

PSC Tops Owls; Pels Whip Redding

Late Rally Aids Viks To Sweep OTI Series

By DICK SCOTT

Equipped with a magnificently planned zone defense, the Oregon Tech Owls played Portland State's Vikings to a 52-52 standstill in 37 minutes of Saturday night's ball game only to have the visitors burst loose with an unannounced 17 points in the last three minutes to win 69-52. The victory was the second in two nights for the Vikings and gave them a firm grip on the top spot in the Oregon Collegiate Conference standings. PSC won 81-74 Friday.

The score was tied 15 times in the battle, which was a thriller from start to finish. The Vikings led 27-28 at the half.

It was Jack Viskov, Portland's deadly shooting forward, who broke the game wide open. He personally accounted for 10 points in the last two and a half minutes with what was perhaps the most uncanny exhibition of twine whipping Owl fans will see all season.

The Vikings were forced into a ball control game from the start and they obviously didn't like the change from their usual galloping racehorse brand of ball.

Jack Parker hit the first bucket of the game with 1:40 minutes gone but a few minutes later, the Palmberg gang had roared back and racked up a 9-6 lead which had the Vikings gasping.

Portland recovered to overcome this deficit in quick order as Parker hit a jump from the left side, Ron Nenow cashed a lay-in, and Paul Poetsch uncorked a swisher from the left tip of the key. That made it 16-9 for the visitors.

Prem that point on in the first half, it was give and take with never more than two points separating the two teams.

The Vikings almost pushed their fast break into high gear at the start of the second frame as Viskov and Parker hit field goals and Fletcher Frazier added two from the free throw line. That gave Portland a 33-26 bulge. But the Owls were far from through. Foster tipped in a rebound, Ted Frazier hit a free throw and McCutcheon dunked a field goal to make it 33-31. Then Jerry Fasten hit a straight away jump shot to tie the ball game.

The teams went in a nip and tuck affair again, with the Owls taking the lead four times before reaching the game-turning 52-52 tie with the clock showing about 3 minutes to go. The tie came on Fasten's two free throws.

Playing at a guard post with "feeder" Poetsch, Viskov shot from all angles to break the game open. The Owls were forced into a pressing man-to-man defense and after victory was out of sight, Palmberg substituted freely.

Viskov was high for the evening with a 20 point total, all of which was counted in the second half. John Foster, who was outstanding in playmaking and backboard play for the Owls, counted 17 points to lead the OTI band.

The Owls hit for 32 per cent on field goal attempts and 80 per cent at the foul line while Portland State had a 44 per cent effort in field goal tries and 73 per cent at the foul line.

Friday night, Portland State's string of 106-or-more points per game was snapped by Palmberg's Owls, but the polished hoopers from Portland had too much power and savvy to cope as they rang up conference victory number eight.

Coach Sharkey Nelson's cagers from PSC took an early lead and were never headed by their hosts, but the Vikings couldn't make a run-away for the OCC encounter. The largest spread between the two clubs came midway in the first half with Portland State leading 25-13. The closest the Owls came to overtaking Portland State was in the last minute of the opening half when the score was cut to a 40-37 difference.

Jerry Fasten gave the Owls their only lead of the game by scoring on a follow-up shot to bucket the first points of the night as Tech held a 2-0 heading. PSC touched back with Jim Perkin hitting one of two free tosses, and Jack Parker tipping in Perkin's missed second jumper, as OTI trailed 3-2. Big Fletcher Frazier sank one of two charity tries to make the score, 4-4, but Fasten tied the game up with a pair of free throws.

Then with 15:58 remaining in the opening half, Parker hit the Viks in front for good with a twosome from free throw lane. Within the next three and one half minutes, Portland State boomed their lead to a 15-7 margin as Jack Viskov began to hit from every angle with jumps and over-head pushers from far out.

Then suffered a big blow when Palmberg was forced to bench Johnny Foster, leading scorer and rebounder for the Owls, for almost all of the last 10 minutes of the half because of three personal fouls. Even without Foster's aid, Tech stayed within yelling distance of the invaders of PSC and at halftime the margin was only five points, 44-37.

