

NEW WORTHY ADVISER of Order of Rainbow for Girls at Malin, Carolyn Fargo, was installed at the 21st public installation for the group at the Malin Masonic Hall.

Rainbow Worthy Advisor Named

MALIN—The 21st public installation of the Order of Rainbow for Girls was held Saturday evening, January 28, at the Malin Masonic Hall, when Carolyn Fargo was installed as worthy adviser. The welcome address was given by Mrs. Marylyn Wilde, and the installing officers for the impressive ceremony were Lynette Lyon, worthy adviser; Joan Schultz, musician; Lucile Weber, chaplain; Ruth Kalina, marshal; and Darla Sarutski, recorder.

After the installation of the new officers Bobby and Louise Fargo, young brother and sister of the new worthy adviser, presented a bouquet of roses to their sister, Carolyn. Lynette Lyons, past worthy adviser was honored with an addenda given by Diane Micka, Janice Sarutski, and Arlene Zelders.

Mrs. Richard Kruger was installed as mother adviser. Other advisory board members installed were Mrs. Lewis Kandra, Mrs. John Prentiss, Mrs. Frank Zlabek, Mrs. Richard Halonick, Richard Kruger, and A. E. Street.

Entertainment was provided by Joan Schultz, who played the piano, and a quartet consisting of JoAnn Freitag, Diane Micka, Lou Ann Kandra, and Roxanne Wilson, sang "Daddy's Little Girl" and "Moments to Remember." Refreshments were served by Mrs. Louie Lyon and Mrs. Lewis Kandra.

A party followed the installation for the Rainbow girls and their guests. Officers installed were Carolyn Fargo, worthy adviser; Diane Micka, worthy associate adviser; Janice Sarutski, Charley, Arlene Zelders, Hope; Shirley Mock, Faith; Marilyn Woods, recorder; Lou Ann Kandra, treasurer; Ester Beasley, chaplain; Julie Wakefield, drill leader; Donna Derra, Love; Rae Dean Marks, Religion; Mary Ann Evans, Nature; JoAnn Freitag, Immortality; Claudia Zelders, Fidelity; Rozanne Wilson, Patriotism; Mary Kay Kruger, service; Marcia Kenyon, confidential observer; Glynn Weatherly, outer observer; Shirley Bunnell, musician; Arlene Schneider, choir director; and Phyllis Thrush, Judy Cunningham, Mary Jane Fisk, and Donna Lee Micka, choir members.

Manzanita Chapter No. 172

Manzanita Chapter No. 172, OES, regular stated meeting was in the Scottish Rite Temple, January 28, with 60 members present. Worthy matron Georgianna Clark, and worthy patron Gus Vlahos, presided.

Lela Ayres was initiated into the order; and because of time necessary for the ceremony, Obligation Night was postponed until a later date.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room during the social hour in honor of the new member, Lela Ayres.

Summer Lake Group Meets

SUMMER LAKE—A hot luck dinner was served at the grange hall the evening of January 28 preceding the regular grange meeting and honoring Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Leyva.

Mr. and Mrs. Leyva have left Summer Lake where he was manager of the game commission and public shooting grounds. They are making their home in Lakeview. He has retired from active work.

A short program was presented by the lecturer of comedy skits and the honored couple was presented with an electric frypan, a gift from their many friends. E. M. Carlson made the presentation. Square dancing concluded the meeting.

LAKEVIEW GIRL BRIDE IN RENO

LAKEVIEW—The First Christian Church of Reno, Nevada, was the scene of the wedding of Naomi Marie Hart to John S. Hainey on Saturday, January 28, at 3 p.m. The Rev. Leslie A. Hudson performed the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Vibel Hart of Lakeview, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. E. E. McClure, Muscatine, Iowa.

For her wedding the bride wore a white hand-crocheted ankle length dress with ratching bolero, complemented with a small brocade hat, brocade slippers and white gloves. Her bridal bouquet was pink and white carnations centered with a white orchid.

The bride's attendant, Mrs. Larry Arvin of Reno, wore a blue suit. Larry Arvin was best man. Mrs. Hart, who drove south for her daughter's wedding, wore a charcoal grey suit. Also present at the ceremony was Jack Hart, Reno, brother of the bride.

