

GOVERNOR AND MRS. ELMO E. SMITH were feted at a luncheon, dinner and hospitality hour during their visit to Klamath County last weekend. Some 100 persons gathered for a GOP luncheon in the Winema Hotel, Saturday which was followed by a hospitality hour in the hotel's Camas Room. Mrs. Josephine Kittredge, was hostess for the informal hour during which the governor was introduced to the guests by Robert A. Thompson, his chairman. Mrs. Laurence A. Brown was hospitality chairman for the function. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Paul Landry, wife of Klamath Falls' Mayor Landry,

Mrs. R. S. Loosley, of Chiloquin and Mrs. Fred Rueck, Bonanza. During his visit here, the governor was presented with an honorary membership in the Klamath Air Search and Rescue Unit by Robert L. Horton, president of KASRU in recognition of his interest in the furtherance of aviation. The governor also spoke at a dinner in the Henley Grange Hall during the evening. Seated at the luncheon table, left to right, are Mrs. Kittredge, GOP candidate for the Oregon Legislature, Governor Smith, and Mrs. Smith. Standing is Mayor Paul O. Landry also a Republican candidate for the state legislative post.

DON'T EVER BELIEVE IT! That one hundred teen-agers can't keep a secret! There was never a peep to give away the big dancing party at Reames Golf and Country Club planned by Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nersef of 2077 DelMoro to honor their only daughter Gail on her 18th birthday anniversary, March 7. An all-pink motif, pink carnations, pink decor about the rooms and a pink birthday cake carried out the Spring theme. Dancing was from 8 to 11 p.m. to music by four members of the Starlighters Band. Dr. and Mrs. Nersef were assisted in greeting the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Loney. Gail, is a senior in Klamath Union High School. Above — an "autograph pup" is presented to Gail, center, by Judy Piesser, far right. Casting wishful eyes on the Doberman Pinscher are, left to right, Margie Anderson, Gerrie Stiemer, Candy Conner, Charlene Stoecklein and Jimmie Arnold.

— Photo by Kettler

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT STARKEY, whose vows were exchanged in a candlelight ceremony in the Chiloquin Church, on March 4, will make their home in Redding, California. The bride, the former Nellie Guenther, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Guenther of Chiloquin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Starkey, Yreka, California.

— Photo by Ferebee

Guenther-Starkey Vows Exchanged In Chiloquin

CHILQUIN — Baskets of pink carnations and white snapdragons and lighted white tapers in candelabra were placed upon the altar of the Chiloquin Methodist Church on March 4 for the wedding of Nellie Guenther and Herbert Starkey. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Guenther of Chiloquin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Starkey, Yreka, California.

The seven o'clock, double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Edmund Stanton before many relatives and friends of the young couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white length frock of white nylon net and lace. Tiers of narrow net ruffles flared above the hemline. The lace bolero was made with tight sleeves, pointed at the wrists and tiny Peter-Pan collar. Her fingertip veil of illusion net fell from rhinestone centered net leaves that formed a tista. She carried a spray of pink carnations and white roses and an heirloom handkerchief loaned by a close friend, Mrs. George Lawless. Her pearl earrings had been worn by the bridegroom's grandmother.

James Guenther, sister of the bride, only attendant, wore a sleeveless dress in a light orchid shade. Rhinestones studded the bodice. She carried a nosegay of white, pink and lavender blossoms.

William J. Starkey, Yreka, was best man for his brother. Others were two brothers of the bride, Howard Guenther Jr., Seattle and Ronald Guenther, Chiloquin.

Preceding the ceremony, the candles were lighted by six-year-old Carl Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Jones, Fort Klamath. Mrs. John Manning sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Because." Mrs. Gerald Wolff, at the piano, Mrs. Wolff also played the traditional wedding marches.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Guenther wore a pale gray suit with white accessories and a gardania and rosebuds at the shoulder. Mrs. Starkey chose a lime green knit with white accessories and gardenias and roses.

Following the ceremony, guests were invited to a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Southeast Chiloquin.

Mrs. Charles Sellers, Seattle, aunt of the bride, cut the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped by a bride and groom. Mr. Starkey, father of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. George Lawless was at the coffee urn and Sharon Hecock was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Starkey wore a navy ensemble and the white roses from her wedding bouquet at her shoulder.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Starkey will make their home in Redding. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Justice, Yreka, Mr. and Mrs. George Lawless, Brewster, Washington; Mrs. Charles Sellers, Seattle and a number of friends from the Fort Klamath area.

SOCIETY

CO-CONSPIRATORS IN THE PLANS for getting an 18-year-old miss to her own birthday anniversary party without breathing even a whisper, were Donn Taucher, second from the left, Gloria Mahan, second from the right and Jerry Burke, right. A foursome, including the completely surprised honoree, Gail Nersef, center, had a dinner date before the big party at Reames. Far left is Mrs. Andrew Loney who with Mr. Loney and Gail's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Nersef say that the 100 young guests present had plenty of refreshments.

— Photo by Kettler

ENJOYING THE SUNSHINE and ocean breezes aboard the luxury liner SS LURLINE en route to Hawaii from San Francisco on March 5 are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Moore, Route 2, Box 502, Klamath Falls. They plan a return to Klamath Falls March 28. Moore is secretary of the Balsiger Motor Company.

— Matson Line Photo

WA-HAN-KA CAMP FIRE GIRLS, Blue Birds and their mothers of Merrill gathered on March 3 in the Merrill Recreation Hall for a Mother-Daughter Silver tea in recognition of Camp Fire Birthday month. Highlight of the afternoon program was a style review, "The Hat of Other Days." Pouring is Mrs. Naomi French, executive secretary of Camp Fire, Klamath Falls. Waiting to be served, left to right, are Kathy Shelton and her mother, Mrs. Maurice L. Shelton, Mrs. Charles Cunningham and her daughter, Myrene Cunningham, all of Merrill.

— Photo by Van

MERRILL CAMP FIRE GIRLS HOSTESSES AT SILVER TEA

MERRILL — More than 125 guests, members of Wa-Han-Ka Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and their mothers were present for the Mother-Daughter silver tea sponsored March 3 by the Wa-Han-Ka group.

A skit, "Johnny Appleseed and Patty Garden Seed," was presented by the Wa-Han-Ka girls followed by a seed project skit by Camp Fire, Klamath Falls. Mrs. George Milne, president of the Merrill Leader's Association and by Blue Birds; an accordion solo by Alice Abbott; a humorous reading by Sara West and a Mexican Hat Dance by Breda O'Keefe.

James Lisk sang the accompaniment to a style review, "The Hat of Other Days."

Pouring were Mrs. Naomi French, executive secretary of Camp Fire, Klamath Falls, Mrs. George Milne, president of the Merrill Leader's Association and Mrs. Robert R. Walker, vice president of the Merrill Leaders Association. Proceeds from the tea will be used to send seeds abroad.

The tea on Friday was followed with church observance on Sunday, March 4 when Camp Fire Girls, their guardians and sponsors sang in the choir of the Merrill Presbyterian Church. For a special number they sang, "A Hungry Man Is At My Door," with background music by Lillian Thomas, Blue Birds and their leaders attended in uniform.

This year's Camp Fire theme, "Plant Seeds-Reap Friendship," was used by the Rev. George Milne as his sermon topic.