

A VISITOR FROM THE SOUTH was on hand at last week's dinner dance sponsored by the Shasta Cascade Chapter, Society of American Foresters at the Willard Hotel in the person of John Thompson (right) who is with the forestry department of Johns-Manville. With him are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cooper. Cooper is district ranger for the Rogue forest. The affair was the second annual dance sponsored by the association. Music was furnished by the Starlighters following a social hour and a buffet dinner.

THE KLAMATH AGENCY was well represented at last week's Foresters' Ball held at the Willard Hotel. Pictured here are Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Zoller (left) and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wilcox, formerly forest superintendent at the Agency, announced his resignation at the dance, stating that he has accepted a position with the Management Specialists who are conducting the work of removing the reservation from federal supervision.

THE BRAINS behind last Friday's SAF dance at the Willard were this committee, left to right, Bob Cooper, Mrs. Victor Sisson, Vic Sisson, Bob English and Mr. and Mrs. George Wardell. Mrs. Cooper, not pictured, was also a committee member. The dinner dance marked the annual social get-together of the Shasta Cascade Chapter, Society of American Foresters, when the men forego their business meeting and invite wives and girl friends along for an evening of music and dancing. This year marked the second time the dance has been held. Last year it was conducted at Reames.
