

DELIGHT the man in your life with a pair of Cooper's nylon stretch socks with double hearts joined by Cupid's arrow.

KING-O-HEARTS boxer shorts by Coopers are special for Valentine's Day this year.

Valentine's Day

"The whole world is strewn with snares, traps, gins and pitfalls for the capture of men by women," wrote George Bernard Shaw. Surely he must have had Valentine's Day in mind when he said this.

To his list, Cooper's, Incorporated, has added three perfect lures for your heart's desire. A gay King-O-Hearts patterned men's boxer short (pictured here) has a companion gift in a pair of stretch socks with several color combinations in the heart motif.

Not shown are King-O-Hearts Jockey brand knitted briefs which feature red hearts and black crown print. Color sealed, these Celanese acetate briefs wash easily and quickly. The waist band, made from heat resistant elastic, just wears and wears. The boxer short has comfortable "nobel" waist band that stays firmly but gently in place.

No need to worry about purchasing the correct size if you are choosing these stretch socks, because these socks will fit all sizes from 9 to 13. They are designed with a knitted clock motif of two hearts pierced with Cupid's arrow.

Honey Prune Cake

Good old-fashioned prune cake has been a standby for lunch boxes since kids trundled down the road to the little red school house with the bell in the steeple. Now the school house is big and red brick, but the cake in the lunch box remains the same. That's because "Honey Prune Cake" is such a good carrier, stays moist, and is easy to make. Doesn't need frosting; it's sweet enough, and this version has grated orange peel and cinnamon enhancing its flavor.

HONEY PRUNE CAKE

1 cup cooked prunes
1/2 cup shortening
2-3 cup sugar
1-3 cup honey
2 eggs
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup sour milk or buttermilk

Cut prunes from pits into small pieces. Cream shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Blend in honey. Add eggs one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Blend in rind. Sift together flour, salt, soda, baking powder and cinnamon. Blend into creamed mixture alternately with sour milk. Turn batter into greased pan (about 9 inches square). Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 50 to 60 minutes.
Makes 1 (9-inch) cake.

EYE-CATCHERS

Designed to catch the eye of juvenile shoppers is a shirt, pants and tie ensemble packaged in a folding box shaped like a television set. As far as the youngsters are concerned, the packaging turns prosaic items into gift items.