When she left for her wedding trip to San Francisco and Southern California, the new Mrs. Hainey wore a pearl gray suit with red accessories.

The couple will live in Reno where Hainey is associated with the Tahoe Pine Millwork Company.

KF Woman's Library Club To Hear Talk On Decorating By Expert From Meier And Frank

Glenn Behnke, Home Planning Studio director of Meier and Frank Company, Portland, will speak to the Woman's Library Club at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in the clubrooms at South Fifth and Main. Behnke will augment his talk with a "Better Homes and Gardens" magazine slide presentation.

Draperies, carpets and rugs, wallpaper, accessories and other materials will be used by the speaker to illustrate his talk. A question and answer period will follow his depiction of "Principles of Decorating."

Mr. and Mrs. Behnke will drive from Portland to Klamath Falls today—and will be at the Willard Hotel while here.

The special program is being given without charge to the Library Club by the Portland store through the generosity of Aaron Frank, according to Mrs. Walter Brown, program chairman of the Library Club who arranged this outstanding event for local women.

Hostesses for the meeting, which is the regular session of the club, held in the lower level of the City Library building, are Mrs. A. C. Aldrich and Mrs. Q. T. Gibson.

Mrs. Eugene Pavell, soprano, will present a group of vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, pianist, as a musical feature of the meeting.

Mrs. George Blanas will lead the flag salute to open the meeting, and the closing club collect will be read by Mrs. George Proctor. Pouring at the tea which will follow the program will be Mrs. Fred Hoagland and Mrs. James Thornton.

Mrs. Barton has been asked by the nominating committee of the state DAR society to allow her name to be placed on the state ballot of the society as 2nd vice regent, and action was endorsed by Eulalona Chapter.

Mrs. Phillip Brinker, program chairman, chose "The Role of the Patriots" as her topic; and Thomas Jefferson, as the featured play.

The Oregon State Society, DAR, is celebrating its 60th anniversary this month, and a cake decorated for the occasion, was served during the social hour by hostesses for the evening, Mrs. C. R. Walters, Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. B. W. Zollman and Mrs. Arthur Denison.

Next chapter meeting is slated for March 5, at 8 p.m., in the Lecture Room of the Klamath County Library. Robert L. (Bob) Cooper, district ranger on the Rogue National Forest, will talk on "What Our Water-Sheds Mean to the Klamath Basin." The public is cordially invited to this open meeting.

Members present at the February meeting were: Mrs. R. E. Wattenberg, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. Julian Ager, Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. Phillip Brinker, Miss Eva Burkhalter, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Wade Crawford, Mrs. Arthur Denison, Mrs. Hugh Estes, Mrs. William Foster, Mrs. Lewis Hornby, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. William Owsley, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Charles Waters, Mrs. B. W. Zollman, Mrs. Arch Proctor, Mrs. R. S. Loosley and Mrs. Henry Nichol.

Members present were Kyla Thomas, Sally Robinson, Eleanor Bergmann, Alicia and Georgia Ager, Nancy and Mabel Hannon, Donna Hubbard and Lucille Waters.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Thornton and it was announced that the next meeting would be at the home of Sally Robinson.

Schönchin Society was organized a year ago this month—and at the time, six girls constituted the membership. In the past year, seven more girls have had their papers accepted at national headquarters in Washington, D. C., and two more sets of papers pending at the present time. Any one eligible for membership may call Mrs. Thornton at 7360 for further information.

Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid

The Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid met at the church the evening of February 2 with 20 members and guests present. The devotions were given by Mrs. Grace Rutter. The story of the hymn "Saviour Bring an Evening Blessing" was read by Mrs. Vera Petrick. The topic study of the third chapter of James was presented by the Rev. H. M. Warnke.

During the business meeting, which was called to order by the president, Mrs. Vera Petrick, it was decided to send good used clothing to the Lutheran Negro Mission in San Francisco. A gift of money was also sent for the dedication of the new chapel of this mission.

A new revised constitution was adopted at this meeting.
