

Welfare Fund Frauds To Be Pinched By Union Heads

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Union leaders reported today the AFL-CIO is getting ready to crack down on a series of alleged frauds in handling multimillion-dollar union welfare funds.

The move is planned as the first step in carrying out an aim of the newly merged AFL-CIO to clean unions of racketeering and corruption.

A five-man Ethical Practices Committee recommended that the AFL-CIO Executive Council give it authority to proceed with hearings in four cases involving affiliated unions. It was intimated that findings against these unions could lead to their expulsion from the AFL-CIO.

A Senate Labor subcommittee headed by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) already has turned up considerable data in these cases. One case involved an alleged shortage of nearly a million dollars in insurance funds of the Laundry Workers International Union.

Another case involves a local, the leader of which recently testified before the Douglas committee accompanied by two bodyguards. Members of the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee said privately they were determined to root out fraud in handling union welfare funds. One said, "All of us are prepared to quit if the Executive Council doesn't go along with us and take a firm stand."

AFL-CIO officials also were reported dissatisfied with an administration bill recently introduced in Congress to require periodic financial reports of all types of welfare funds to be filed with the Labor Department.

They said the plan gives too much leeway to the secretary of labor to issue exemptions from the filing requirement and to say what information should be filed. The position of AFL-CIO leaders is that the filing requirement should be spelled out in the law without exemptions.

The council said in a statement yesterday the year 1956 will be one of "economic adjustments, with some ups and downs." It said employment and overtime work has begun to shrink in auto and related industries.

"Economic activity may level off or begin to slip sometime during the year," the statement said.

It added that President Eisenhower's legislative proposals recognize "the persistence of social and economic problems" but don't go far enough toward solving them. Where Eisenhower has cautioned against a tax cut this year, the council urged one for lower income families.

Wheat Board Plans KF Meeting

The Oregon Wheat Commission will hold its first Southern Oregon meeting in Klamath Falls March 5 at 9:30 a.m. in the party room of the Pelican Cafe. The commission regularly meets in Penitentiary.

Motion Weatherford, Arlington, chairman of the commission, will preside at this regular quarterly meeting of the group which is a state body.

One commission member and three members of the Wheat League who are now in Washington, D.C. conferring on national wheat legislation will report on their work at this meeting.

An official of the commission explained that this meeting offers a good chance for wheat growers in this area to find out how the commission operates and to bring up any questions which they may have.

It is expected that bank officials, grain dealers and wheat growers will be in attendance at the meeting.

The annual Dad's Fun Night will be held in the Sacred Heart School auditorium Tuesday, February 14, at 8:30. At this carnival-like affair the fathers will be in charge of all the booths. The different booths will consist of the glass booth, the penny pitch, country store, and the fish pond operated by the Camp Fire Girls. Candy donated by the fourth grade will also be sold. Movies will be held for the children in some other part of the building. A snack bar will operate during the evening for the benefit of all.

The Trojans lost a hard fought game to the St. Mary's Crusaders Sunday afternoon. The Trojans also lost but not without a fight to the end. With only one game left before the tournament the Trojans have high hopes of causing a few upsets that will be unexpected by all.
