Hazel Schieferstein Weds James T. Baker January 8

Hazel Schieferstein became the bride of James T. Baker when they exchanged vows in a ceremony read by the Rev. S. D. McNeil on January 8, at 2 p.m., in the First Methodist Church.

She is the daughter of long-time Klamath residents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Schieferstein, 4519 Balsam Drive, and her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Baker, Rolla, Missouri.

Baskets of white snapdragons and candelabra formed the background decoration for the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white net gown over white satin with lace bodice and skirt panels and a chapel length train. A lace crown scattered with pearls held her elbow.

Her three attendants were Mrs. William Ackerman, sister of the bride, matron of honor; Barbara Solie and Virginia Van Doren, friend of the bride, bridesmaids. All wore ballerina length red velvet frocks in princess lines with square necklines and short sleeves. They carried white satin mufts decorated with red carnations and wore matching headbands of red and white carnations.

Little Cynthia Schieferstein, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and her nephew, Richard Ackerman, was ringbearer.

Best man was Bud Jacobson, friend of the bridegroom, and Richard Schieferstein, bride's brother, ushered.

Organist Marie Obenchain accompanied the soloist, Gail Nerseith.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Schieferstein wore a rose lace dress over rose satin with rose and black accessories, with a matching corsage of roses.

The bridegroom's parents in Missouri were unable to attend. Li and Mrs. James Lay, Sacramento, were here for the ceremony.

Mrs. Lay, sister of the bridegroom, was his only relative at the service.

Mrs. Baker is a graduate of KUHS, and her husband is a graduate of Oregon Technical Institute.

Following a reception in the First Methodist Church parlor, the couple honeymooned in California. Since January 15 they have been home at Oretch.

Parties given for the bride prior to the wedding included a shower given by Mrs. Claris Williams and Mrs. Albert Loomis at the Williams home, and one given by Barbara Solie, Virginia Van Doren and Mrs. Lester Foster at the Foster home.

The Sharp Tailored Look

We've become very "style conscious" about our homes of late. We suit the color-styling to the architecture, and to the style of the furnishings. This gives a sense of unity and authenticity, and provides us with greater opportunity to make our homes more original, more individualized than ever before.

The "style" in the Modern bedroom sketched has been achieved by the distinctive choice of paint colors. The walls and ceiling have been painted a grayed sea green. A deeper gray green (deeper enough to give a strong contrast) has been used on the baseboard and the 4-inch border around the too. Shutters and woodwork have been painted in the deeper tone, also. This gives the sharp, clean, tailored look that's so desirable in Modern rooms.
