

WESTERN SOUFFLE with Parsley Sauce will stay up until the last bit is eaten because of the addition of quick-cooking tapioca. Individual fruit salads and a basket of hot bread add glamour to the meal. Photo and recipe courtesy of Minute Tapioca.

IT'S A DOUBLE PLEASURE when you open the new box of Dromedary Cake Mix, enough in each box for a generous 9-inch layer cake. In Dromedary "twin packs" as shown by these twin homemakers, you get a choice of baking either one or two layers. In favorite flavors, White, Yellow and Devil's Food, these new mixes come attractively packaged in sparkling gold foil to insure "mixing bowl" freshness.

CUPCAKES
Tender little cupcakes are a great favorite for school lunches. A friend of our uses a simple cake batter, adds a cup of coarsely chopped raisins, a dash of cinnamon and nutmeg and puts the batter in muffin pans lined with baking cups. Just as she pops them into the oven, she tops each one with a cocktail size cube of sugar which has been dipped in orange juice.

SIPPING PLEASURE
Combine a brown flecked banana with a chilled 12-ounce can of apricot whole nectar in the electric blender for a taste treat. It is a fine mid-morning pickerupper if you don't eat as much breakfast as you should. For the ones in the family who need "building up," add a whole egg before you start the blender.

Spring Salad

Equal parts of celery and tuna tossed lightly with Calavo cubes and a French dressing make an excellent salad for a springtime luncheon. Accent the dressing with a bit of chopped sweet pickle. Serve this Full Meal Salad on shredded lettuce and garnish with lemon wedges and hard-cooked egg quarters. Perfect for Lenten menu.

FULL MEAL SALAD
1 medium-sized avocado
2 cups flaked tuna
2 cups coarsely cut celery
1 cup chopped sweet pickle
French dressing
Shredded lettuce
Lemon wedges
2 hard-cooked eggs
Cut Calavo into halves lengthwise and remove seed and skin. Cut fruit into cubes. Combine avocado, tuna, celery, pickle and French dressing, and toss together lightly. Serve on mounds of shredded lettuce dressed with French dressing. Garnish each salad with lemon wedges and egg quarters.
Serves 4 to 6.

HONEY FROSTING FOR GINGERBREAD
Heat one cup honey over boiling water for 15 minutes. Add 1/4 teaspoon salt to 2 egg whites and whip to stiff foam. Add honey, slowly, continuing the beating until frosting stands in soft peaks. Makes icing for two layer 8-inch cake or gingerbread.

HONEY SANDWICH FILLINGS
Use chopped dried fruits and nuts with enough honey to moisten; or use cream cheese softened with honey and grated orange peel; or use equal parts of honey and peanut butter with chopped raisins.

Saturday Night Supper

Saturday Night Supper—the one meal of the week Mom is apt to find any number of extras attending. It never fails! The boys meet their pals at the game and before it's over, they've invited them to taste of "Mom's cooking." Or Sis unexpectedly drops in with her best beau after an afternoon of skating. And Pop himself—hoping for a card game later in the evening—asks the neighbors in early.

For such one night a week affairs, Mom learned way back that the best way to handle them is with informal buffet serving, centered around one hearty dish. And this Western Souffle with Parsley Sauce is truly delicious for such occasions since it will stay up right until the very last bit is eaten... and that could mean only that it is made with quick-cooking tapioca.

The meal could be rounded out with individual fruit salads, a basket of sliced sesame French Bread, lots of hot coffee—served in tin cups to carry out your western atmosphere and for dessert a large lusciously feed cake, made with a mix. This will not only be a glamorous looking meal, but one you can count on everyone enjoying to the very last morsel.

WESTERN SOUFFLE
2 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon thyme
1/4 teaspoon chili powder
1 cup canned whole kernel corn, drained
1/2 cup drained mashed canned tomatoes

1/4 cup tomato juice
1/4 cup light cream
2 tablespoons chopped pimento
6 or 7 drops Tabasco sauce
3 egg whites
3 egg yolks

Melt butter in saucepan and saute onion and green pepper for 5 minutes, or until tender. Add quick-cooking tapioca, salt, pepper, thyme, chili powder, corn, tomatoes, tomato juice, and cream. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat and add pimento and Tabasco sauce. Allow to cool slightly while beating eggs. Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add tapioca mixture to egg yolks and mix well. Fold in egg whites. Spoon into shallow baking dish (10x6x2-inch). Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 45 minutes, or until soufflé is firm. Serve with parsley sauce or any other favorite cream sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.
