The next meeting will be held on March 6 at the home of Mrs. Alice Hoover on Del Fatti Lane.

GOODS PAYMENT

TOKYO (AP) — America's armed forces paid 175 million dollars for goods and services in Japan last year, a 27 per cent drop from 1954. The Japanese Economic Planning Board said U. S. purchases under the special procurement program total $1,706,000,000 since 1950. Much of it has been and still is for ammunition.

FEMALE BOBCAT, 3½ feet in length, was killed Saturday a mile north of Weed by 14-year-old Karl Vidricksen, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Vidricksen of Weed. It is the first bobcat reported killed in the area for a long time and under California law carries a bounty of $2.50. Karl found an animal nest Saturday morning and soon spotted the cat in a tree near the pasture land of his father's purebred Jersey herd.

Junior Stock Show Judges Selected By Cow Palace

Judges and judging schedules for the 10th annual Grand National Junior Livestock Exposition have been announced by Wilson Meyer, president of the Cow Palace board of directors.

The show—largest of its kind in the world—will be held at San Francisco March 24-28. More than 1,000 4-H Club members and Future Farmers of America are expected to attend.

Under a new ruling, the young exhibitors will compete for best of breed championships, with their estimated 4,000 head of livestock.

Judges will be as follows:

Beef cattle: Harvey A. McDougal and Paul Fritts, of the McDougal Livestock Co., Collinsville; Harry Parker, Diamond Ranch, San Luis Obispo; and James Jones, Modesto Meat Company, Modesto.

Dairy cattle: Prof. G. E. Gordon, University of California; and Russell Nelson, California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo.

Lambs: Lyman Miller and Al Green, of James Allan & Sons, San Francisco; and Prof. William C. Weir, University of California, Davis.

Hogs: Prof. Hubert Heitman, University of California, Davis; L. W. Fieldmiller, Valley Livestock Marketing Association, Stockton; and George Bath, Sonoma County Farm adviser, Santa Rosa.

Livestock entries close on Thursday, March 1.

The schedule of events calls for the opening of barn areas for arrival of livestock at 6 a.m. on Friday, March 23, with animals being weighed for classification and sale weight on Saturday. Deadline for arrival of entries is 12 noon on March 24, and all entries must be weighed by 10 p.m. that evening.

Sunday and Monday, March 25-26, will be devoted to livestock judging, starting at 8 a.m. on both days. Sheep blocking and trimming contests and milk barn demonstrations will also be held.

The climax of the show will be the Livestock Auction Sales on Wednesday, March 28. Market hogs will be sold at 9:30 a.m.; fat lambs at 11 a.m., and fat cattle at 1:30 p.m. The auctioneers will be Charles Adams of Artesia, and Howard Brown of Woodland.

Hunt For Body To Continue

SACRAMENTO (UP) — The search for the body of 13-year-old Linda Lee Alexander, missing since Feb. 13, was resumed today following a report her body had been sighted briefly.

The girl, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. H.S. Alexander, Sacramento, disappeared when her livery stable horse apparently fell from a low level bridge over American River east of here. The horse's body was found floating in the river a short time later but all efforts to recover the body of the girl have been unsuccessful.

Nick Carlson, captain of the dredge Papoose, reported sighting a body he was positive was the girl's in Sacramento yesterday, some three miles downstream from where the American joins the Sacramento. The captain attempted to retrieve the body but it disappeared under a barge and was not seen again.

TROOPS CHANGE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UP) — Rebel Hoa Hao chieftain Tran Van Soai has brought more than 3,000 troops over to the government side, a high military source said Thursday. Soai surrendered to the government several days ago.
