Eugene Captures Vote Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eugene, the defending state champion, displaced Jefferson of Portland as Oregon's No. 1 basketball team in this week's Associated Press poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.
Eugene moved up from its No. 2 position the hard way. The Axemen had to score 12 points in the last two minutes to keep from being upset by Roseburg Friday night. They won that game 50-46 and went on to beat Cottage Grove easily the following night for their 12th victory against two defeats.
Jefferson lost the top spot because of a 60-59 overtime loss to Franklin. Jeff dropped to No. 2 while Franklin came up from No.
4 last week to No. 3 this week.
Marshfield, a team whose core is members of its state championship football team, moved from No. 5 into fourth place with wins over Medford-No. 3 last week and Grants Pass.

USF Holds Top Spots In AP, UP Cage Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
After winning their 40th straight game—and their 14th this season—by the unusual score of 33-24, the Don's scored 1,357 points in the Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters to tighten their hold on the No. 1 ranking.
San Francisco received 90 first-place votes out of 146 ballots and 34 for second place. Fewer than a dozen unbelievers dared put the Don's lower than fourth. Points were scored on the usual basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc.

Gordie Howe Leads Hockey Point Makers

MONTREAL (UP)—Gordie Howe of Detroit today led all National Hockey League scorers for the second straight week with 57 points.
Howe scored his 29th goal of his career early last week against the New York Rangers and added three assists. Montreal's Jean Beliveau fell two points off the lead although he bagged three goals.
Maurice Richard was seven points behind Howe.
New York's Andy Bathgate dropped to fourth place with 48 points after being docked with Richard for the past two weeks.
Tou Sloan of Toronto moved into a fifth place tie with Montreal's Bert Olinia, each with 47 points.
Sloan and Bellevue are the top goal producers, each with 29.
Olinia picked up a pair of assists to increase his league leading total to 38.
Goalie Jacques Plante of the Canadiens fanned seven times last week, but still had the best goals-against average with a mark of 1.82. Detroit's Glenn Hall was the only other netminder under the 2.00 level with a 1.98 average.
Lou Fontinato, the Rangers' colorful defenseman, led the parade to the penalty box with a total of penalized team with 773 minutes 142 minutes. Toronto was the most penalized team with 773 minutes off ice.

Station KING-TV said Cherberg has agreed to appear on a program starting at 8:45 p.m. to detail the differences with the university administration that led to his firing by athletic director Harvey Cahill.
The university athletic department was offered similar time but

Pels To Meet Shasta; PS Invades Ore Tech

Coach Don Peterson's Klamath Union High School Pelicans get another "one-night weekend" week, but for the basketballing Owls of Oregon Technical Institute and coach Wally Palmberg, the Friday-Saturday schedule looms as the biggest home series to unfold before local fans this year.
While the Pelicans are preparing to meet the invading Shasta High Wolves of Redding in a one-night stand Saturday evening, the Owls must polish their attack for a pair of weekend outings against the league leading Portland State College Vikings.

Klamath Grapplers Upset U of O Frosh

Richard Berg scored a 9-3 decision in the final bout of the match last night at Pelican Court to give the Klamath Union High School Pelicans a 22-20 wrestling triumph over the powerful University of Oregon Frosh. The win was the sixth this year against three losses.
The last minute victory avenged an earlier season loss, 28-12, that the Frosh had been able to hang on the Pelicans in a bout held at Eugene.
Going into the final bout of the Monday evening match, the Pels were trailing the Frosh 20-19, and the load rested on the shoulders of Berg, a 1955 state high school wrestling champion. Going against Jim Formiller of the Frosh, Berg outpointed his more experienced opponent to hand his team the triumph, and a big win it was for the Pelicans.
In posting their upset victory over the Frosh, the Pels won six bouts on decisions and drew in two others. The U of O Frosh won two bouts on falls, drew in two more and captured another pair on points.
Earlier in the year, Portland State throttled the Owls on two occasions in the opening weekend of first round conference action.
PSC won 93-67 and 87-67 on their home floor in Portland. Since that time, Tech has split with SOU, lost two to EOC and split with Oregon College. Portland State whipped OCE once, split with the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon and toppled the Mounties of Eastern Oregon twice.
The local high school followers have another lean basketball week ahead of them, with only Saturday night action showing on the Pelican Court docket. Shasta and Klamath will engage in their third meeting of the season, a rematch of the Christmas week series played in Redding. In this pair of tilts, the Pels came off the victor on both occasions.
Coach Harlan Carter of Redding has been having a rough go of it this year, with one of the "green-ies" teams ever produced by Shasta Union. Early in the season Redding lost seven of eight games, but in the last few weeks has been showing signs of improvement.
Carter's hoopers would like nothing better than to knock the Pelicans off on their own map, but the odds are stacked against them, should Peterson's Pels recover from last Saturday night's loss to Bend.
Glenn Moore, talented 6-6 center of the Whitebirds is expected to be on hand for this Saturday's action after sitting out the Bend contest because of a badly sprained right wrist. The smooth-working sophomore fell and injured his wrist last Wednesday and was forced to wear a splint for protection. Should Moore's wrist fail to respond, then the chances of the Wolves pulling an away from home win would be increased.

