

Youth Plans Use For $100,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Fourteen-year-old George Wright, who won $100,000 on a television quiz program, has made certain he and his brother and sister get an education. After a conference yesterday with bank officials, the following figures were disclosed: State and federal income taxes: $52,500.

Family living expenses for the next year: $7,500. (His father will file a separate income tax return). A tax-deductible gift to George's Madison Square Boys Club: $10,000. For the education of the three children: $30,000. George won the money on NBC's "The Big Surprise."

Europe's Non-Communist Press Welcomes Decision

LONDON (AP)—Western Europe's non-Communist press gave warm welcome today to President Eisenhower's decision to run again. Officials on both sides of the Iron Curtain were noncommittal, but the Russians said smilingly they had expected it. Editorial comment over the announcement ranged from sober reflection to open jubilation.

The Times of London mused: "It is impossible not to admire the devotion to duty which has led him, after prolonged private debate, to this decision." Morgenbladet of Oslo declared: "The whole free world will greet the President's decision with satisfaction." But Copenhagen's Dagens Nyheter—a conservative paper—found it "almost historical irony that at a time when authoritarian Russia goes in for collective leadership, one should see the Democratic United States depending on the decision of one man." "This is news we have expected for some time," said Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, who has spent much time in the United States as a Soviet representative at the United Nations.

West European officials had little or nothing to say officially. But many expressed the private view that Eisenhower's decision was good for the free world. The British were obviously pleased but made plain they did not believe the move would rule out the chances for a Democratic victory next November.

Panther Jet Crashes In Japan

ATSUGI, Japan (AP)—A U. S. Navy P2F Panther jet crashed into a Japanese house today near the naval air station here. The pilot was killed and two Japanese women occupants of the house were taken to a hospital in a state of shock. The house was almost destroyed and two others were damaged. The identity of the pilot, who was on a routine training flight, was not announced pending notification of next of kin. The Navy said the cause of the crash had not been determined. Ten new cars are under construction for the 500-mile automobile race at Indianapolis Speedway on Memorial Day.
