Mrs. R. C. (Inez) Short Honored On 69th Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. R. C. (Inez) Short was honored with a dinner on Sunday, February 19, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Hilyard. The family gathering was in observance of Mrs. Short's 69th birthday. February 20, assisting Mrs. Hilyard were her sisters, Mrs. J. D. Flucum and Mrs. H. H. Slaughter, Klamath Falls. Thirty-six members of the family including four generations were present.

Mrs. Short is the mother of two sons in addition to her daughters, John A. Short and Jerry A. Short, both living in Klamath County. She has 16 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

She came to Klamath County from Woodburn, Oregon in 1888, at the age of one year, the daughter of Abraham and Emmaline Elizabeth Turner. Since that time members of her family have been actively identified with agriculture in the Klamath Basin. Her family home where she has lived for many years, is on the Merrill Highway in the Henley district.

Mrs. Short has four sisters, Mrs. Emma (Harry) Wilson and Mrs. Clarence M. Kirkpatrick, Malin; Mrs. Maude Christensen, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Etta (Robert) Sewell, Crescent City; and a brother, Walter Turner, Tillamook.

A thoughtful and careless person is often shown up for what he is as soon as he gets at the wheel of a car.

FRIENDSHIP COURT NO. 11

Catherine Wright, royal matron, presided at the stated meeting of Friendship Court No. 11, Order of Amaranth, February 15. Hugh Templeton presided as royal patron in the absence of Ted Huey, who was ill.

Hugh Templeton, grand prelate of grand court and his wife, Marguerite, grand marshal in the east of grand court, were distinguished visitors of the evening.

Friendship Court No. 11 celebrated its 17th birthday anniversary at the February 15 meeting in honor of past royal matrons and patrons. Refreshments and room decor was carried out in observance of George Washington's birthday anniversary.

Rebekah Lodge Valentine Party

A "Valentine tree" was planted beside a Valentine box by the decorating committee of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 104 at the last regular meeting February 15, in the IOOF hall.

District deputy president, Lorene McCollum gave instruction in Rebekah work and explained resolutions of the Rebekah Assembly proceedings. Members enjoyed a question and answer time on this work.

During the social hour the Valentine box was opened and officers distributed many Valentines to everyone. Noble grand, Irene Rickman surprised members with foil covered hearts of homemade fudge.

Members were reminded of the rummage sale with Theta Theta Rho Girls February 25, Pelican building.

AL Auxiliary

MERRILL — The American Legion Auxiliary met in the home of Ann Fruits, February 14, at 8 p.m. Lena Buck gave a talk on Haiti. Ann Fruits gave a history of Oregon and explained the state flag; a quilt, made by the auxiliary, was mailed to "Child Welfare Center" at Roseburg; and Camp White was sent two lap robes and nylon hose gathered up by the auxiliary. The quilts will be woven into rugs by the patients.

The auxiliary, now serving the dinners to the Lions Club has planned the dinner for Monday's meeting. March is the birthday month for the Legion, and the auxiliary is planning a celebration dinner, March 13, for Post No. 80 and the auxiliary.

Ann Fruits served refreshments after the meeting.

Missionary League Meets

DUNSMUIR—Mrs. A. J. Butters entertained members of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League at her home, February 6.

Participating in the evening program were Mrs. J. M. Conwill, Mrs. Robert Reid and Mrs. J. M. Jones. The 1956 programs were distributed by Mrs. J. R. Loney, president; and Mrs. D. F. Fidler, Mrs. Robert Reid was appointed historian.

Mrs. Arthur Brend, assisted by Mrs. Butters, served refreshments. The next meeting, March 5, will be at the home of Mrs. F. T. King.

How do your closets look? Clothes jammed into each other every which way? That's hard on fabrics. Give them room and air and if they're delicate fabrics, a padded hanger.

PLAYERS CLUB

Players Club met in the Library Club Room Wednesday evening February 15. Decorations featured hachets, logs and cherries in observance of George Washington's birthday.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Denver Middleton, Mrs. E. R. Olson, Mrs. E. E. Jones, Mrs. Ervin Kramer and Hazel Bradley.

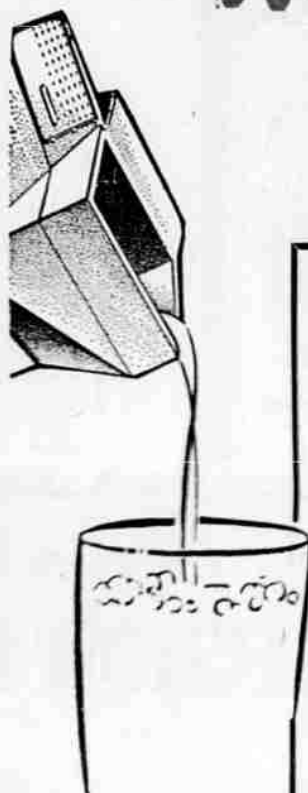

After the business meeting, cards were played. Prizes in pinocle were won by Mrs. Sam L. Jones and Mrs. O. L. Yancey; bridge, Mrs. E. H. Hultman and Mrs. J. W. Lake; and special prize, Mrs. D. G. Kononpasek.

Guest for the evening was Lillian Stein. Next regular meeting will be March 7 in the Library Club Room at 8 p.m.
