

OFFICERS OF THE YMCA Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Clubs worked like beavers on plans for the third annual Shamrock Fantasy when elected officers of Klamath Union High School were invited to dance. Patrons and patronesses for the March 9 party were Mr. and Mrs. Estlin Kiger, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. William Cornell. Seated, front row from the left are

Estelline Kiger, president of Wenaschoe Chapter, Tri-Hi-Y; Peggy Sumner, Susan O'Hair, president of Triette Tri-Hi-Y; Judy Cullimore, president of Pelican Chapter, Tri-Hi-Y and Susan Sherrick. Standing are, same order, Tim O'Hara, Larry Worden, president of McKy-Hi-Y; Larry Robin, "Sockey" Hungegate and John Mitzel, officer, Modoc Hi-Y.

— Photo by Ellis

Zuleima Club At Tulalake

TULELAKE — Mrs. W. S. Edwards, Tulalake, is the new president of the Zuleima Club. Co-officers elected at the March 8 meeting held following a luncheon in the Sportsman's Hotel are Mrs. Elmer Kappen, Macdonel, vice president and Mrs. A. W. Hardman, Tulalake, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Carl C. Coulson Sr., hostess for the day with Mrs. Edwards, was the installing officer.

White carnation corsages were presented to the new officers. The attractive luncheon table was centered with arrangements of white stock, sprays of forsythia and fern. During the luncheon hour, Mrs. Carl Olney dedicated and sang, "Love Brings a Little Gift of Roses," for the new president.

During the business meeting that followed the luncheon Mrs. Edwards appointed her committee chairman as follows: Mrs. A. A. Rodenberger, sewing; Mrs. Carl Olney, sickness and distress; Mrs. A. G. Boyd, hostess; Mrs. Earl Ager, publicity; Mrs. Betty Kelly, calling; Mrs. Gilbert Osborne, Thanksgiving boxes.

Mrs. C. C. Spears, Christmas boxes; Mrs. Lloyd Barber, membership; Mrs. Ben Wilson, program; Mrs. C. C. Coulson, gift table.

Mrs. Coulson, retiring president was presented with a china cup and saucer and a hostess apron bearing the embroidered names of the members of the club.

DOING THE "ROCK 'N ROLL WALTZ" at the third annual YMCA's Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Shamrock Fantasy at Reames Golf and Country Club which honored the elected officers of Klamath Union High School on Friday, March 9. More than 80 guests tripped to the music of Pete Colley's five piece band. There was plenty of Irish blarney whispered in shell pin ears against a background of Shamrocks, Killarney pipes and stovepipe hats.

— Photo by Ellis

Malin OES Meet

MALIN—Prosperity Chapter No. 160, OES held a stated meeting in the Malin Masonic Hall on March 8 with Laura Zabeck, worthy matron, presiding.

Eva Bowman told of her visit to an Eastern Star chapter in Honolulu during a recent trip to Hawaii. Plans were made to postpone the Social Club meeting until March 29 at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Hall. All Masons are also invited to this meeting at which a film on the Masonic Forest Grove Home will be shown. Hostesses for the event will be Madeline Dupuy, Lois Street, Leah Street and Eva Bowman.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Anne Fruits, Edna Hunnicutt, and Mary Haskins.

BIRTHDAY

Eight-year-old Sharon Phillips who had a Leap Year birthday anniversary, her second, on February 29 was honored with a gathering of small friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips, 4828 Johns Avenue.

Games were played and refreshments were served to Ronnie Blotzky, Lonnie Blotzky, Margie Flowers, Nancy Christensen, Janet Dodd, Willard Dodd, Bonnie Gilder, Bert Paugh, Sherry Lee May, Judy May, Larry Hilyard, Gary Hedlund, Charles Phillips, brother of the honored guest. Also invited but unable to attend were Marilyn Danley and Dixie Ager.

We're Swingin Into

SPRING

... With A Beautiful Assortment Of Unusual Frames

Imports from all over the world. An exciting variety of unusual and beautiful frames. Not just on display ... but frames available to you. Frames to harmonize with your costume and mood. See this beautiful assortment now!

WIN A Pair of Genuine Calobar Sun Glasses.

Here's All You Do Nothing to buy! Just stop in anytime, between now and March 30th, and guess the number of artificial eyes on display in our window. Winner to receive (choice of man's or ladies') pair of genuine Calobar Sun Glasses. $15.00 value.

Pleasant, Courteous Credit, Always

Dr. Noles
optometrist

COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.

730 MAIN ST. Phone 7121

*Dr. Omar J. Noles and Don B. Haster, Sr.