Ten points was the biggest spread the Vikings could muster in the second half's play as the game and determined Owls put up a bitter fight in their battle for an upset. With Viskov again setting his sights on the twine, Portland State moved out in front 58-48 with 14:31 remaining in the contest.

Frazier, a 6-7 backboard demon as well as a point getter, was charged with his fifth personal foul of the night with 10 minutes and 45 seconds remaining to play. On the infraction, John McCutcheon hit one of two chances from the free throw line to cut the Viks' margin to 62-58, four points. During the remaining minutes of the game, Portland State boosted their lead to 10 points — 77-67 and 45 seconds remaining to play.

The Owls' Fasten topped all scorers with 19 points, 13 came from 15 free throw tries. Viskov was right behind with 18 points, coming on shots from any and all angles of the playing court. Foster and Tech's Ted Fischer followed in the scoring column with 17 and 16 point efforts. Parker hit for 15 and Frazier 12 before he was thumped from the game.

In the most astonishing turn of the game, Oregon Tech mauled the Vikings in the backboard game. OTI snared 33 rebounds compared to PSC's 15. Foster, Fasten and McCutcheon led the Oregon Tech rebounders, while Frazier cleaned the boards for the Viks.

Both clubs were even-up in the field goal percentage department as they hit 49 per cent of their shots, OTI collecting 25 of 31 and Portland State hitting 29 of 50 tries. At the free throw line, Tech hit a sizzling 80 per cent with 24 of 30 being good. The Vikings tallied a 74.2 per cent with 23 gitters in 31 tries.

FLOOR PLAY PROVED A BIG factor in this weekend's OCC basketball series between the Oregon Tech Owls and Portland State College. Above, Herald and News photographer Don Kettler caught action in Friday night's game, which Portland State won 81-74. At left, OTI's Johnny Foster, right, breaks up a pass by PSC's Paul Poetsch, left. At right, Jerry Fasten takes a pass from a teammate, while the Vikings' Ron Nenow (10) and Jack Viskov, left, move in to pressure the Owl hoopster.

Taucher, Moore Pace Klamath To 71-57 Win

By CLAYTON HANNON

Coach Don Peterson's Klamath Union High School Pelicans will go into the last half of the Southern Oregon Conference basketball race with a victory under their belts after disposing of the visiting Shasta Union High School Wolves of Redding, 71-57, in a non-league Tuesday Saturday night at Pelican Court.

The win gave the Pelicans an over-all win-loss record of nine and five as they look towards the final three weeks of regular season play.

Don Taucher and Glenn Moore piloted the Pelicans' torrid scoring attack against their visitors, netting 38 points between them. Taucher took game honors with a total of 21 points, while Moore followed with 17.

Redding stayed with the Whitebirds through the first period, trailing by a three-point 11-14 margin after the initial eight-minute quarter. After the lead had changed hands, or was tied, eight times in the first quarter, Klamath jumped out in front, 9-8, on a field goal by Butch Krimpton and was never headed from this point on.

Klamath widened the three point difference that opened the second chapter of the interstate clash, and by the time the second canto was history the Pelicans had shot to the front 40-29. Taucher paced the Pels in their drive to a commanding lead by bucketing 10 points, while Moore and Earle Tichenor also added to the Klamath side of the ledger.

With the Pelicans showing no let-up in their fast-breaking attack and domination of the backboards, both offense and defense, Peterson hoopers rambled on leaving the Wolves in their wake. Taucher and Krimpton pushed the Pels into a 43-32 lead just after the quarter had opened, and within the next two minutes Klamath held a 49-37 margin when Jerry Burke hit two free throws. The widest spread between the two clubs in this quarter was 15 points. With a little more than a minute remaining, Burke again hit a deuce from gift shot alley to make the scoreboard read 55-40. The third quarter closed with Klamath ahead, 55-44.