Illinois Increases Cage Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Four major independents, hopeful of huring berths in college basketball's postseason tournaments, and Illinois, aiming for the same goal by way of a conference tilt, were able to add favorable clippings to the scrapbooks with ease today.
The Illini scammed farther out front in the Big Ten race which leads to the NCAA tourney by whipping Minnesota 95-84 last night. It was the 11th straight success for once-beaten Illinois, now 5-0 in the Big Ten and sixth ranked today in the Associated Press poll.
Among the independents, Holy Cross walloped Georgetown 86-68 with Tom Heinsohn setting two Crusader free throw records; Oklahoma City handled Texas A&M with equal ease 76-56; Memphis State ran away from Arkansas State 97-67, and Seton Hall cleared the bench beating Creighton 86-73.
Holy Cross, No. 4 in the poll and 14-2 for the season, was an NIT entry last year along with Seton Hall, unranked and 14-2. Oklahoma City, No. 15 and 14-4, and Memphis State, No. 16 and 14-4, both were NCAA at-large selections in 1955.
In other conference games last night, Kentucky, ranked eighth, got back on the beam in the Southeastern by whipping Georgia Tech 64-42; Kansas State took the Big Seven lead with a 71-63 decision over Oklahoma; West Virginia bolstered its Southern lead by pasting Virginia Military 103-68 while runner-up George Washington clipped Virginia Tech 92-70; and Wichita defeated Detroit 99-79 in a battle of Second Valley independents.
Pop-ranked San Francisco, idle last night, figures to add San Jose State to its record 40-game winning streak tonight.
Illinois, out-hit from the field, sank 31 of 37 free throw attempts to stand off a second-half Gopher cally fired by Jed Dommeyer's 21 points. He finished with 27.
Heinsohn scored 28 for Holy Cross, which had no trouble against Georgetown's 2-3 zone.
Heinsohn hit 18 free throws for one team mark and sank his first eight tries from the foul line to run his string to 23, breaking the previous high of 19 held by Bob Cousy.

T. Jackson, Baker Clash

Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson returns from a three-month layoff to tangle on high-ranked Bob Baker Friday night at Madison Square Garden in an important heavyweight test.
Although the Hurricane huffed and puffed to no effect in losing to Jimmy Blade Oct. 28 explaining "I couldn't get my arms and legs working right," he currently is rated No. 3 among Rocky Marciano's challengers with a 25-4-1 record.
Baker ranks even higher, No. 1 under the National Boxing Assn., and No. 2, behind Archie Moore, in the Ring ratings. He lost plenty of prestige in a dull winning effort against Nino Valdes at Cleveland Dec. 9 although he plodded to his 13th straight victory.

YMCA Church League

Stewart Lennox turned back Church of the Brethren 28-18 in the only Senior Division game played in last night's YMCA Church League basketball action.
In the two Unlimited Division games, Mt. Laki walloped Suburban Christian 40-27 and the Ys Men whipped First Baptist 37-30.
Coffman tallied 10 to lead the Stewart Lennox win, while Heggie led the Ys Men with 18 points.
McGowan of First Baptist hit for 10 points in a losing cause. Lee and Kaylor paced the Mt. Laki entry with 12 and 10 points apiece.
