

Medford, KF Top Honors

GLENN MOORE

EARLE TICHENOR

DONN TAUCHER

BOB TISEL
— LANDIS PHOTO

DICK McLAUGHLIN
— LANDIS PHOTO

All-Star Squads Revealed

Medford and Klamath Falls dominated two Southern Oregon Conference all-star basketball teams it was announced today as both of the clubs await further cage action in the state A-1 tournament at Eugene March 13-17.

The Herald and News-KPLW all-conference team found Medford placing four men on the 10-man squad, while the Medford Mail Tribune's balloting listed the same number. Klamath Falls had three members on both clubs.

Klamath's Glenn Moore, Donn Taucher and Earle Tichenor led the balloting in the Herald and News all-conference selections as first team cagers. Other first team honorees went to Medford's Dick McLaughlin and Bob Tisdell, the latter a unanimous choice.

The H&N-KPLW second team was made up of two players each from Medford and Grants Pass, and one from Ashland. Medford cagers earning second team votes were Dick Coppel and Lloyd Cearley, Chuck Nevi and Tom Bernet of Grants Pass filled out two other team positions, while Ashland's Gene Parent was the fifth member of the team.

Tisdell's 357 points in 22 games led all of the conference scorers for the season, while Moore and Tichenor of Klamath were the second and third highest scorers for the year with 269 and 249. Other scoring figures for the all-conference selections included: McLaughlin 217, Coppel 230, Cearley 177, Nevi 211, Bernet 225, Parent 236 and Taucher 227.

The selection of the Mail Tribune's all-conference team came in about the same order as the Herald and News-KPLW tabulation. Members of the first team were Moore, Tisdell, Taucher, Coppel and McLaughlin. Second team positions were snared by Tichenor, Parent, Bernet, Nevi and Medford's Neil Plumley.

Based on a 24-point ballot, Tisdell and Moore were both named to the all-conference team. Tisdell was named to the Tribune's voting. Taucher missed being a unanimous pick by a single point as he tallied 23 points. Coppel drew 19 points, and McLaughlin 16. Tichenor and Parent each had 12, while Bernet and Nevi both pulled 11. Plumley had nine points.

Moore is the brightest hoopster in the conference after earning all-conference honors as a sophomore, and he has two more seasons in which to improve himself. Others who are juniors and will be back next season with Moore are Coppel, McLaughlin and Plumley. All of the others are graduating seniors who have said good-by to Southern Oregon Conference basketball action.

"UCLA is nobody's pigeon," said Coach Phil Woolpert, referring to the Pacific Coast Conference champions, "but we worry about them when the time comes."

Large Crowd Expected As Dons Bow Out

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The nation's top collegiate basketball team for two years running closes its regular season Tuesday night with the largest crowd in Pacific Coast cage history due to sit in on the game at the Cow Palace.

Three members of the fabulous University of San Francisco variety—two-time All-American Bill Russell and guards K. C. Jones and Hal Perry—close out their regular careers in the clash with St. Mary's. It will be Jones' last college game. He's ineligible for National Collegiate Athletic Assn. tournament play.

The huge Cow Palace is a complete sellout, which means that the crowd will hit some 14,000 and wipe out the old mark set earlier this season at 14,297 by USF against San Jose State.

After Tuesday night the Dons relax until March 16 when they open defense of their National Collegiate championship against UCLA, the last team to beat them in the NCAA regional at Corvallis, Ore. The 47-49 loss on Dec. 11, 1954, was avenged in the finals of the Madison Square Garden Tournament last December by a decisive 70-53 count.

"UCLA is nobody's pigeon," said Coach Phil Woolpert, referring to the Pacific Coast Conference champions, "but we worry about them when the time comes."

Card Hopping Eyes, Hitting Will Respond

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Red Schoendienst is confident that eye exercises will help him prove it was all a mistake last year when he tumbled out to 268 after three straight 300-plus years with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The freckle-faced second baseman, looking younger than his 33 years, suffered through his worst season at bat in eight years but said yesterday, "I'm not even thinking of last year."

"That's behind me," he said. "I think I can hit 300 again because I've done it before, but I'm not setting any goals for myself, just hoping I can play every day and prove it was all a mistake."

Stan Musial, Red's long-time roommate, said Red was having eye trouble last year "but he looks sharp this spring."

General Manager Frank Lane buried a rumor that Schoendienst would be traded to Milwaukee for pitcher Bob Buhl and first baseman Joe Adcock.

Lane pointed out this would give the Red Birds four first basemen and leave the second base job solely up to promising but unproved Don Blasingame.

"Red's still our second baseman," Lane declared. "I really think the eye exercises I took during the winter helped me." Schoendienst said.

WINNERS WHO LOST MONEY
HIALEAH, Fla. (AP)—Racing fans at Hialeah Park in 1955 failed to cash $4,196 worth of winning non-ticket tickets.

Duke University passed up the ICA track championship meet because on the previous night the team competed in the Atlantic Coast Conference indoor championships.