Redding cut the lead down to 10 points, 56-46, on the first play of the period, but that was the closest the Wolves got to their hosts. Redding's hopes soon became a thing of the past as the Pels romped to a 69-50 lead, 19 points, the largest difference in the entire game, when Ken Douglas connected twice on free tosses with two minutes left in the game. Harold Urban, a very talented sophomore center for Redding, hit from the line and once from the free throw line while Klamath's Orin Perkins tallied on a shot from the key to make the score stand 71-57 with very little time remaining. With only 40 seconds left to play, Bill Louderback hit from the field, and with about five seconds showing on the clock, Dick Roberts sank a long desperation attempt to make the final reading 71-57.

The win gave the Pels a clean sweep over their Redding foes for the year. In a Christmas-week series at Redding earlier in the year, Klamath won both games, and last night's victory made it three out of three.

Urban headed the Shasta scoring efforts with 20 points as he kept the Wolves within striking distance through most of the game. Roberts finished the game with 11 points. Dick Stuart, high scoring guard for Shasta, was held to eight counters by the Klamath defense.

The backboard game was more one-sided than the final score as Klamath picked off a grand total of 61 loose balls, while Shasta was held to 27, most of which came in the first quarter. Moore was the big sun of the Klamath backboard game, while Taucher, Sutherland and Tichenor all aided in the search for stray shots.

Next week, Klamath will meet the Cavenem of Grants Pass in the final home series of the year for the Whitebirds, and the opening games of the last round of conference play. The games are scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights at Pelican Court.

Basketball SCORES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS COLLEGE BASKETBALL

SATURDAY GAMES

- UCLA 82, Washington 75
- N. C. State 105, Clemson 88
- Richmond 84, West Virginia 78
- Detroit 41, Oklahoma A&M 61
- Villanova 61, Fordham 57 (2 overtime periods)
- Michigan 81, Washington (St. Louis) 66
- Syracuse 82, Pitt 79
- Virginia Tech 76, Virginia 64
- Howard 108, Lincoln (Pennsylvania) 80
- Franklin & Marshall 63, Drexel 57
- Arizona State (Tempe) at West Texas State postponed, heavy snows.
- Southern California 87, Oregon 71
- St. Louis 73, Tulsa 66
- Vanderbilt 69, Georgia 56
- Dartmouth 73, Yale 68
- Bradley 89, Army 54
- Missouri 77, Oklahoma 72
- Furman 109, William & Mary 83
- South Carolina 121, The Citadel 76
- Duke 64, North Carolina 59
- Columbia 77, Princeton 69
- Florida 68, Tennessee 64
- Virginia Military 86, Davidson 77
- DePaul 89, Brandeis 75
- Wisconsin 79, Northwestern 55
- Wyoming 59, Utah 44
- Colorado A&M 96, Montana 76
- Miami (Ohio) 77, Xavier (Ohio) 76
- Loyola of Chicago 71, Notre Dame 65
- Manhattan 94, Lemoyne (NY) 72
- Texas 80, Baylor 73
- Dartmouth 73, Yale 68
- Houston 108, Texas A&M 74
- Portland University 88, Seattle Pacific 69
- Hobart 59, Hamilton 53
- Ohio State 100, Indiana 82
- St. Louis 98, Fort Wayne 94
- Syracuse 103, New York 94
- Idaho State 68, Gonzaga 60
- Louisville 116, Kentucky Wesleyan 82
- Kentucky 82, Auburn 81
- Tulane 93, Mississippi 82
- Brigham Young 81, Denver 65
- Pennsylvania 72, Cornell 67
- Colgate 84, Rutgers 71
- Maryland 80, Navy 61
- St. John's (Bridgton) 71, Siena 56
- Temple 103, St. Francis (Pa.) 58
- Penn State 67, Boston U. 64
- Kansas State 82, Colorado 51
- Iowa 98, Wichita 86
- Iowa State 79, Kansas 67
- Purdue 75, Minnesota 63
- Linfield 76, Willamette 72
- St. Mary's 65, Loyola of Los Angeles 53
- Santa Barbara 68, Occidental 66
- San Francisco State 75, Whittier College 67
- Baldwin-Wallace 85, Ohio University 84
- John Carroll 96, Cannon 85
- Portland State 69, Oregon Tech 52
- Eastern Oregon 93, Southern Oregon 82
- New Mexico A&M 60, Texas Western 58
- Alabama 93, Georgia Tech 60
- Georgetown (DC) 67, LaSalle 63 (overtime)
- Drake 66, Marquette 63
- San Jose State 87, Pepperdine 65
- California 69, Oregon State 56
- Colorado Mines 66, Colorado State 57
- College of Idaho 66, Pacific (Ore) 57
- Cal Poly 67, San Diego State 64
- College of Pacific 82, Fresno State 66

