

"PINK CASTLE DREAMS," was the original and utterly charming theme carried out by the sponsors and members of Theta Theta Rho Girls Club No. 8 when they danced on March 2 to the music of the Starlighters at Reames Golf and Country Club. The dance floor was a castle with a palm and flower encircled pool beneath the balcony. Lighted water lily and camellia candles in shades of pink and white floated on the surface of the pool. Miniature castles decorated the walls. Patrons and patronesses for the Spring formal were seated, left to right, Mrs. A. L. Nyback, mother of Sandra Nyback, president of the hostess club, Mrs. Robert Lantz, Mrs. N. S. Hepburn, Mrs. Frank McCornack, Mrs. George Blanos, worthy adviser of the club, Mrs. Roe Rickman and Mrs. Harold O. Horn. Standing, same order are, A. L. Nyback, father of President Sandra, Robert Lantz, N. S. Hepburn, Frank McCornack, George Blanos, Charles Leib, Roe Rickman and Harold Horn. Mr. and Mrs. George Blanos sponsored use of Reames and Mr. and Mrs. Nyback were responsible for the flowers for the event. — Photo by Paul Williams

PRETTIEST FORMALS were worn by new initiates of Bethel No. 6, Job's Daughters for the official visit of Mrs. Velma Green, grand guardian of International Order of Job's Daughters for the state of Oregon who was here for the February 29 initiatory meeting. Mrs. Green's home is in Portland. The meeting was held in the Masonic Temple. Front row, left to right, are Mrs. Green, grand guardian, Christine Wright, Kathleen Ball, Penny Raught, Susan Moss and Dianne Wagner. Back row, same order are, Ruth McKinnie, Jane Ann Craig, Pamela LaGrande, Kay Rutledge, Lois Snead and Dorothy Lellison.

HER EASTER BONNET may look like an inverted washtub, an upside down salad bowl or the lid to the hat box to the male segment, but to her it is spring's dream; with flowers, fruit and frill. Shown modeling a costume from Miller's which will be included in the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority luncheon and style show Saturday, March 17, is Nellie Nicol, right. With her are Doris Christian, left, style show chairman and Vivian Compton. The public is invited to the annual spring event, which will be staged in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. —Photo by Kettler

DR. GEORGE GULDAGER of Eugene, Potentate of Hillah Shrine, was on hand for the Shrine's crab feed held at the Klamath Falls Armory on March 3. He and Mrs. Guldager are pictured here talking over Shrine affairs with Charles Bane, right, president of the Klamath Falls Shrine Club. —Photo by Kettler

SOCIETY

SPRING ACCENTS in a profusion of floral arrangements backgrounded the annual silver benefit tea sponsored on February 29 by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, Klamath Falls. The tea, which benefits the Methodist Home for the Aged at Salem and the doll show, drew several hundred guests from all parts of the Klamath Basin. Pouring at the attractively appointed table was seated, Mrs. John Yaden, president of the WSCS. Others who assisted with the arrangements were, standing, left to right, Mrs. Everett Dennis, member of the state board of directors for the Methodist home, Mrs. Dallas McNeil, wife of the pastor of the church, Mrs. Marion Lehman and Mrs. Arthur Farr, co-chairmen of the tea committee. — Photo by Kettler

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT L. PLASS whose nuptial vows were exchanged in the Chapman Park Hotel, Los Angeles. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Plass, 827 Mitchell Street, this city. The new Mrs. Plass is the former Josephine Sterns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Sterns of Los Angeles. A reception in the hotel followed the candlelighted, double ring ceremony. Vernon Hunt, Klamath Falls was best man. Also going south for the ceremony were Roxann Plass, Mrs. Dale Cheyne, Portland, sisters of the bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Arent, Medford, close friends of the family. — Photo by Bob Forester

A WHITE STEEPLED CHURCH centered an arrangement of multi-colored flowers and maidenhair fern as the central motif for the tea table at the home of Mrs. Hugh T. Estes when Clara Shapard, bride elect, was honored at the attractive Estes home on February 25. Left to right around the tea table are: Mrs. Aletha Shannon, the hostess, Mrs. Estes, the honored guest, Clara Shapard and Mrs. Roberta Blomquist, co-hostesses with Mrs. Estes for the delightful affair. — Photo by Kettler

Clara Shapard, Bride Elect

Friends of Mrs. William K. Finn, who was Clara Shapard before her marriage Friday evening, offered best wishes at a pre-nuptial tea Saturday, February 25, at the home of Mrs. Hugh T. Estes, 2056 Lawrence Street. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Roberta Blomquist. Some 60 Klamath Union High School faculty members, faculty wives, secretaries and school personnel attended the 1 to 5 p.m. tea served in the gracious Estes home. Pouring during the afternoon was Mrs. Aletha Shannon, home mate for several years of the honoree; Mrs. Arnold Gralapp and Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mrs. E. Granas, Mrs. Harry Todd and Mrs. Lane Warren assisted guests. Refreshments of shrimp - filled popovers and open faced sandwiches appropriately cut and tea cakes were served from a large round tea table. Suspended from a chandelier above the table was a paper-mache wedding bell on which were perched two "bluebirds of happiness." Each bluebird held in its beak a white satin streamer which was tied to a small frosted cardboard church. Miniature bride and bridegroom figurines were outside the church and the arrangement was encircled with multi-colored flowers and greenery. The former Miss Shapard has taught home economics at Klamath Union High School for three years. Her husband is radio and television instructor at KUHS.