GREETING THE NEW AIR BASE COMMANDER Monday was Klamath Falls Mayor Paul Landry, right. The new commander, Colonel Samuel C. Grashio, will take command of the U. S. Air Force detachment at the Klamath Falls Municipal Airport effective April 4. He is currently assigned to Paine Field, Everett, Washington and was in Klamath Falls seeking housing for his wife and five children.

Adlai, Estes Score Ike Policies

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) said last night President Eisenhower isn't giving enough time to his duties, and Adlai E. Stevenson questioned whether Eisenhower would if he is re-elected.

The two active candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination, competing for the 30 votes Minnesota will send to the party's August convention, also rapped administration farm programs.

Stevenson winds up his five-day barnstorming tour of the state and flies to Chicago today.

Kefauver has conceded a margin to Stevenson in the March 20 primary. Stevenson has the endorsement of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor State Committee and has such figures as Sen. Hubert Humphrey and Gov. Orville Freeman on his delegate slate.

BALKED

Kefauver was balked by snow and sleet from delivering a scheduled talk at Winona last night. The storm grounded his plane and icing highways prevented him from keeping the date by car.

In the talk he had prepared, Kefauver called agriculture a "blind spot" of the Eisenhower administration. He said Secretary of Agriculture Benson has been "butt-headed and inflexible" and thus far has had Eisenhower's backing.

Speaking at Fosston, Stevenson said the soil bank plan the administration is supporting, together with flexible price supports, wouldn't work unless fair prices are set for products farmers raise on their remaining acres.

"The matter of improving farm prices is the basic thing we need to attack in this session of Congress," he said. "Over the past three years we have seen flexible supports, in combination with other Republican policies and administration, cause production to increase and surpluses to grow.

Earlier, at Thief River Falls, Stevenson repeated that the manner in which Eisenhower proposes to conduct the office — not his personal health — is a definite campaign issue.

ISSUE RAISED

"Apparently we are being asked to reduce the stature of this office just as the nation's responsibilities and difficulties increase," he said. "Mr. Eisenhower raised the issue when he told the American people that if he is re-elected the office of president will have to be conducted in the future as it has been in the period of his convalescence."

Kefauver said he would not make Eisenhower's health or physical condition a campaign issue.

"But I will criticize his failures to reach decisions and his failure to give suficient time to the office," Kefauver said. "I take his statement in good faith that he is physically able to campaign and to serve if elected."

POLITICO SENTENCED

SAO PAULO, Brazil, (AP)—Adhemar de Barros, 54, who ran third in Brazil's 1955 presidential election, was convicted Tuesday of misapplying funds while governor of Sao Paulo State and was sentenced to two years in prison. He was accused specifically of giving friends and relatives automobiles he bought with state money.

KLAMATH COUNTY high school and elementary school students who have studied wildlife conservation all year submitted essays and posters in competition for awards. Judging has been completed by James O'Donohue, Kenneth McLeod and Keith Cobo. Two of the all county winners, both fifth graders at Altamont grade school, are shown above with their work. Right foreground is Rodger Seeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Arnett, 1862 Arthur Street who painted the poster he is displaying. Left is Don Hummell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Hummell, 3857 Boardman Street. Don wrote the winning essay in his age and class group.

Wildlife Conservation Awards Given Students

Students of Klamath County high and elementary schools from the fifth grade through the 12th grade entered essays and posters in this year's county wide competition on wildlife conservation.

Preparation for the competition included field trips, classroom study and general observation. Students in other years have studied conservation of forests, soil, water and irreplaceable resource materials.

Purpose of this year's study program was to promote appreciation of the esthetic and economic value of wildlife and to gain an understanding of wildlife propagation and management.

All county first place essay awards in the fifth and sixth grades went to Don Hummell, Altamont; seventh and eighth grades, Donovan Hitt, Gilchrist; ninth and 10th grades, Doris Bredeen, Merrill; 11th grade, Anabell Jones, Gilchrist, and 12th grade to David O'Donahue, Henley.

In the poster contest Rodger Seely, Altamont took first place for the fifth and sixth grades; Wanda Hight, Gilchrist for grades 7-8 and Eleanor Hutchinson, Bly for the 9-12 grades.

First place awards for posters by schools follow: grades 5-6, Susan Tubach, Henley; Alex Sipiens, Bonanza; Patty Burleigh, Merrill; Cheryl Drake, Fairhaven; Rodger Seely, Altamont. Grades 7-8, Eunice Anderson, Henley; Wanda Hight, Gilchrist; Jean Quinn, Malin; Janice Schatz, Fairhaven; Roxanne Schmitz, Altamont. Grades 9-12 Eleanor Hutchinson, Bly; Roxanne Wilson, Marcia Prescott, Malin.

First places for essays by grades went to: 5-6, Gloria Magalanes, Keno, Eunice Hunt, Bonanza; Mary Andrieu, Merrill; Cherry Wolff, Chiloquin and Don Hummell, Altamont.

In grades 7-8 awards went to Joe DeGrande, Keno; Donovan Hitt, Gilchrist; Conrad Johnson, Malin; Myrna Leitzke, Fairhaven; Jane Woodward, grade 7, Altamont and Jerrylin Olson, grade 8, Altamont. First places, grades 9-10 went to Janice Marshall, Henley; Sue Graig, Gilchrist; Doris Bredeen, Merrill; Carole LeBeau, Chiloquin.

Grade 11, Wally Gober Henley; Anabel Jones, Gilchrist; Len Dobry, Malin; Larry Robin, Bly. Grade 12, Davis O'Donahue, Henley; Tom Larson, Gilchrist; Richard Micka, Malin and Lila Kensler, Chiloquin.

Essays were judged by Jim O'Donahue, Ken McLeod and Keith Cobo; posters by the commercial art department, OTI, taught by James Floyd.

March 18-24 is national Wildlife Week.

GOP Farm Policy Said 'Failure'

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) last night charged the Republicans have been an "absolute failure" in handling the nation's farm problem.

Sparkman, the 1954 Democratic vice presidential nominee, told about 500 Democrats of the Washington County area the Republicans "cannot escape the fact" that in 1952 the farmer was getting 100 per cent parity and in 1956 80 per cent.

The Alabama political leader cited the farm question as his party's best issue against the GOP. And, he told the crowd, "we have got real issues."
