Camp Fire Group Meets

Committee chairmen for 1956 were named at the Camp Fire Girls Board of Directors meeting held Tuesday evening at the chamber of commerce. Mrs. George Proctor, newly elected council president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. LeRoy Aserlund was appointed to board membership for a three year term and will serve as program chairman for 1956.

Other chairmen named by Mrs. Proctor were: Mrs. E. P. Lee, group organization; Mrs. Norman Jones, public relations; Phil Lee, camping committee; Truman Runyan, finance; Mrs. James Kerns, personnel; Mrs. Robert L. Smith, council and district organization; Donald A. W. Piper, candy sale; Phil Lee and Dale Criswell, Camp Esther Applegate board of governors.

In her report to the board Mrs. Naomi French, executive director, pointed out that in December the local membership had reached an all time high of 1,238 and that progress with the council's districting plan could increase the figure considerably in 1956.

Dates for the annual candy sale were set for April 14 to 26, and an order was placed for Miss Saylor's chocolate minis, which is the same product sold by the girls for the past four years.

Resident camp fees were raised from $15 per week to $16.50 per week to cover increased program expenses. The resident camp will be held at Camp Esther Applegate July 7-23, and camp folders will be mailed to all members on April 2.

Program activities for March are in celebration of the 46th anniversary of the founding of the national organization in 1910. On Sunday, March 4, all girls and leaders in costume will attend the church of their choice. Other plans include mother's teas in Dorris on March 2, and in Merrill on March 3; Klamath Falls groups will have parties and dinners with parents, council fires, and trips to interesting places; Gilchrist, grand council fire on March 2. All communities within the council jurisdiction will prepare window displays at various times during the month using the birthday theme, "Plant Seed - Reap Friendship."

Camp Fire Girls is one of 26 services supported by the Klamath County United Fund.

Fireman's Ball — will be held in Merrill Saturday, March 3, at the community hall with dancing from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. to Baley's band.

Basketball — The Modoc Union High School Braves of Alturas, A and B teams, will play a post season basketball game on Friday afternoon and evening when the teams face the Los Molinos basketballers in the annual Fall River invitational basketball tournament.

Alturas — The Kelly Creek PTA is planning Town and Country Festival at the Kelly Creek school house in New Pine Creek Friday, March 2, at 7 p.m. There will be a farm auction, fireworks booth, games and refreshments. Proceeds go toward the tuition scholarship fund.

Banquet — There will be a district meeting in Alturas Saturday at 6:30 p.m. of District 49. Rebekah Assembly, starting with a banquet. The business meeting will follow at the Odd Fellows Hall. Invitations have been sent to the Lakeview and Merrill lodges.
