SEVEN CLEVER COOKERS OF MALIN

Our regular meeting, which fell on February 29, was postponed until March 5, when we combined the two projects. We had planned to meet at the home of our assistant leader, Mrs. Gerald Quinn to bake our sponge cake, but she had been called to her mother's bedside, so we met at our leader's home. Before we had our business meeting, we were each assigned a part of the mixing of the sponge cake, and as soon as it was in the oven, we cut up the fruit each one had brought, mixed it together and put it in the refrigerator to chill. We talked about other ways to prepare and serve fruit. Then, while we waited for the cake to bake, our president, Martha Cantrall, called the meeting to order. We answered roll call with the name of a fruit.

All were present except Judy Baumgart. Mrs. Gray showed us how we will be dressed when we have our Sunday buffet supper, and we talked about a menu, also about other details of this exciting event. We are going to work on demonstrations next Monday for one hour, at our leader's home, March 12 from 1 to 2 p.m. We will not make this a business meeting. Everyone promised to get their work caught up during the spring vacation. Only a few are behind.

Our next business meeting will be at the Park Hall Sunday, April 8, where we will rehearse our special supper event. We thank Dorothy Baumgart for the fancy candy she made for us. Sue George News reporter

GRONCHI RETURNS HOME
ROME (AP) — President Giovanni Gronchi returned home Thursday, apparently deeply impressed by his visit to the United States and Canada. He was hailed for cementing Italy's relations with the West.
