SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

MOUNT SHASTA — Mrs. Lee Morford, deputy grand guardian, District 78 of the International Order of Job's Daughters, conducted a school of instruction for the Mount Shasta Bethel 130 at the evening meeting January 23 in Howe Hall, Mount Shasta.

In addition to Mrs. Morford, the Bethel guardian, Mrs. George Walter, and associate guardian, Chester Kinney, were escorted to the east for introduction by the presiding honored queen, Carleen Walter.

Plans were completed for a Valentine party for Job's Daughters and their invited guests to follow the Monday night, February 13, meeting of the Bethel in Howe Hall, with dancing heading the entertainment for the evening.

The 14 members present contributed donations of money for the gift earmarked for Bethel 256 of Yuba City.

Refreshments were served by members, with Linda Alton as chairman.

FOUNDER'S DAY

DUNSMUIR — A life membership award will be made to a person who has served the community, particularly in the interests of children, at Founder's Day ceremonies on Thursday, February 9, at the school auditorium.

The afternoon observance will be held by the Dunsmuir Elementary School PTA. The award will be a recognition pin and donation made in the name of the person so honored to the PTA scholarship fund.

The executive board will present a playlet. A silver tea will follow the program.

Take it from me girls... stay Smart and Healthy

What an effect a world-rocking event like the Olympics has on the clothes you wear...

Sports clothes the coming season may well sparkle forth with the reds, whites and blues of Old Glory—and the reason may well be that the U.S. skating team—especially the couple who participate in the team skating events—have set red, white and blue for their ensemble.

Speaking of Olympics, there are several ways to look at America's lack of real Olympic feminine athletic ability. Could it be that in America the ladies practice being ladies—dainty, sweet and feminine—rather than the muscular, masculine females who sport the red star of Russia.

Yet we've known girls as cute and pert as any who nevertheless can play a mean game of ping pong, chase many a guy off the tennis court and do acrobatics to shame 99 per cent of the males.

Then there's the feeling that an athletic gal may be unattractive to the guys. Not so, it would seem. Little "Mo" of tennis fame—along with such others as glamorous Gussie Moran—prove there's a romantic future for the female. As for fame and for the love of a country, what about the Babe Zaharias... you can't best that.

It would seem, then, that it isn't the fact the gal's an athlete that may cause others to turn away. Rather, it's the way she herself acts. Even though she be more muscular or agile than most, should she stay feminine sweet and personality-wise, she'll keep a solid place in both social and athletic life. Of course, no matter which, milk is a good way to success—both in society (where appearance and personality count) and in athletics (where agility and coordination—if not muscle—count).

It would seem, then, that no matter what your hopes for the future, three glasses of milk are a necessity. You can take it from me.

Dinner And Surprise Reception Honor Couple On 25th Anniversary

MERRILL — Mr. and Mrs. George Mattson, married 25 years ago on January 21, 1931 in the West Rock Methodist Parsonage in Minnesota, were honored on the anniversary of that date with a 6:30 p.m. dinner and reception in the Merrill Recreation Hall.

Over 200 relatives and guests, many of them from out of town, were present to offer congratulations to the couple.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lisk, Merrill, who attended the honor couple at their marriage. Mrs. Lisk is the former Marion Barnes.

The dinner to which the couple was invited was followed by the surprise reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Mattson came to Merrill in 1935. They returned to Minnesota for a time but returned here again in 1944. Since 1947, Mr. Mattson has been with the Columbia Utilities Company, Merrill.

Leonard Lisk emceed the festivities.

During the program that included a mock wedding, numerous musical numbers and short talks, Mr. and Mrs. Mattson were presented with flowers, identical to the ones used at the original wedding ceremony. Flowers were also presented to other members of the original wedding party, by nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Mattson, Kathryn and Myrtle Barnes, Geraldine Johnson, Janice and Sheila Lisk.

This group of girls also sang the "Anniversary Song," with Glenda Story at the piano.

Bonnie Icebice played a selection on the accordion, Betty Ann Chapman gave a tap dance, and nieces and nephews of the couple sang a parody on the "Isle of Capri."

Other numbers included a mock wedding, complete with rejected suitor; the song, "Love and Marriage," sung and pantomimed by Geraldine Johnson, Dennis Mattson and Jimmy Chapman. The Rev. George Milne, pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian Church gave a short talk ending with a prayer for continued happiness for Mr. and Mrs. Mattson.

During the festivities, Raymond Kermit Mattson, only son of the honorees, and his fiancée, Stella Noreen Bredeen, both of Merrill, announced their engagement. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Everett Bredeen. No date has been set for their wedding.

Many beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Mattson and guests signed a guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Mattson cut the first piece of their three-tiered white and silver cake. Pouring at the refreshment table were Mrs. Earl Lisk mother of Mrs. Mattson and Mrs. Betsy Mattson, Mr. Mattson's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lisk arrived prior to the anniversary party from Pine City, Minnesota for an indefinite stay. Mrs. Betsy Mattson lives at Tulelake.

Other guests from a distance were Mrs. C. R. Anderson, Minneapolis, and Ernest Mattson, Castle Rock, Washington. Many guests were present from Tulelake, Klamath Falls, Merrill, Malin, Bonanza and the Lava Beds National Monument.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Hildred Mattson, Mrs. Leonard Lisk, Mrs. Bert Johnson, Mrs. Lloyd Lisk, Mrs. Carrie Mattson, Mrs. Don Barnes and Mrs. Ibel Chapman.