NBA

- Rochester 83, Boston 69
- Oregon Prep Basketball SATURDAY GAMES
- Reedsport 16, Toledo 44
- St. Helens 61, West Linn 46
- Knappa 59, Tillamook Catholic 39
- Baker 64, La Grande 42
- Ione 61, Condon 59
- Pendleton 76, Hermiston 62
- Milton-Freewater 70, Dayton Wash., 52
- Madras 66, Lakeview 34
- WyEast 87, Rainier 51
- Eugene 72, North Bend 55
- Culver 42, Maupin 36
- Arlington 69, Boardman 49
- Sisters 85, More 64
- Bend 58, South Salem 55
- Redmond 56, Prineville 43
- Molalla 54, Seaside 47

REDDING (5)

Player	FG	FT	PF	TP
Severston (F)	1	3	3	7
Taucher (C)	2	2	4	21
Moore (F)	2	3	2	7
Sutherland (F)	0	0	0	0
McClint (F)	0	0	0	0
Hamblin (F)	2	0	1	4
Perkins (F)	1	2	1	2
Douglas (F)	0	2	0	2
Totals	36	19	17	71

OREGON STATE

Player	FG	FT	PF	TP
Foster (F)	5	7	2	17
Fasten (F)	3	4	1	13
McCutcheon (C)	1	3	4	5
Whitman (G)	0	0	0	0
Hatcher (G)	0	0	0	0
Swetosh (G)	0	0	0	0
Fischer (G)	4	3	2	11
Roberts (G)	0	0	0	0
Blair (F)	0	0	0	0
Smith (G)	0	0	0	0
Totals	13	17	7	39

PORTLAND STATE

Player	FG	FT	PF	TP
Parker (F)	5	7	2	17
Viskov (F)	10	10	11	30
Perkins (C)	1	3	4	5
Whitman (G)	0	0	0	0
Hatcher (G)	0	0	0	0
Swetosh (G)	0	0	0	0
Fischer (G)	4	3	2	11
Roberts (G)	0	0	0	0
Blair (F)	0	0	0	0
Smith (G)	0	0	0	0
Totals	20	23	11	52

Bears Blister Beaver '5'

BERKELEY, Calif. — Led by sophomore guards Bernie Simpson and Earl Robinson who scored 14 points each, California rode to its fourth Pacific Coast Conference basketball victory Saturday night, 69-56, over Oregon State.

Early in the second half California led at the half, 38-34, fomba began to stretch his legs, moving to 45-38. Then Oregon State's center Wayne Moss fouled out and four minutes later Oregon State lost its highpoint man, 6-foot-6 forward Dave Gambee. He had scored 20 points.

From that point on, the Bears simply coasted in. Robinson had five-for-five for the night and Simpson hit five-for-10.

In the first half California had 13 for 29 and then tapered off for 40 per cent for the night. They were particularly hot from the free throw line, hitting 29 for 32—a percentage of 91.

Friend and Blake had six for six from the free throw line.

Oregon State was hot in the first half, hitting 11 for 26. In the second half they cooled, ending with 6 for 23.

An estimated 5,500 fans saw the contest.

