What you doin', Chip?

Lookin' at my shadow.

Is that all you've got to do?

I've just been watching how it follows me around, Scoots.

Everybody knows it's something you can't get rid of.

I think maybe I could.

I'll bet you a chocolate soda you can't.

I'll take you up on that!

There — I'm rid of it right now.

It's back again. That's not getting rid of it.

You didn't say for how long.

Okay! Now I'm rid of it for good.

You're crazy. It's mixed up in the shadow of the garage.

What's all the fuss about?

Scoots said he'd buy me a soda if I got rid of my shadow!

And I did it but now he won't pay off!

Come out here without your shadow and I'll buy you both one.
