

Autherine Lucy Situation Confused; Case Pending

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The case of Autherine Lucy, Negro student who wants to continue her studies at the all-white University of Alabama, was in a state bordering on total confusion today.

Miss Lucy, 26, was "permanently expelled" by the Board of Trustees of the 125-year-old university at Tuscaloosa at a secret meeting Wednesday night.

The trustees' action came within hours of an order from Federal Judge H. Hohari Grooms ordering her readmission to the university. She had been suspended Feb. 8 after riots on the campus over her presence.

Her attorney Arthur D. Shores said he had no idea what legal course he would pursue in an additional effort to have the 26-year-old former schoolteacher readmitted.

Miss Lucy herself was in New York for medical attention and "rest, peace and quiet."

LETT BIRMINGHAM

She left Birmingham yesterday with Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel for the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. The NAACP has been backing her efforts over the past 20 months to be admitted to the university.

In expelling Miss Lucy from the university, the trustees accused her of making "false, defamatory, impertinent and scandalous charges" against university officials.

The expulsion resolution said: "No educational institution can maintain necessary disciplinary action if any student, regardless of race, guilty of the conduct of Autherine J. Lucy be permitted to remain."

The Negro woman was enrolled at the university Feb. 1 in compliance with a Federal District Court order issued by Grooms.

In the wake of the riots, the Board of Trustees ordered her suspension for "her safety" and the "safety of others."

Miss Lucy's attorneys promptly filed contempt of court proceedings against 13 university officials and trustees. In the contempt motion Miss Lucy charged these officials had conspired with members of the mob to keep her from attending classes. The petition called the mob action a "cunning stratagem."

COURT HEARING

In the court hearing Wednesday, however, Marshall moved to amend the contempt proceedings, striking all references to a conspiracy.

In his findings, Grooms exonerated the trustees and officials of the contempt charges on the grounds they acted in good faith in excluding her from the campus after the riots. However, he ordered her readmitted by 9 a.m. Monday.

A federal court employe said unofficially the next move now is up to Miss Lucy's attorneys since the readmission order was predicated upon the fact that at that time she was a legally enrolled student.

Meanwhile, the Alabama House of Representatives in Montgomery whooped through a resolution to establish a committee to determine if the NAACP is controlled by Communists.

Under the terms of the resolution, which now goes to the Senate, Miss Lucy would be called as a witness.

The Senate approved a resolution by unanimous voice vote asking for federal funds to settle Negroes outside the South.

NBC-TV Bids For Top Spot With Two Dramatic Shows

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—Within a single week NBC-TV is bidding for top dramatic honors with two outstanding dramas. A beautiful, brown-eyed English actress, Claire Bloom, plays the feminine lead in both.

Next Monday night Producers' Showcase presents a 90-minute color and black and white production of George Bernard Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," starring Miss Bloom as Cleopatra.

On Sunday afternoon, March 11, NBC-TV will present the American premiere of Sir Laurence Olivier's British film "Richard III." Miss Bloom plays Lady Anne to Olivier's portrayal of the wicked hunchback Richard in this three-hour color and black and white film.

In short, Miss Bloom is a young lady of great interest to the television audience these days. But if anybody hopes to learn anything here about her romantic interests (none), any personal eccentricities (none), any headline-making views (none), they're doomed to disappointment.

After spending a pleasant hour with her, I can positively report only these things: she is beautiful, restrained to the point of shyness, and wholly dedicated to acting and the theater. Having seen her play Roxane in NBC-TV's production of "Cyrano de Bergerac" last fall, I also can report she's a superb actress.