Veteran National League umpire Eddie Ponder has not missed an arbitrating assignment since he joined the league in 1933. During this time he has worked more than 3,200 games without a miss.

DeMarco KO's Wallace Smith

BOSTON (AP)—A jubilant Tony DeMarco credited a long memory and an unannounced fall on the ice for a ninth round TKO victory over lightweight champion Wallace Smith Monday night at Boston Garden.

"I knew Smith's style because we sparred together in Jersey City in 1951," said the former welterweight champion after he earned a bloody triumph over Smith.

Boston's "Little Marciano" confessed he had slightly sprained his left hand because of a fall during a pre-fight workout. Though he used his squalip dynamite to knock Smith for a mandatory eight count in the third round, DeMarco used the injured duke sparingly until he got Smith into real trouble in the eighth round.

After that DeMarco, who weighed 143 1/2 for the non-televized, non-title match, rallied and caught Smith with a short hammer-like left in the third. The Cincinnati, Ohio, batter—who had welterweight aspirations—was sunk 8-0 for an eight count.

LONG SEASON FOR SHORTY
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Basketball referee Shorty Long quit telling his wife he'd be home early after his third double overtime chore to four high school games.

Duke University passed up the ICA track championship meet because on the previous night the team competed in the Atlantic Coast Conference indoor championships.

Veteran National League umpire Eddie Ponder has not missed an arbitrating assignment since he joined the league in 1933. During this time he has worked more than 3,200 games without a miss.

Veteran National League umpire Eddie Ponder has not missed an arbitrating assignment since he joined the league in 1933. During this time he has worked more than 3,200 games without a miss.

Veteran National League umpire Eddie Ponder has not missed an arbitrating assignment since he joined the league in 1933. During this time he has worked more than 3,200 games without a miss.

Date Shift Made In JC Cage Action

The dates of Regional 4 Junior College Basketball Tournament, originally scheduled for this weekend at Cedar City, Utah have been changed. Wally Palmberg, Oregon Technical Institute basketball coach announced. The two-day tourney has been moved from March 9-10 to March 12-13.

Oregon Tech, along with three other junior college teams in this region, will fly to a trip to the National Junior College Tournament the week of March 18-24 at Hutchinson, Kansas. The other three teams in the tourney are Boise, College of Southern Utah (Cedar City) and Dixie, a recent replacement for Weber J. C. which pulled out of the elimination playoffs.

This will be the first such tournament an Oregon Tech athletic squad has entered, and the Owls have been classed as the tournament "dark horse," with Boise tabbed as the team to beat.

The pairings for the Cedar City play find Boise meeting Dixie in the first game Monday night, while Oregon Tech plays College of Southern Utah, the host team, in the second game Monday. On Tuesday the two losers meet for consolation honors, while the two Monday winners clash for the right to enter into the national tournament.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Palmberg said the reason the tournament had to be changed is the fact the dates conflicted with a high school basketball tournament only 30 miles from Cedar City, and tournament officials were afraid that the attendance of both would be hurt.

Stengel 'Afraid' Of Hose

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Stengel, who is mighty high on his own New York Yankees, admitted today that he was "afraid" of the Boston Red Sox, Chicago or Detroit out of it, but 1 gotta be honest and tell you that Boston has me scared," said Stengel, who is trying for his seventh American League pennant in eight years.

But then he winked in that sly way of his and added, quickly: "That Red Sox infield is a question mark though, defensively."

It was the only thing, he indicated, which he thought might keep "Miss Higgins" club from taking it all this coming season.

GOOD OUTFIELD
"Look at that outfield," he exclaimed. "That guy (Ted) Williams, is going to be with them all season. There are also other two fellows (Jackie) Jensen and (Jim) Peersall. Who's got a better outfield in the league?"

Before his interviewer had a chance to answer the question, he replied to it himself: "Nobody!"

"And their pitching could be great," he added. "They have a lot of young kids who can throw bullets. And maybe while the infield is not too good defensively, it will hit and that guy they got from the Senators, (Mickey) Vernon ain't going to hurt Red Sox."

Neither that pitcher, (Bob) Porterfield.

"They are going to be tough, all right."

He said he wasn't "counting Cleveland out of it."

"You can't win that pitching."

OLD GUY
"And that great old guy, (Bucky) Harris, isn't out of it with that Detroit club either. Maybe he needs a little more pitching, but he's got the best left side of the infield in the league and there ain't nothing wrong with his right and centerfielder."

"That left side of the infield is made up of Ray Boone at third and Harvey Kuenn at short while the outfielders he referred to are Al Kaline the American League's batting champion last season, and Bill Tuttle, who, Casey said, "can really go get 'em."

"Now don't discount those White Sox, either," he went on. "That guy, (Marty) Marion, did a hell of a job with that team last year. He's a real pitcher."

He did a fine job of managing so far as I'm concerned. He won the pennant for us because his team beat the Indians, something we couldn't do."

