

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO JACK" was being sung to Jack Moon (behind the cake), on his 10th birthday anniversary, February 13. Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Moon, 3917 Frieda; and his mother invited a group of Jack's young friends in to help him celebrate the important date.

Eastern Star Valentine Party

DUNSMUIR—A Valentine party featuring games, special refreshments and decorations followed the regular meeting of Eastern Star Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, last Thursday night at the Masonic Temple.

Margaret Olsen and Josephine McNeely headed the party committee. A potluck dinner preceded the meeting.

Alice Langdon, worthy matron, conducted the chapter session. Distinguished guests included Margaret Olsen, deputy grand matron of District No. 2; Doris Morgan, worthy matron of Dunsmuir Chapter; Ruth and Ovie Nelson, worthy matron and patron of Sisson Chapter, Mount Shasta; Martha Hall and Elwood Adams, worthy matron and patron of White Pine Chapter, Weed; and Eula May Ray, worthy matron of McCloud Chapter.

NEWLYWEDS HONEYMOON IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

DUNSMUIR—Honeymooning in Southern California are Mr. and Mrs. John Chiment. The bride is the former LaVerne Byers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Byers, Dunsmuir. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chiment of Weed. The young couple will live in Weed.

The marriage was solemnized in a Nuptial Mass celebrated in St. John's Catholic Church in Dunsmuir at 11 a.m. February 4. Monsignor James Casey officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

White stock and white tapers were used in the church decorations. Wedding guests were registered at the reception by Mrs. Lawrence Thunberg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and nylon net fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. A heart shaped tiara held her fingertip veil; and she carried a bouquet of white bouvardia and baby rosebuds.

Judith Byers, sister of the bride, was her sole attendant. She wore a formal dress with rainbow colors in the skirt and a bodice of silver and pink brocade. A nylon stole and a bouquet of pink rosebuds completed the costume.

Tranquillo Conte of Weed was the best man. Helen Chiment was soloist; and Eva Carlquist was organist.

Mrs. Byers wore an ice-blue satin dress with brown accessories; and the senior Mrs. Chiment chose a navy blue dress with white accessories. Corsages of white carnations were worn by both mothers.

A reception at the Hotel Dunsmuir immediately followed the service. A buffet luncheon was served in the banquet room to the 150 wedding guests; and an orchestra provided music for dancing in the lobby.

An heirloom tablecloth covered the heart-shaped table which held the wedding cake. The ornate multi-tiered confection decorated with Grecian columns and white swans, was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

White carnations, fern and candelabra completed the table decor. White and silver bells, silver stars and streamers decorated the banquet room.

For travel, the new Mrs. Chiment donned a suit of oxford gray flannel, worn with red accessories and a rosebud corsage. She tossed her bridal bouquet to her sister, Judy.

The bride is a graduate of Dunsmuir High School. Chiment, who has just completed four years of service in the U.S. Navy, is a graduate of Weed High School.

If a member of a telephone committee for an organization calls to tell you the time and place of a meeting or social event, be sure to thank her graciously. Being on a telephone committee is no snap. But members can make it pleasant for the person calling a long list of names by being gracious and pleasant.

Players Club Valentine Tea

The Pine Grove Room in the Willard Hotel was a gaily decorated setting for the Players Club Valentine tea, Saturday, February 4.

The tea table, at which Mrs. Lloyd Young and Mrs. Grant a colorful centerpiece of red and white carnations decorated with red hearts, and each card table was decorated with Valentines.

Twenty-eight tables were in play from 1:30 to 3 p.m. when tea was served and prizes given for high and low scores at each table.

Mrs. Norman McEwen won a special prize—the tea table centerpiece.

Twenty-two students from Leona Robertson's Studio capably entertained with several accordion compositions.

Hostesses for the successful event were Mrs. H. H. Madole, general chairman; Mrs. Don Nolan, co-chairman; and decorations chairman, Mrs. H. A. Wood. Decorations committee members were Mrs. O. O. Gildow, Mrs. J. R. Rhodes, Mrs. Thell Rea, and Mrs. Ron Fisher. Reservations co-chairmen were Mrs. Ervin Kramer and Mrs. Earl E. Jones; and Mrs. E. O. Jackson, publicity chairman.

Birthday Anniversary

LAKEVIEW—Members of the Eastern Star Past Matrons Club honored Mrs. Ida Umbach at the monthly meeting on February 1 with a birthday anniversary cake. Mrs. Umbach's 88th birthday anniversary was February 7.

Mrs. Umbach served as worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon in 1921.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Eugene Pavell, Mrs. William Bernard was a guest.

