BOY GRANDSON—Born Feb. 9—Thursday—in fact, just BARELY Thursday—because the KP grandparents—Lee and Muriel Hendricks—got the phone call in the wee hours. The call came from San Francisco where the 7 1/2 lb. son was born to Stanley and June Hendricks—just about three MINUTES after June's arrival at the hospital—so there was no time for a final decision on a boy-name or a girl-name.

A LOCAL STOP for the Busy-Bird inspired a novel announcement from Donald and Roberta McGee at Bly—In the mail came a cardboard "theater" ticket—looked like a complimentary to a stage production—only this card read "Donald and Roberta McGee present their howling success 'The Family Increases' starring DENNIS EMMETT—Wednesday, Feb. 1st—6:39 a.m. Directed by Dr. I. M. Modest (ethical alias—not on card) 'Costumes by Roberta—New Music'—and continued with 'The management reserves the right to cancel personal appearance if star is sleeping.' On the end of the 'ticket' which, incidentally, was printed professionally on a pale blue-for-boy card—'Weight 7 pounds—And 7 1/2 ounces—Eye a blue'—and the ticket admitted 'two' to a 'Bedside Seat at Klamath Valley Hospital.' And that ain't all. On the back was 'SPECIAL NOTICE—After five days at the present location the production will move to the McGee Homestead at Bly, Oregon, for an indefinite run. There will be a special performance at 2 a.m. daily for the benefit of the neighbors.' And the final, quite read 'The management assures the public that there will be no new production during the balance of the year.'

NEXT SUNDAY—All music minded persons in this vicinity should avail themselves of the American Association of University Women's (local branch) special invitation to the AAUW annual Spring Musicales. The time is 2 p.m. And the date—February 19. The place—Mills School Auditorium. The KUUS a cappella choir under the direction of Andy Loney has been polishing up some very special material for the program—and Julia Zumwalt has arranged for the first local appearance of Dennis Hannon, now a member of foreign languages at SOCC. He is billed on the program as violin soloist accompanied by his wife at the piano. A special treat to fussy fans—he was for years concert master of the Seattle Symphony. Also for those who have not heard them—Ruth Lobough and Bee Muehlen will entertain with two-piano compositions. The AAUW members, the instrumental musicians and Andy Loney and his youngsters have put in a lot of time for your afternoon of entertainment—and all for FREE!
