Dance Benefits Polio Drive

SUMMER LAKE—Proceeds from the dance held by Grange No. 754 Saturday evening went to the March of Dimes drive fund. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Emery of Silver Lake called the squares and the event was well attended.

At the business meeting preceding the dance, Glenn Harvey reported on a special insurance policy for farmers.

There was discussion on the need for a sales tax in Oregon and reports were heard from committee chairmen.

H. C. Harris, Ronnie Markus, Bud Pernoll and Tim Guinee contributed to the birthday box, a yearly project of the grange.

Merrill BPW Hear Hawaiian Trip Told

MERRILL—The Business and Professional Women's Club met at Paul Lewis's home, March 7, at 8 p.m.

Kathleen Brickner presided. The scholarship committee was appointed. Eva Bowman gave a talk on her trip to the Hawaiian Islands. It was announced that BPW spring conference will be in Grants Pass in April.

Refreshments were served by Audrey Lewis.

AAUW Complete Organization Book

Klamath Falls American Association of University Women have completed a revision of a survey of all welfare and service organizations made and distributed in 1950. The revised edition will be distributed to key people in the community on March 24.

About 25 additions have been made to the original publication which lists the services of all known groups in the Klamath Falls area. The revision was completed at the request of various organizations who wished to be included in the publication.

The new document will be presented at an AAUW education program and luncheon at the Wine-ma Hotel.

Golden Jubilee Dance Planned

MERRILL—The men of St. Augustine's Church are planning a golden jubilee dance in honor of the feast of St. Patrick. The celebration is to be a double night affair, with dancing both nights.

Friday, March 16, will be the Irish and old time dance with set dances, schottisches, highland fling, and waltzes. The Falvey boys, Hugh and Bill will play. A piano accordion player from Lake County will also join in the festivities. Popular records of an Irish dance band will be played.

Saturday, March 17, there will be dancing from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. to the Starlighters. The celebration will be held both nights in the Merrill Community Hall. Supper and refreshments will be served by St. Augustine's Altar Society.

Co-chairmen for the affair are Thomas J. Lacey and Toby O'Keefe.