Guild Card Party

LANGELL VALLEY—A card party was given by St. Barnabas Guild in the Parish Hall February 11, with Mrs. Owen Pepple and Mrs. Cecil Haley serving. Seven tables were in play. John Brown won high for women; Bill Bechold, mens high; and Wes Dearborn won the traveling prize. Refreshments were served at midnight by the two hostesses.

New Parish Hall Converted From Former Home

DUNSMUIR—Members of St. John's Catholic Altar Society are looking forward to completion of the new parish hall, now being remodeled from the house just north of the residence of Monsignor James Casey on Shasta Avenue.

Plans for an "opening night" on March 6, were made at the last meeting of the society. Mrs. Susan Martin, Mrs. Olivia Siriani and Mrs. Josephine Welch were appointed to select curtains and other interior appointments. The remodeling job, all done by volunteer labor, is almost finished. Partitions were moved to make a large meeting room, two rest rooms and a kitchen.

One of the first events at the hall will be the spring rummage sale scheduled for March 9 and 10.

The last meeting of the society was held at St. Barnabas Guild Hall with Mrs. Marie Deschler, president, presiding. A movie on the mass was shown.

OTI Faculty Wives Club

OTI Faculty Wives met Tuesday night, February 14, in the Student Union Lounge.

"Marion of Millie" gave highlights of the coming spring fashions and current fashion trends. A short business meeting followed, during which the rummage sale, scheduled for March 2 and 3, was planned in detail.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the scholarship or scholarships provided by Faculty Wives Women's Club of Oregon Technical Institute. This scholarship is given to a student, enrolled in either of the final two terms of his or her course.

Workers are needed to help with this sale, and if any member, old or new has time to spare on these dates, please contact Mrs. Harold Pedersen, Mrs. Hallard Bailey, Mrs. Herbert Madole or Mrs. Grant Bailey. All donations will be greatly appreciated.

Hostesses for the evening, Mrs. John Vail, Mrs. Wayne Rawson, Mrs. Almon Geiss and Mrs. Maurice Houser, served a valentine dessert.

Next meeting will be March 13, and a big fun night is planned.

CIC Meeting

FORT KLAMATH—The Civic Improvement Club met in regular session, Friday, February 3, at 2 p.m., with president, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer in the chair.

The monthly financial report was read by the club treasurer, Mrs. William A. Page; after which, standing committee reports were heard.

Mrs. Gail Culver, chairman of the special play committee, reported that several plays suitable for home talent production have been submitted to Mrs. Frank Strahan, who will direct the play chosen.

Mrs. Ober Brown was named chairman of the makeup committee; and Mrs. W. B. Hescock and Mrs. R. O. Varnum will head the stage committee. Other committee chairmen will be appointed later. Rehearsals are scheduled to start within the next week.

Wednesday evening, February 22, is the date set for the club pack monthly meeting in the clubhouse, with a number of out-of-town scout executives expected for what is planned to be an interesting evening.

CIC sponsors Scouts and the Fort Klamath Horizon Club, of Camp Fire Girls. The Horizon Girls are serving a waffle supper tonight, starting at 5:30 p.m. The public is invited and proceeds will go to the Horizon Club vacation trip fund.

Mrs. Gene A. Page and Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun were hostesses during the social hour which followed the business session. Refreshments in the Valentine motif were served from a long, white-draped table centered with an arrangement of daffodils and pussy-willows. Other tables were decorated in red and white—with a Valentine favor marking each place.

At the meeting were Mrs. William Brewer; Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Norman Van Dersing, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Ober Brown, Mrs. Gail Culver, Mrs. Everett Morris, Mrs. Dan Brown, Mrs. William C. MODERN HEIRS

Today's youngsters are particularly fortunate in that they are, literally, heir to all the new modern innovations that make their rooms beautiful, well-wearing, and easily kept clean. Every child needs a corner that he can call his own, where he can live in his own way, as his elders do—a place that reflects his interests.

Combed-wood walls painted the color of strained sunlight provide a cheerful starting point in the boys' room sketched. Natural wood floor cleaned and polished with non-slip wax is easily kept clean. Unpainted furniture provided an opportunity to introduce vibrant color—in this case, coral and sea green. (May be repainted in other colors when room color scheme is changed.)

Here is a room designed in a modern manner to delight a pair of modern heirs.

Children's rooms have to take a lot of hard knocks... most of them unintentional. We'll be glad to help you select the painting and refinishing materials that will give you long-lasting beauty and that will withstand hard wear. Come in, talk over your painting plans with us.