ALL PEPPED UP AND READY TO GO was this octet at the YMCA Shamrock Fantasy at Reames. The dance honored officers of Klamath Union High School. A few of them were cornered by the camera man. Perched for the birdie are, left to right, Bill Steiner, Kaye Kidwell, Joe Linman, president of the Tri-Hi-Y Council, Nelda Snook, Richard Seideman, second vice president, KUHS student body; Judy Hadley, secretary-treasurer of the high school junior class; Gary Kranenburg, president of the freshman class and Penny Lee, Terry Hannon, not pictured, who arrived late, is student body president.

— Photo by Ellis

Alpha Chapter Has Meeting

Members of Alpha Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, meeting March 1 in the Pelican party room for luncheon heard Mable Humble speak on the constitution of the organization and the founders. There are over 800 members of Delta Kappa Gamma in the state of Oregon.

Rose O'Leary and Geraldine Owsley spoke on their travels through the Midwest during the past summer.

Vice President Elda Fletcher presided at the meeting in the absence of President Beulah Elliott who was in Portland for an educational meeting.

Beth Rooper, member of the group who announced her engagement was presented with a corsage.

Ether Deller and Isabelle Jackson were initiated into membership by Mary Whiting and her committee.

Hostesses for the affair were Ann Rife, Emmorine Kappan and Marjorie Roche.

First Methodist Church Scene of Pretty Wedding

LAKEVIEW — Before a background of pink and white stock bouquets placed by the altar at the First Methodist Church, Bonnie Jean Langlet became the bride of Vernon C. Barr on March 7 to 8 p.m. The Rev. Claude A. Brown officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Langlet, was given in marriage by her father. Her waltz length dress was of nylon net over white satin and had tight-fitting long sleeves. Her shoulder-length net veil was held by a nylon wreath. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Lorna E. O'Sullivan of Lakeview, who wore a blue lace gown, waltz-length, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and red rose buds.

The bridegroom, who is the son of John W. Barr of Adel, had Homer McClain, Adel, as his best man and ushers were John Counis, of Lakeview and Merrill Sweeney, of Fort Bidwell.

Organist for the ceremony was

Mrs. William Sullivan who also accompanied Will Hilgert, soloist.

A reception followed in the banquet room of the Methodist Church. Mrs. Glenn Sturdevant cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Warren Laird and Mrs. Charles Langlet assisted at the feastable. In charge of the gifts were Lavonne Kratz and Mrs. Elmer Jarrett and Judy Laird was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Dave DuBose and Mrs. George Kratz assisted as hostesses.

When the young couple left for their wedding trip the bride wore a light green suit and her wedding orchid. They will live in Adel where Barr is employed at the MC Ranch.

Weed Marriage

WEED—Marriage vows were exchanged Monday, March 5, by Linda Arleen Bosworth, 18, and Larry Derrill Etchison, 18, of Gazette, with Judge Kenneth Stone officiating in ceremonies in the court room.

Parents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bosworth and Mr. and Mrs. Derrill Etchison, attended the ceremonies.

LIPSTICKS GO GORGEOUS

Mrs. Lewis Hamblin brought materials to be-jewel lipstick cases, her project for the Tri Tm meeting, March 14. Each member received a new lipstick to design with sequins and bugle beads. The gathering was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Baldwin.

Parewells were said to Mrs. Paul Stewart who will move soon to San Francisco. Mrs. William Long was presented with a gift certificate for her new son.

Next month's meeting will be led by Mrs. Owen Robbins at the home of Mrs. William Sari.

Those attending were Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu, Mrs. Sam Ramsey, Mrs. Kenneth Schneider, Mrs. Vern Hough, Mrs. Richard Finnell, Mrs. James Rodgers, Mrs. Glenn Kirchner, Mrs. Leslie Carr, Mrs. Sari, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Hamblin, Mrs. Long and Mrs. Baldwin. Mrs. Emma Baldwin was a guest during the evening.

Unable to attend were Mrs. Pat Ryan, Mrs. George Cunha, and Mrs. Robbins.

SPECIAL! $25⁹⁵ "Swing to Spring" TOPPERS IN PASTEL WOOL

$19⁹⁵

These cleverly-styled little toppers will turn your spring suit or dresses into an important costume. They have intriguing high-fashion airs, precise tailoring and daylong versatility. Come in and see how the soft new color-scope will perk your wardrobe.

Left: Hip-tab topper in red, grey, pink or gold wool hopsacking.

Right: Back-interest topper in navy, gold, scarlet red or white wool suede.

La Pointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE