Burned Forest Seeding Starts

LAKEVIEW—The Fremont National Forest Service Monday resumed its grass reseeding by airplane project on burned forest areas. Poor weather conditions last fall prevented completion of the project, stated Clifton Windle, in charge of range management on the Fremont.

When the entire reseeding job is finished, 5,150 acres of Fremont land will be reseeded and 2,500 acres on Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. Company land, with Weyerhaeuser paying for the seed and broadcasting on their land.

The present weather conditions are very favorable for flying, reported Windle on Monday. "The Lakeview airport runways are now free of snow, there's no wind and the air is heavy."

Forest service pilot Ed Scholz with Orville Looper as hopperspender, is flying a Nordyn plane in the Deming Creek area. At the Round Butte area, Wally Tower, pilot, and David Beale, hopperspender, are flying the other Nordyn, and will reseed on Fremont forest lands and also some Weyerhaeuser lands. From there they will go to the Summer Lake Rim fire area. About 40,000 pounds of seed.

The call that brought Betty good news. It was almost midnight. The newscasts had been reporting wet roads in the mountains. And Betty's husband still wasn't back from his trip. Then the phone rang. It was Pete! He had had motor trouble but would be home soon. Betty sighed in relief. She wouldn't have traded that call for anything. And haven't you had similar experiences... when phone calls brought you news equally welcome? Think of the engagements, weddings, and births in the family, the homecomings and reunions you've gotten word of by telephone. No matter what the hour, your phone is ready to keep you in touch with those you most want to hear from. Or to help you get things done faster and easier. Your telephone service never rests. Pacific Telephone.

If you decide at the last minute to call friends about an evening of bridge, your phone is right there on the job. When the unexpected happens at night—such as trouble with your TV set—your phone will quickly put you in touch with a repairman. You can rest assured, at bedtime, that your telephone is still awake. It's just as ready to serve you after dark as during daylight hours. The telephone men and women of Klamath Falls work to make your telephone more useful every day.