Bylines from the SIDELINES

BY CLAYTON HANNON

Trojans Roll Over UO, 87-71

EUGENE, Ore. — Southern California rebounded from Friday night's upset to defeat Oregon in a Pacific Coast Conference basketball game Saturday night, 87-71.

The win moved Southern California up into a tie with Stanford for second place.

Jack Dunne, 6-3 senior forward, was the sparkplug for Southern California, which trailed at halftime 42-39 and was behind by eight points early in the second half. Then Dunne went to work.

In 9 1/2 minutes he ran up 16 points and his team shot ahead, rolling on to an eventual 18-point margin at 82-60 with 3 1/2 minutes remaining.

Dunne totaled 21 points for the game. Guard Jerry Ross of Oregon took scoring honors, however, with 23 points.

The visitors, who had a miserable night in losing to Oregon Friday, sinking only 10 of 63 field goal attempts, regained the range Saturday night, sinking 25 of 58 for 43 per cent. Oregon had only 15 of 61 the previous night and did little better Saturday night with 22 of 79 for 28 per cent.

Oregon's cause suffered a blow early in the second half when Charley Franklin, a stalwart on the backboard and in scoring went out on fouls. Oregon had an eight-point lead at the time, but it quickly melted.

Southern California also lost forward Jim Kaufman early in the period, but Dunne picked up the slack and Oregon could find no one to counter. Before the game ended Southern California also lost forward guard Tony Patisis and center Jack Lovich on fouls and Oregon lost forward Ray Bell and guard Jerry Ross.

The box:

Player	G	F	P	T
Dunne, f	7	7-9	3-21	57
Kaufman, f	3	2-8	6-11	11
Pugh, f	0	0-0	0-0	0
Lovrich, c	5	4-5	5-14	14
Pearson, c	1	3-4	0-5	5
Nagai, g	0	2-4	2-2	2
Patisis, g	3	6-6	5-12	13
Hanser, g	1	0-1	2-20	2
Rogers, g	1	0-1	2-2	2
Totals	25	37-47	24-87	87

Bill Russell ... makes USF Dons

to prove one thing: The present big-time college-athletic program is being ruled by an iron thumb of alumni groups. "Cowboy" Johnny Underhill this point in his TV appearance this past week when he charged R. C. Torrance, Seattle alumni leader, could have put down the player revolt before it really got started. But it now appears that Torrance and other alumni of Washington didn't care to have Cheryberg hanging around.

They no longer need to worry, because Cassill did their work for them when he fired Cheryberg.

ANOTHER EX-KLAMATH Gem gets his chance to break into the majors this spring as most of the big league teams are scheduling early training camps for promising minor league baseballers.

We noted the other day that Don Ferrarese, with the Gems for a portion of the 1950 season, later with Oakland of the Coast League and last year on the mound staff of San Antonio, will report with a host of other hopefuls when the Baltimore Orioles open their instructional school later this month.

Other ex-Gems who played for Klamath in the now defunct Far West League and made it to the big time, for a short time at least, have been Niles Jordan, southpaw moundman with Philadelphia (National) and Cincinnati, and Dick Young, a good field-no hit second baseman who wore the spanglies of the Philadelphia Phillies.

A note of interest to Oregon sports fans also is centered on the pre-grapefruit camps being held by 12 of the 16 major league teams. Gerry Zimmerman, prep diamond star for Milwaukie High School, will report to the Boston Red Sox to take part in their early sessions. Zimmerman is a bonus baby selection of a few years back. The former Milwaukie catcher played with Greensboro (Piedmont League) last year.

Coyotes Win To Hold Lead

CALDWELL, Idaho — College of Idaho climbed one notch higher in the Northwest Conference basketball standings Saturday night by defeating the Pacific University Badgers, 68-69.

Paced by Caldwell star R. C. Owens, who scored 27 points, the Coyotes took a tight grip on first place with an 8-1 record.

The loss gives the Badgers a 5-5 record in conference play.

