Heavier warships steamed from north and south to the area, between Stad Foreland and Svinoey lighthouse, on orders radioed from the west coast navy headquarters at Bergen.

Lange broke off his visit to Copenhagen, where the Nordic Council is meeting, when he received the news.

The commander of one Norwegian boarding party fired two warning shots into the deck of a Russian ship at the feet of its captain when he refused to follow orders to sail into port. Norwegian sailors kept the Russian crew covered with submachine guns.

The captured ships were part of a Russian fishing fleet of 70 to 80 ships spotted netting herring "well within" the four-mile limit of Norwegian waters. Swift armored navy torpedo boats dashed into the middle of the fleet, catching it by surprise, and capturing four modern, 200-ton steel ships and their 40-man crews.

DR. ADLER RETURNS

Dr. George H. Adler, Klamath County coroner, who was ill for several weeks, has fully recovered and has resumed his practice. Dr. Adler spent a short time in Hillside Hospital. He is now maintaining regular office hours and is carying on his duties as county coroner.
