A TRAGIC END to a short-lived honeymoon came in Klamath Falls for Max Franklin Allen, 22, and his wife, Mary Alice Allen, 17, who were arrested in Gilchrist for a Kansas City, Mo. kidnaping. They were snapped by Herald and News photographer Don Kettler just before they left for Portland in custody of a U.S. deputy marshal. They said they were married a few hours after the alleged abduction of a Kansas City dance hall operator.

Allens Sent To Portland

A newlywed couple arrested at Gilchrist by state police for an alleged kidnaping and robbery in Kansas City, Missouri, were transferred from Klamath County Jail Friday to Portland.

The suspects, Max Franklin Allen, 22, and his wife of less than a month, Mary Alice Allen, 17, were turned over to U.S. Deputy Marshal Frank Meyer.

Another man arrested with them by State Policeman William Hartwood, is still in jail here held for the FBI and Idaho authorities who want him for a holdup and slugging in Moscow, Idaho.

According to State Police Sgt. Bruce Lattin, Allen and Domicik admitted robbing and slugging a service station attendant in Moscow, Idaho.

"We never expected to spend our honeymoon in jail," Allen told County Jailor Fred Calfee and he was handcuffed to his wife before leaving for Portland. "This is a tough break."

The Allens were married in Kansas City, Kansas after they were alleged to have kidnaped and robbed a dance hall operator in Kansas City, Missouri. They have been charged in the United States District Court in Kansas City with violating the Lindbergh kidnap law.

Man, Grandson Hit By Auto

A 72-year-old man and his 8-year-old grandson were both in Klamath Valley Hospital this morning after they had been hit by an auto in a pedestrian lane Thursday morning, Klamath Falls police reported.

Hospital attendants said both were in good condition.

The injured were Ernest M. Bubbs, 72, 405 High Street, and David Payne, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Payne, 1707 Kane Street. Bubbs suffered cuts and bruises, and was X-rayed this morning for possible internal injuries. The boy suffered a fractured leg.

Police said they were struck shortly before noon Thursday at the intersection of Fifth and Pine streets. The driver of the auto, Mrs. Julia K. Zumwalt, 82, 433 North Second Street, is scheduled to appear Saturday in police court to answer to a charge of violation of a pedestrian's right of way.

Police said the skidmarks behind Mrs. Zumwalt's auto were 44 feet long.

County To Have Four Funds Delegates At Annual Meet

The Klamath County United Fund will be represented by at least four delegates at the annual meetings of the Oregon Chest and the Western Conference of United Community Funds and Councils to be held in Portland in April.

Walter "Bud" Franklin, president of the local fund board said following a meeting of the board Thursday night that delegates including himself and executive secretary Rex Dye plan to attend the meetings April 11-14.

Mrs. Earl Sheridan, immediate past president, was named Klamath County's representative on the Oregon Chest board which will meet April 10. The past president and executive secretary will be present for all four days of the meetings.

Franklin said the board hoped to establish a precedent in naming the outgoing president to the state chest board.

Speakers at the Western Conference of UCF and C will include Professor Russell Leedy of Ohio State University, and James A. Lines, publisher of Time magazine and president of the national council, most of the time will be devoted to workshops and panel discussions, Franklin stated.

The new president announced tentative appointment of an executive committee to include A. D. Addison, Harold A. Shiley, Bob Beach, Wilbur Kesterson, Bill Mills, Jack Otterbein, Arthur R. Kibbel, Mrs. Sheridan, L. Ernest Taylor, Jay Thompson and Wilbur Haskins. Taylor was also named to head the budget committee.

Executive Secretary Dye announced plans for the first of hoped-for monthly meetings of United Fund agency executives. The initial meeting is scheduled for Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. at the Winema Hotel.

Dye also reported on recent conferences with fund executives in Portland, Salem and Eugene. He described new systems and techniques in office management and procedures which will be initiated in the local fund office.

Possible Gate Suicide Told

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — Leo Christen, 30, San Francisco salesman and father of two children, was listed as a possible suicide from the Golden Gate Bridge today after his car was found in a bridge parking lot with a suicide note on the seat.

The note, addressed to his wife, said: "I'm sorry dear. I cannot go on any longer. I love all of you. Take care of the babies. Love, Chris."

The Highway Patrol said the car was first noticed in the parking lot Wednesday night. When it was still there yesterday, the patrol traced the registration to an Oakland bakery where Christen was employed.

Mrs. Christen said her husband had been missing since Monday night. She said he had been dependent upon financial affairs.