C of I moved into an early 15-4 lead, but the Badgers closed the gap to 23-26 with 2:30 left in the first half. Baskets by Bill Kundrat, Max Sanchez and Owens gave the Coyotes a 31-24 halftime lead.

Midway in the second half the Badgers came to within three points of the Coyotes, who then surged ahead with aid of Owens' shooting, dribbling and rebounding.

High point man for the visitors was Danny French, guard, who scored 23 points.

The Coyotes hit for 380 of their field goals and .639 from the foul line as compared to the Badgers' .378 in field goals and .593 on free throws.

Owens neared the 2,000-point mark in his four-year college career Saturday night. The big center needs only 13 more counters to go over the top.

Len Truex of the Air Force was second, 10 yards back of the winner, while Joe Deady of Washington, B. C., got home third, another two yards back. Phil Coleman of Chicago was fourth, and Jack Fawcett of Tufts College, a sad pace-maker, was last—almost lapped by Delany.

Truex was timed in 4:10.9. Deady in 4:11. Coleman in 4:15.5 and Fawcett in 4:25.1.

Without Wes Santee, who had to withdraw because of AAU charges against him, Delany had no competition. Fawcett was on hand to act as a mechanical rabbit—i.e., make a fast pace and maybe draw Delany to a fast effort.

But Ron, a 20-year-old Villanova sophomore, refused to bite. He stayed second most of the way, while Fawcett, then Truex led the pack.

Fawcett grabbed the lead at the outset and held it until the quarter. He hit that post in 61.1, which is far from spectacular. The strategy called for a 2:00 half, but Fawcett promptly dropped back and Truex tried making the pace. He crossed the half-way point in 2:06.3 and thereby went all hopes of a fast race.

Delany then took a casual survey of the situation and began to inch up. He let go in the last lap and left Truex far back in his wake. Delany's final quarter was run in 59.2.

Delany Loafs For Win In Millrose Mile Run

NEW YORK — Ron Delany, of the Irishman who simply refuses to run against the clock, won the Wanmaker Mile in a so-so 4:09.5 Saturday night in the Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden.

A crowd of about 12,000 watched Delany run his usual loafing race until he saw fit to take the lead a lap and a half from home.

Len Truex of the Air Force was second, 10 yards back of the winner, while Joe Deady of Washington, B. C., got home third, another two yards back. Phil Coleman of Chicago was fourth, and Jack Fawcett of Tufts College, a sad pace-maker, was last—almost lapped by Delany.

Truex was timed in 4:10.9. Deady in 4:11. Coleman in 4:15.5 and Fawcett in 4:25.1.

Without Wes Santee, who had to withdraw because of AAU charges against him, Delany had no competition. Fawcett was on hand to act as a mechanical rabbit—i.e., make a fast pace and maybe draw Delany to a fast effort.

But Ron, a 20-year-old Villanova sophomore, refused to bite. He stayed second most of the way, while Fawcett, then Truex led the pack.

Fawcett grabbed the lead at the outset and held it until the quarter. He hit that post in 61.1, which is far from spectacular. The strategy called for a 2:00 half, but Fawcett promptly dropped back and Truex tried making the pace. He crossed the half-way point in 2:06.3 and thereby went all hopes of a fast race.

Delany then took a casual survey of the situation and began to inch up. He let go in the last lap and left Truex far back in his wake. Delany's final quarter was run in 59.2.

Grid Slate Revealed

TULSA, Okla. — Tulsa University Saturday announced a 10-game football schedule for next fall which includes two new opponents.

New Mexico A&M will take Arkansas' place on the Golden Hurricane schedule and the College of Pacific replaces Wyoming.

The COP game will be on Nov. 3, at Tulsa.

Quast, Jessen Eye Golf Title

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — The golf team of Evelyn Glick, Baltimore, and Mary Patton Janssen, Charlottesville, Va., meets the Washington state duo of Ann Quast, Marysville, and Ruth Jessen, Seattle, in the final rounds of the 11th Hollywood Women's International Four-ball Golf Tournament.

