

QUOTA CLUB ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD DINNER IN WINEMA HOTEL FEBRUARY 22ND

GUEST SPEAKER, LYRAVINE FISH, social economics instructor at KUHS, is pictured above, standing, at the Quota Club annual "Woman of Achievement" dinner in the Camas Room of the Winema Hotel, where she was guest speaker. Seated at the table, from the left, Ninon Nyback, 1st vice president of the local club; Edith Lantz, president; and at the right, Mary Rogers, program chairman.

Over 60 guests, including the two women of achievement, Betty Hatzl and Lynn Kendall, from Bly, were interested listeners as the speaker shed considerable light on the (to most) monetary mystery of inflation and how it affects the value of the dollar. (Further details on inside page.)

— Photo by Kettler

SOCIETY

by

Milly Ramsby

VALENTINE WEDDING

A VALENTINE THEME was chosen by Ruby May Gehring for her wedding to Charles Thomas (Tom) Shubert, in Klamath Lutheran Church, February 12. Inspiration for the St. Valentine decor was the birthday anniversary of the bridegroom, February 14.

Both of the newlyweds are graduates of KUHS — and were prominent in school activities. Ruby is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Gehring, former residents of Klamath Falls, now Eureka; and Tom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Schubert, 2527 Bisbee. The Rev. Kent Spaulding officiated at the 2:30 p.m. service. (See story on inside page.)

— Photo by Guderian

JOB'S DAUGHTERS BETHEL NO. 6 ANNUAL KING OF HEARTS FORMAL

THE VALENTINE THEME PREVAILED in all decorations at the Job's Daughters King of Hearts formal. Before the huge glitter inscribed heart of satin, Dale McKennie is crowned king by Bethel No. 6 honored queen, Pat Smith.

Members of her bethel and the four 1956 knights are, from the left, Paul Adams, Sandra Adams, Bill Badorek and Mary Margaret Addison. Opposite them, same order, Judy Hadley, Ray Behnke, Sharon McConnell and Punky Adams.

AT THE POPULAR PUNCH BOWL—Joanne Bolton ladles servings to sister-members of Job's Daughters and three male guests at the annual King of Hearts formal at Reames February 14. From the left, Judy Hull, Butch Kimpton, Sharon McConnell, Lee McGill, Sharon Thompson and Jerry Floccchini.

SHARING HONORS with King of Hearts Dale at the Job's Daughters St. Valentine's Day formal at Reames, were the knights.

Paul Adams kneels to receive the title from Bethel No. 6 honored queen, Pat Smith. Ray Behnke, also knighted, and Judy Hadley, left, are interested spectators with Sharon McConnell, far right.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS BETHEL 6 KING OF HEARTS FORMAL

The annual King of Hearts Valentine formal was staged at Reames Golf and Country Club on February 14 by the members of Bethel No. 6 International Order of Job's Daughters. Job's Daughters and their partners danced beneath a red and white ceiling to the music of The Starlighters. The room was decorated with red and white hearts with one large panel of white ribbons bearing hearts with names of the Job's Daughters and their escorts.

During the intermission Dale McKennie was crowned "King of Hearts" and Paul Adams, Punky Velch, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Adams, Bill Badorek and Ray Velch, was bearer of the sword Behnke were knighted by honored used in the knighting ceremony.

Queen Pat Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bortis. Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Adams, Mrs. F. C. Adams, Dr. and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Addison, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Badorek, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dewing, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Behnke, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bortis, Mr. and Mrs. George Boudon (guardian and associate guardian of Bethel 6), Mrs. H. H. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McKennie and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Craig.

Valerie Overdorf, small daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James Overdorf, was crown bearer; and Mark

ST. VALENTINE SET THE MOOD — "Music by The Starlighters" set the tempo — for the annual Bethel No. 6 King of Hearts formal, February 14, at Reames. Noted in the foreground were, from the left, Rudy Hedberg (partner not in picture); Erlene Whitehouse (back to camera) with Danny Hitchcock; Jean Warren with Chris Lemler; and Sharon Thompson (back to camera) with Jerry Floccchini.