First Methodist Church was the setting for the wedding, February 5, of Gwendolyn Sue Seaholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Seaholm, Grass Lake, to James Alfred Flora, son of Mrs. John C. Loefer, 1836 Worden; and Alfred C. Flora, Sacramento.

Nuptial vows were exchanged in a 2:30 p.m. service read by the Rev. S. D. McNeil, in the presence of approximately 100 guests. Sue was given in marriage by her father.

Brides of pink with white were chosen by the bride for her wedding colors; and her bridal ensemble was all-white — including the crescent-shaped bouquet of carnations. Her gown of lace over tulle, ballerina length was made with a full skirt topped with a long-sleeved, vest-neck bodice. A small scalloped headpiece held the fingertip veil of illusion.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Jack Horton, wore a mauve frock, also ballerina length, made with bracelet length sleeves. She wore matching shoes and small net hat; and carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Candlelighters were Donna Seifertsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Seifertsen, Tennant; and Arthur Layne, Seaholm, bride's brother.