The Glick-Janssen team fought a nip and tuck battle to the 18th hole before defeating Barbara Little and Nadyne Grannick, both of Milwaukee, 1-up.

The Glick-Janssen pair went to the final hole in the quarter-finals Friday to beat Ann Casey Johnston, Mason City, Iowa, and Wanda Sanchez, Baton Rouge, La.

Miss Quast and Miss Jessen defeated Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore and Marge Burns, Greensboro, N.C., 5 and 4 without the loss of a hole.

Miss Quast's putter usually spelled the difference in the two teams. She sank a 25-foot putt on the second hole to put her team in the lead. They had a commanding 3-up lead at the end of nine holes and won the 10th and 11th. The match ended when the 14th hole was halved.

-BULLETIN-

Jack Kelly and Al Geiger rolled a 123 to capture the Class A doubles championship as the 12th annual Men's City Bowling Tournament came to a close at midnight Saturday night at Lucky Lanes.

Other 1955-56 champions were: Class A singles, Dr. Jim Noel, 638; Class B singles, Floyd Stone, 705; Class B doubles, Marion Foster and E. Carlier, 1310; Class A all-events, Charlie Booth, 1691; Class B all-events, Wayne Mison, 1561; and Class C all-events, Henry Tucker, 1596.

The complete list of winners and placements will be published in Monday's Herald and News.

Oregon Girl Wins Slalom In Cup Meet

BOISE, — Patsy Walker of La Grande, Ore., and Ed Kershaw of Yakima, Wash., won the girls' and boys' expert slalom event in the annual Cranston Cup races at the Bogus Basin ski area Saturday.

Miss Walker posted times of 52.1 and 51.3 seconds for a combined time of 103.4. Kershaw's times were 45.7 and 47.9 for a combined time of 92.7.

Diary Records of Yakima won the girls' novice slalom with a time of 59.2 for one run. Joan Johnson of McCall, Idaho, was second at 60 seconds flat and Kathleen Brandenberg of McCall third at 61.1.

Results of boys' novice slalom were not available Saturday because of a mix-up on the scoring sheet, which officials said would be resolved Sunday. Downhill races will also be run Sunday.

Eddie Ward of McCall was second in boys' expert slalom with a combined time of 93.1. Mike Buckley of Yakima third at 95 flat and Bill Thompson and Bill Brandenberg of McCall were tied for fourth at 95.2.

De McBride of McCall was second in girls' expert slalom with a combined time of 103.8; Sally Jarvis of Seattle third with 104.4; Joa, Melsom of Seattle fourth with 104.7; and Joan Sabert of Bend, Ore., fifth with 105.8.

Fourty-five of McCall was fourth in girls' novice slalom with a time of 62.7 and Rachel Goodrich of Bend fifth at 64.6.

Beverly Anderson of Mullan, Idaho, placed 12th in girls' expert, posting times of 53.1 and 70.8 for a combined time of 123.9.

EOC Gains Split With Saturday Win

ASHLAND, Ore. — Eastern Oregon spurted midway through the second half to break up a close game and then rolled on to a 92-82 victory over Southern Oregon Saturday night.

The win gave Eastern Oregon a split in the Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball series here. Eastern Oregon led at the half, 41-40 and the lead changed several times in the second half until center John Reinking gave the visitors a 49-48 margin, and Eastern Oregon quickly spurted into a 56-48 lead. It was never close thereafter.

Guard Ted Schadewitz of Eastern Oregon led scorers with 26 points.

Scoreboard COLLEGE WRESTLING

Washington State 20, San Jose 17
Oregon 21, Oregon State 11

DID YOU SEE THE Dodge V-8 Coronet $ PRICE $ AT THE CARVALCADE? IF NOT... Inquire at Cunningham & Rickey Motors about the LOW PRICE and ask for a demonstration ride. Cunningham & Rickey Mtrs. Dodge-Plymouth and Dodge "Job-Rated" Trucks So. 7th and Commercial Ph. 8104