HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Show business today mourned the deaths of comedian Bob Burns and actor Charles Grapewin, who both owed much of their success to hillbilly characteristics.

Both were retired. Grapewin, famed for his portrayals of Jester Lester in "Tobacco Road" and Grandpa Joad in "The Grapes of Wrath," died yesterday at his Corona, Calif., home, about 50 miles from here. He was 86. Death was caused by complications resulting from old age.

Hours earlier, Burns, a hawkeye playing Arkansas comedian, died in West Valley Community Hospital of cancer. He had been in declining health for the past three years since undergoing surgery that failed to help overcome the malignancy in his kidney.

Funeral services for Burns will be held tomorrow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Services were pending for Grapewin.

Widow Declared Owner Of Money

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP) — A 57-year-old widow has been declared the rightful owner of $4,025 found in a metal box by an iron worker at a building project last May.

Circuit Judge Bernard M. Decker ruled Mrs. June Siskind, a bookstore operator, proved to his satisfaction that she owned the money. She testified her sister Mary Funk hid the money when they formerly lived on the property. She said she could not find the money box after her sister's death in 1949.

Albert Sorenson, 34, who found the money, said he was satisfied Mrs. Siskind proved it was her property. He said he was glad he had done the "honest thing" and had no regrets he had turned the money over to authorities.

Decker praised Sorenson and urged Mrs. Siskind to reward him liberally. She said Sorenson would be "treated fairly" in the matter of a reward.

Grace Kelly, Prince Plan Four-Day Monaco Wedding

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Prince Rainier III has given actress Grace Kelly a second, flashing engagement ring and—despite skeptical movie-towniers—a blueprint for a fabulous four-day wedding in Monaco.

While some local experts still bet the romance might fade, the matched-prince quietly has slipped a diamond the size of a small spotlight on her finger to replace the minor rub-and-diamond bauble he gave her in New York.

And the prince also spends his days here on the long distance telephone to Monaco discussing a schedule for their April wedding that outdoes the plans for the fall of Rome.

Sources inside the house say the wedding will make Rita and Aly's knotting look like an informal elopement.

The prince's advisers have decided upon four days of merriment. Festivities will include various parties, a civil ceremony, religious ceremony, huge reception, more parties and concerts. Each night fireworks will blaze over the Mediterranean—a scene stolen from a Grace Kelly film about the French Riviera, "To Catch a Thief."

Although true love still reigns in this schmaltzy operetta-type romance, there is one crass business note.

"The wedding date will be set for sometime after April 8, not to interfere with the Cannes Film Festival or other events so it will get maximum news value," a source close to the prince says.

"After all, postage stamps and tourists are Monaco's industries."

Meanwhile, Grace and Rainier are spending their celebrated courtship by doing practically nothing. The blonde actress works every day from 7 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. They dine either at her ranch-style, walled home in Pacific Palisades or his Italian-style mansion in Bel-Air. Only once have they appeared in public. That was when they dined at the Bel-Air Hotel.

"No kisses, they were very quiet," says a waiter.

While Grace works with Frank Sinatra in "High Society," the prince plays tennis on the courts behind her house.

He refuses to visit Grace on her movie set. In fact, her romance came up only once during shooting—when director Chuck Walters let Grace wear her engagement ring. It will be one of the "stars" of the picture.

Roseburg High Breaks Record

ROSEBURG (AP) — Roseburg high school students have shattered their own national record in the "Teens Against Polio" drive.

They collected $10,076.63, more than $1,000 above their 1955 total of $8,801.98.

No one knew for sure Thursday if the amount was still high nationally. No comparative figures have been received at the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis headquarters in Portland. Thursday morning Mrs. Loretta Patou, secretary for state foundation representative Gene Malecki, said "we have had no other returns to date."

She did not know if other schools in Oregon had officially challenged the Roseburg youngsters.

Principal Harry Jacoby said his students had received no written challenge. One other teen report appeared in Tuesday's Grants Pass Courier. Students at the Grants Pass High School turned in $1,219.33 in their drive. The school is similar in size to Roseburg which has 1,237 students.

In Roseburg the eager freshmen saved off a last minute push by the seniors to win the award for the best class showing. The freshmen's total was $3,153.00. It was only $3.14 above the senior total. Juniors collected $1,911.55 for third place. Sophomores were fourth with $1,419.78. Miscellaneous collections added $441.23.

Since the Roseburg students have started their campaigns to battle polio, they have raised nearly $30,000 in six years. A Roseburg senior, Miss Sharon Lander, is state chairman of the "Teens Against Polio" drive. She is a polio victim.

Jet Crashes Into Tokyo Houses

TOKYO (AP) — A U. S. Marine F4U Fury jet smashed into a string of houses in a teeming east Tokyo suburb today, killing the pilot and injuring four civilians, one seriously.

Two houses were destroyed and three others damaged.

The Marines said the plane, based at nearby Atsugi Naval Air Station, was on a routine training flight. It was at 30,000 feet in a formation with three other Furies when it stalled and went into a spin.

The pilot's name was withheld.

GUARDIAN APPOINTED

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jean Pierre Aumont, husband of the late screen actress Maria Montez, has been appointed guardian of their 10-year-old daughter's estate.

Miss Montez died Sept. 7, 1951, in Paris, leaving an estate after debts and expenses of $9,370. The child, Maria Christine, who is attending school in New York, will receive about $2,342, the French actor advised a Superior Court hearing.

Crash Report Due Today

LOS ANGELES (UP) — The Santa Fe Railway will submit a report today to a coroner's inquest which the company said substantiates the claim by an engineer that his "blacking out" caused a train wreck which killed 30 persons.

The inquest was scheduled to hear testimony from 32 witnesses into the Jan. 22 wreck, the worst rail tragedy in California history.

The two-car commuter train overturned on a curve while traveling 70 miles per hour, Engineer Frank Parrish, 61, has accepted full responsibility for the crash. He said he "blacked out" at the throttle, causing the train to pick up speed instead of slowing down to the required 15 mph for the curve.

Fireman Homer Smith, 42, however, blamed a mechanical failure for the wreck. He said Parrish applied emergency brakes which failed to work.

The railway announced last night its investigation had disclosed that Parrish was capable of "blacking out" and that the brakes were "in perfect working order." Santa Fe said doctors had made an electroencephalograph examination of Parrish which "reflected a condition indicating (he) was capable of 'blacking out' as he stated after the accident."

The railway said Parrish's condition "could not be determined in advance in the course of the regular company physical examination."

Meanwhile, five children who were orphaned by the deaths of their parents, William Albert Penn, 59, and his wife, Marcia, 50, of San Diego, Calif., filed suit for $1 million damages against Santa Fe.

Russians Told Of Treaty Reject

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow radio told the Russian people for the first time today that President Eisenhower had rejected Soviet Premier Bulganin's proposal for a 20-year Soviet-U. S. friendship treaty.

The Soviet government radio followed its first broadcast of the U. S. President's week-old letter immediately with the text of Bulganin's new letter asking the President to reconsider the proposal.

Eisenhower's rejection was made public in Washington last Saturday. But Moscow radio ignored it and concentrated on pushing out favorable reactions to Bulganin's proposal.

This delay seemingly gave Bulganin time to frame his second message—and so make sure the U. S. President's rejection would not monopolize attention when the Russians at last were told of it.
