Follow-Up Meeting Planned On Education Conference

Plans for the first followup meeting on the White House Conference on Education for Klamath and Lake counties were announced today by T. J. O'Harra, Klamath and Lake region chairman.

Committee members of the follow-up meeting include Mrs. Art Moore, organizer and Mrs. Harry Todd, assistant. The speakers will be Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Klamath Falls, and Eugene Fisher, Oakland, Oregon, both delegates to the White House meeting.

Arnold Gralapp, Klamath Falls school superintendent and Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon College, Ashland; E. A. Geary, speaker of the Oregon House of Representatives; Carrol Howe, Klamath County school superintendent, and Mrs. Anne Sprague, Lake County school superintendent, will also be in attendance at the meeting.

Mrs. O'Neill will discuss the conference, the goals of education, teacher supply and demand on the national level and maintaining public interest in our schools.

Fisher's topics will be organization of our schools and building needs and financing.

Gralapp and Stevenson will explain teacher supply and demand. Geary has been invited to discuss taxation on the state level while Howe will outline the county school tax picture.

Mrs. Sprague will introduce the speakers.

The major goals of these conferences, which will be held throughout the state, will be a study of the implication of the White House Conference held last November and how its findings may help solve community education problems.

Residents of Klamath and Lake counties are urged to attend.

Sen. Knowland May Announce

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) may announce officially this week he is an active candidate for the Republican presidential nomination if President Eisenhower doesn't run.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, declined public comment, but there were strong indications he will shortly invite support of his conditional candidacy. He has said he will back Eisenhower if the President runs, but has made it clear he'll seek the nomination if Eisenhower doesn't.

Previously, Knowland had fixed Wednesday as the date by which he felt Eisenhower's announcement ought to be forthcoming. It evidently will not be. Eisenhower gets a new medical report Tuesday and leaves Wednesday for a Georgia vacation.

Knowland's expected announcement may be timed Thursday to follow the entry of his name in the March 20 Minnesota primary and it may indicate an intention to file in other primaries.

Thus far Knowland has not given his consent to any filings where approval of the candidate is required. He raised no objection to the entry of his name in Illinois and Alaska. He refused to let his name go on the New Hampshire preferential ballot, although some delegate candidates "favorable" to him have entered on their own.

Fluoridation Repeal Asked

BEND (AP) — Petitions are being circulated for an election to force repeal of the ordinance requiring fluoridation of this city's water supply.

Fluoridation was approved by Bend voters some time ago. William J. Baer led the opposition in that election, then carried the issue to the State Supreme Court, which ruled that the city had the right to add fluoride to its water supply.

Baer is leading the new attack on fluoridation. He has said he expects little trouble getting enough signatures to force another election.

WARNINGS IGNORED

TOKYO (AP) — The 370,000 member Japanese National Railway Workers' Union, ignoring government warnings of "stern measures," began a strike Tuesday to demand a 12 per cent wage increase.

Liedtke Memorial Fund Announced

A memorial to Mervin John Liedtke, member of the teaching staff of Altamont Junior High School, is being arranged for at the suggestion of friends of Mr. Liedtke. Slightly more than $60 has been contributed and further contributions may be sent to Harvey Denham, principal.

The money is to be used to buy a musical instrument, to become permanent property of the school which may be used by a child who otherwise would not have one. A donation came from a former music instructor of Mr. Liedtke's at his former home in North Dakota.

Mr. Liedtke died February 8 following a heart attack.

CAP CARNIVAL

BEND (AP) — The Civil Air Patrol's Bend squadron will hold a fly-in here April 15. It expects some 200 planes from over the state for a barbecue and carnival.
