

School Caters To Millionaire Moppets

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—One of the nation's strangest schools is a grammar-high school on Hollywood Boulevard where the small fry compare salaries and TV ratings between classes.

Most school children take off when the bell rings to practice football or sell newspapers. But after classes at the Hollywood Professional Children's School the pupils appear in movies, radio or television—at salaries higher than those of their teachers.

This school was set up by the Los Angeles School Board to take care of show business moppets. Classes are squeezed into a half day so pupils can work on their next million.

Betty Grable, Cyd Charisse, Anita Louise, Debra Paget, Piper Laurie, Judy Garland, Donald O'Connor and Bobby Driscoll are among the famous students who've stashed their books in the school lockers.

Dunsmuir Woman Files For Clerk

DUNSMUIR—Elizabeth A. Cavin has taken out nomination papers for the post of Dunsmuir city clerk and has announced they will be filed prior to the deadline.

Mrs. Cavin is currently serving as deputy city clerk, a position she has held for the past three years. Prior to that time she was executive director for the Dunsmuir Housing Authority for eight years and has had 10 years of retail sales experience.

She states she is offering the courtesy efficiency, economy and citizenship in the city clerk's office. A native of Hanford, California, she has lived in Dunsmuir since 1940. She is a member of the Business and Professional Women and other clubs and lodges.

Freckle-faced singer Jimmy Boyd graduated two weeks ago. Young singers Molly Bee and Jimmie Shore of NBC's "Pinky Lee Show," three of Bob Hope's "Seven Little Foys" and ten of the Mouseketeers from ABC's "Mickey Mouse Club" are current students.

About half of the school's 500 students are professionals. Many nonworking pupils enroll in the school because it has smaller classes than most public schools.

Although I had visions of the show business students upstaging each other in class, principal Maurice Mann insists they are "much easier to handle" because "they grasp information more quickly."

The pupils have a school yearbook (with professional photographs), school parties and graduations as any other school. But there are some touches that are strictly Hollywood.

Mann has the only school principal's office with film stars' pictures hanging on the wall—photos of his famous graduates. The school hangout is a nearby holdout stand with a jukebox where singing pupils like young Shore play their hit records.

Jess Barker Free Of Contempt Rap
LOS ANGELES (UP)—Actor Jess Barker, ex-husband of film star Susan Hayward, has been cleared of contempt charges after making back support and medical payments to an actress who accused him of fathering her daughter.

Attorney S. S. Hahn, representing Barker, told Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle yesterday the actor had paid $50 in back support and $1113 in hospital bills to Yvonne Doughty, who gave birth to a daughter Dec. 10. The contempt charges were dismissed.
