MALIN HOME EXTENSION UNIT
By Virginia Blohm
The Malin Home Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. William Rajnus for an all-day meeting Tuesday, February 7, with 25 members and guests present.
The project, "Rolls and Breads from Sweet Dough," was demonstrated by the leaders, Mrs. William Rajnus and Mrs. Charles Dobry. They showed how to make all kinds of fancy rolls from the setting of the dough to the finished product. The demonstration was particularly interesting because they demonstrated both the American and Bohemian methods. Lunch, which was served by the leaders and Mrs. Cecil Jackson, consisted of the rolls, fruit salad and coffee.
At the business meeting, following lunch, Mrs. Ernest Gray, vice chairman, presided. There was a report by Ann Lahoda on ACWW seals. A letter was read from the Azalea Home Committee, requesting the units to send in more Betty Crocker coupons for the silver tea service for Azalea House. The special prize donated by Mrs. Bonnie Stephens was won by Mrs. Howard Henderson.

KENO HOME EXTENSION UNIT
By Lou Smith
"Care of the Hair" was the project at the regular meeting of the Keno Home Extension meeting Wednesday, February 15, at 10:30 a.m. Project leaders, Mrs. Elmer Erlei and Mrs. Veryl Young, demonstrated the setting of pin curls on models. Mrs. Marion Padgett and Mrs. Larry Owen. Shampooing, brushing and the construction of the hair were discussed during the demonstration.
A potluck luncheon preceded the afternoon session, which was called to order by Mrs. Marion Padgett, chairman. Mrs. Marion Padgett ready the "thought for the day," and the group voted to donate five dollars to the Heart Fund for its charity contribution. It was announced that Mrs. Floyd Stone will start a "traveling basket" to raise funds for the unit treasury. Special prize of the day was won by Mrs. Veryl Young.
The remainder of the meeting was turned back to the project leaders who illustrated, with suggestions offered by the group, appropriate and becoming hairdos for various face-shapes.
There were 22 members present and four guests, Mrs. H. D. Clark, Mrs. Richard Jameson, Mrs. Robert Lynn and Betty Hawthorne. Three new members of the unit are Mrs. Don Johnston, Mrs. Robert Lynn and Mrs. Stanley Svoboda.
The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Veryl Young—the topic, "Braided Rugs."

Revlon Announces $250,000 TV Show
NEW YORK. (AP) — The sponsor of "The $64,000 Question" plans a new television show with a grand prize of a quarter of a million dollars.
A spokesman for the sponsor, Revlon Cosmetics, said the show will be called "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World."
He said three pretty girls will compete each week with a final winner picked once a year.
The biggest cash prize on television so far has been the $100,000 top award on "The Big Surprise." The new show may start this summer, Revlon said.