Gene, 23, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Perez at St. Nick's last July 25.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Gene, 23, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Perez at St. Nick's last July 25.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Basketball SCORES

COLLEGE BASKETBALL BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Monday's Results

FAR WEST
Clark J.C. 71, Olympic J.C. 74
Grays Harbor J.C. 85, Yakima J.C. 76
Colorado 67, Oklahoma 66

EAST
Duquesne 64, St. Bonaventure 56
Muhlenberg 64, Gettysburg 74
Clark 75, Lowell Tech 68
Elizabethtown (Pa.) 78, Susquehanna 72

SOUTH
Alabama 82, Florida 75
Florida State 60, Georgia 75

MIDWEST
Iowa 84, Indiana 72
Northwestern 81, Illinois 82
Minnesota 95, Ohio State 89
Michigan State 76, Michigan 75
Missouri 88, Nebraska 80

SOUTHWEST
St. Louis 63, Arkansas 66

NAIA TOURNAMENTS
(District 3 Semi-final)
Portland U. 92, Linfield 62
Portland State 93, Pacific U. 72
(District 5 First Round)
Ricks (Idaho) 91, Western Montana 76

District 10
Montana State 104, Carroll (Mont.) College 68

District 10
Pittsburgh (Kan.) 75, Belhel (Kan.) 67
(Pittsburgh leads final best-of-3 series 1-0)

District 17 Semi-finals
Southern State (Ark.) 92, Arkansas State 69
Arkansas Tech 74, Arkansas A&M 67

District 18
McNeese 74, Centenary 64
(McNeese wins final best-of-3 series 2-0)

District 23
Kalamazoo 65, Detroit Tech 60
(final)

District 26 First Round
Elon 81, Erskine 69
Presbyterian 108, East Carolina 84
State 69

District 27 Final
East Tennessee 80, David Lipscomb 67

OREGON PREP
District 2-1 playoff
Milwaukee 47, Astoria 43
(Milwaukee meets Gresham for state playoff spots)

District 1-A-2 playoff
Winners meet for state playoff spot.
St. Helens 46, Tillamook 45
Scappoose 51, Seaside 49

Gene Poirier Kayoes Perez

NEW YORK (AP)—Welterweight Gene Poirier of Niagara Falls, N.Y., said today his improved left hook had enabled him to stop Danny Jo Perez of New York on bloody face cuts in the eighth round of their return TV fight at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night.

Poirier, who weighed 151 pounds to Danny Jo's 148 1/2, said, "I used to concentrate so much on my right left hook since I fought Perez before."

Gene, 23, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Perez at St. Nick's last July 25.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Poirier, favored at 11-5, suffered a nick on his right brow and a three-stitch cut on his left brow while giving Perez such a licking he was almost out on his feet at the close of the eighth round. Left hooks to the head and right smashes to the body were Gene's most effective weapons. Two right uppercuts near the end of the eighth almost dropped Danny Jo.

Dons Rule Hoop Poll; NCS Second

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The San Francisco Dons easily retained the top ranking in the Associated Press poll this week.

Should they retain their No. 1 ranking in the final poll of the season next week, they will have been voted the top team in the nation for 19 straight weeks by the country's sports writers and broadcasters. They've been on top 14 times this season, plus five times last year.

Along with that a victory over St. Mary's tonight would give them an undefeated regular season with 25 straight victories and an all-time major college record of 51 straight.

While San Francisco cornered the votes with 1,162 out of a possible 1,311 points, North Carolina State surprised by vaulting from fifth to second place, Illinois plopped from the runner-up spot all the way to seventh.

Other changes saw Vanderbilt and North Carolina drop out of the top 10 while Kentucky (No. 9) joined the select group for the first time this season. Dayton

(No. 3), Alabama, the Southeastern Conference champion (No. 4), and Louisville (No. 6) retained the same spots they held last week. The Big Ten leader Iowa jumped from 10th to fifth and Southern Methodist, Southwest Conference champion, from ninth to eighth to round out the top 10.

The leaders, with first-place votes in parentheses: 1. San Francisco (73) — 1,162

2. N.C. State (31) — 738
3. Dayton (1) — 743
4. Alabama (24) — 720
5. Iowa (7) — 717
6. Louisville (6) — 553
7. Illinois — 427
8. SMU (2) — 319
9. Kentucky (2) — 228
10. UCLA — 191

The Second 10:
11. Vanderbilt — 168
12. Holy Cross (3) — 137
13. Temple — 123
14. West Virginia (1) — 125
15. North Carolina — 103
16. Oklahoma City (2) — 103
17. Houston — 71
18. Wake Forest — 51
19. Duke — 49
20. Utah (1) — 43

Herald and News Sports

CLAYTON HANNON
SPORTS EDITOR

Double Main Set For Friday Evening Fight

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (AP)—They say of Rory Calhoun, the young tiger of the middleweights, that "he can kill you with his right hand and put you in the hospital with his left."

That is, naturally, quite a build-up for a young fellow who has had only 18 professional bouts. But half of those bouts, all on Calhoun