KF Lioness Club Sweetheart Party For Husbands and New Lion Members

A gay sweetheart party staged at Reames, Monday, February 13 by the Klamath Falls Lioness Club, complimented Lion husbands as well as new Lion members with their ladies.

A buffet potluck supper was followed by dancing and novelty entertainment, climaxed by the appearance of the "Three Aches and a Pain" barbershop quartet comprised of Everett Ball, Jesse Crabtree, "Coke" Cochran, and Chuck Mortenson. Selections in keeping with the sweetheart theme were sung by the quartet which was then joined by other Lion barbershoppers and a "sing" of sweetheart songs by the entire group ensued.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. Morgan Johnson, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Estin Kiger, Mrs. Truman Runyan, Mrs. Gene Hooker, Mrs. Asa Miner and Mrs. William Van Buskirk.

BETROTHAL OF JOAN MOORE REVEALED BY HER PARENTS AT REAMES COUNTRY CLUB PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore entertained at a cocktail party at Reames Golf and Country Club to announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to John (Jack) C. Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes Jr. of Portland, who were present for the occasion and received with Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Each guest was presented with a card revealing the betrothal by Mrs. Rodney Bell, Mrs. Anthony Dooher (cousin of the bride-to-be) and Mrs. Fred Coles.

A Valentine theme was used throughout. The table was attractively covered with a red net — matching satin bordered cloth satin with two flowered hearts as a centerpiece. Dancing and cocktails provided entertainment for the guests from 8 to 11 p.m.

Assisting the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bailey, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Oldenburg, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hooker and Mr. and Mrs. Robert A Thompson.

Gerry Igl and Tom Moore, Joan's brother, were at the door.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, formerly of Klamath Falls and now of Oswego, and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dooher of Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and Jack were former residents of Klamath Falls and enjoyed meeting of their old friends again.

Both Joan and Jack are graduates of University of Oregon where she was a member of Alpha Phi and he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. He is now employed in Los Angeles. No date has been set for the wedding.

Sojourners Luncheon-Meeting Attended By 55 Members-Guests

Fifty five members and guests attended the Sojourners Club luncheon at the Willard Hotel on February 8, which preceded the business meeting. Mrs. Anna Cook was luncheon hostess and Mrs. Bert Hensen, Mrs. N. J. Rosenbaum and Mrs. C. Minner were hostesses for the afternoon.

First-time guests present were Mrs. Charles E. Alward, who came from El Paso; Mrs. Thomas M. Gerbing, formerly of San Jose; and Mrs. William Bray formerly of El Cerrito, California.

Guests who attended for the second time were Mrs. D. L. McCaskey, Mrs. Vance Eager, Mrs. Al Sthay, Mrs. George Ashbaugh, Mrs. John Randall, Mrs. Herman Collier, Mrs. Donald Megalle and Mrs. Robert Beatty.

An eligible guest must attend three meetings in order to become a member.

Visitors of the day were Virginia West and Dee Trotter.

During the business meeting an amendment to the constitution pertaining to eligibility for membership was read. The proposed amendment is: Any person is eligible to membership who has attended three meetings within the first two years of her residence in Klamath Falls, or if she has not been contacted within the two years, she is given three months after she has been contacted to attend her three meetings, up to three years. After three years of residence in Klamath Falls, membership is definitely closed. This amendment will be balloted upon at the next regular meeting.

High score bridge prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. Howard Holliday; second prize to Mrs. Claude Chase. Mrs. D. P. Groves won the high score pinochle prize; and June Fillmore won the high score canasta prize.

The next regular meeting will be February 22, beginning with a 12.30 p.m. no-hostess luncheon at the Willard Hotel, followed by a business meeting and cards.

OES at Malin

MALIN—Prosperity Chapter No. 160, Order of Eastern Star, Malin, held its regular meeting Thursday, February 9, with all officers present in honor of master mason's night.

Katherine Stonecypher, worthy matron of Tulelake Chapter, was introduced and escorted to the east.

Alida Macken, Fresno, California was also escorted and honored as the first worthy matron of Prosperity Chapter. She gave a very interesting account of a few of the early trials experienced when the chapter was instituted in December, 1930. Two present officers, Leah Street and Anne Fruits, served as officers during her term as worthy matron.

Following the short meeting, refreshments were served master masons, their wives and members, after which cards were played.

79th Birthday

BONANZA—A surprise birthday dinner was given February 12, for Henry Jensen of Ashland who was celebrating his 79th birthday.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jones and Richard, Bonanza; Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Moore and family, Merrill; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark and family, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bounds and family, Mrs. Henry Jensen all of Ashland.

LIONS, Grover B. "Brick" Leach and Winston D. Purvine, who were two of the club members feted at the annual party.

ESTIN KIGER, whose wife was one of the Lioness Sweetheart Party committee members, carries a "mouthful" on a trayful of food.

Manzanita Chapter No. 172

Manzanita Chapter No. 172, OES, stated meeting on February 8, was in the Scottish Rite Temple. In the absence of worthy matron, Georgianna Clark, associate matron, Evelyn Biehn, presided with worthy patron, Gus Vlahos.

Visitors introduced were Katherine Stonecypher, worthy matron of Tulelake Chapter No. 539; Laura Zlabeck, worthy matron of Prosperity Chapter No. 160, of Malin; and Mr. and Mrs. Schonebaum of Bimidji Chapter, Bimidji, Minnesota.

Following the business meeting, the group was entertained with a dance by Marilyn Metler and Barbara Blanchard.

Refreshments were served in the dining room.
