

RAMBLINGS

The suzerain of the society desk—our own Milly Ramsby—is temporarily out of circulation while she recuperates following surgery at Klamath Valley Hospital. Milly is home now, ensconced in a caliginous room, banked with fragrant flowers and sweet smelling colognes, feeling not quite as peppy as she pretends, we'll wager... a speedy recovery, Milly!

Outside, remnants of snow still shield the earth from the first rays of a spring sun, but spring is most certainly here! It's that psychological time of the year when the little plot of ground is eyed for a potential profusion of plants, for summertime salads and beautiful bouquets; when more than a thought is given to seasonal cleaning; when Pacific Coast fishermen double and triple their orders for crab... especially in view of its popularity in Klamath Falls.

It's time for m'lady's Easter bonnet, too, and time for spring showings at style reviews being staged intermittently through the season.

It's also a season of politics, and important people in Klamath Falls recently included Governor and Mrs. Elmo Smith, who were introduced to friends at a reception Saturday afternoon, March 10, at the Winema Hotel. The chief executive made a formal address at the Henley Grange Hall that night.

The lure of winter wonderlands has not dimmed the wanderlust of people like Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Sproat of Klamath Falls, who are again enjoying Sun Valley's naturally glorious ski facilities.

Here at home, we're watching the proverbial political pot reach boiling point, enjoying the sun (!) and waiting for M.R.'s return.

Rebekahs Meet

LAKEVIEW — At the March 8 meeting of the Rebekah Lodge No. 22 at the IOOF Hall, Mrs. Dorothy Brown, noble grand, announced that Mrs. Juanita Tatro had been elected to receive the declaration of chivalry degree at the Rebekah state assembly in Tillamook in May.

During the business meeting, plans were completed for the annual amorgasbord on March 31 at St. Patrick's Parish Hall. Tickets may be purchased after March 17 from Mrs. Bell Gordon or any Rebekah member.

Mrs. Josephine Elliott, entertainment chairman, presented a skit, "The Honeymoon Trip" with Mrs. Marie Sandberg, Mrs. Dorothy Brown, Mrs. Mae Richards and Mrs. Margaret Newcombe in the cast. A vocal solo was given by Layne Clifton, accompanied by Mrs. Vera Zeverly.

A visitor at the meeting was Mrs. Rhoda Anderson, formerly of Sunset Rebekah No. 29 at Prairie City, who now lives at Lakeview.

A WEDDING ANNIVERSARY, the return of a son from overseas and a birthday observance brought the family of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Robertson to the family rooftop and a gala celebration at the Winema Hotel on March 1. This was the date 27 years ago that Mr. and Mrs. Robertson who live at 3508 Granite Street were married in Deer Park, Washington. They came to Klamath Falls from Spokane, in 1934 to make their home. The family celebrated the triple events with dinner at the Winema. Spring blossoms centered the attractive dinner table. The family, left to right, includes James Doherty, Klamath Falls, a Robertson son-in-law holding his son, six-months old Michael, Mrs. James Doherty, their daughter; Gene Robertson, a son, Hardman Frain, a son-in-law, member of a pioneer Klamath County family, recently returned from service in Augsburg, Germany with the Fifth Infantry, U. S. Army; Mrs. Frain, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, who returned with her husband from overseas; Mr. and Mrs. Robertson; Mrs. Eddie Murray, another daughter and Mr. Murray of Grants Pass. The winsome misses on the coffee table are blonde and blue-eyed Connie Lee Murray, four years old, left, and sister Carrie Rae, who has brown eyes and brown curls.

Pyle-Gustin Wedding Rites

An informal wedding in the First Christian Church of Hermiston, Oregon, on March 3, united a former Klamath Falls girl, Nora Gustin and Paul J. Pyle, Bremerton, Washington in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Gustin of Hermiston and the late Robert T. Gustin, who lived in this city until 1954.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Charlotte Pyle, of La Grande, Oregon.

The 8:30 o'clock service was read by the Rev. Robert Richter in the presence of immediate members of the two families.

The bride, attended by her mother wore an oxford grey sateen suit with ice blue accessories.

Harry L. Mott, of Hermiston, was best man.

The new Mrs. Pyle, a junior in the Hermiston High School, will continue her school at Bremerton. Her grandmother, Mrs. Erma Gustin is a resident of the Chelsea Addition in this city.

The young couple will make their home in Bremerton where the bridegroom is stationed at the Bremerton Naval Station.

Official Visit

DUNSMUIR — Mildred Wilmarth of Weed, district deputy president of District No. 69, Rebekah Assembly of California, made her official visit to Oriole Rebekah Lodge, No. 217, Friday night, March 9, at the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple.

Mildred La Barre, noble grand, presided at the meeting and asked Neva Kirk, of Weed, deputy marshal, to escort the honored officer into the lodge room for introduction. Mrs. Wilmarth was then given a seat of honor at the right of the noble grand.

All officers of Oriole Lodge were present.

The deputy president gave instructions to the officers and thanked the lodge for the courages presented to her and her marshal.

It was announced that a good fellowship meeting would be held on Saturday evening in Yreka.

Mrs. Wilmarth was then escorted to the altar where a money tree with dollar bills and shamrock leaves on purple ribbons was presented. Purple is her color for the year.

Members of the Odd Fellows joined the women for the serving of refreshments. Shamrock place settings with pixies and green, white and lavender candles provided the decor.

Jewelry Color Use Reported

Use of color is an important highlight of spring jewelry, the Jewelry Industry Council reports.

Beads of blue, rose or aqua are strung into multiple-strand necklaces designed for a wide or V neckline. For a brighter theme there are necklaces in coral, deep turquoise and royal blue — often teamed with matching earrings and bracelets.

Some beads are opalescent, flecked with gold or bright color, while others are clear and sparkling.

ling, in sapphire, emerald and ruby colors, linked with gold metal.

Cable white combines with gold metal for a new and interesting treatment of white jewelry. Included are large earrings, bases of necklaces, cuff and ring cuff bracelets with flower motifs.

White beads in unusual shapes—such as triangles—are framed in gold wire to dangle from a necklace of uniform-size beads.

For late afternoon and evening wear, rhinestones in golden settings continue as favorites.

Can't get used to those big hats? Try wearing them back a little if you don't like them shadowing your face. But back doesn't mean like a halo.

Sweetheart Ball Was Big Success

BONANZA—The new gym was beautifully decorated with three dimensional hearts of silver foil and a huge white heart outlined in red for the annual Sweetheart Ball sponsored by the Bonanza Parents and Patrons Club the evening of March 3.

Dancing started at 9 p.m. to music by Morgan and McDonald's orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hartley were general chairmen of the event. Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Burg and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jones were in charge of supper.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of Anita Vaden as queen and John (Skipper) Welmer as her king. Dick Solin placed the crowns on the heads of the youthful monarchs. Boxes of candy were presented as gifts from the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Noble won the evening's prize which was an electric blanket.

OTI FACULTY WIVES CLUB

The March meeting of the OTI Faculty Wives Club was held in the student union lounge on Tuesday evening, March 13. President Wanda Bailey presided at the business meeting.

Secretary Shirley Douglas read the minutes of the January and February meetings and the current treasury report. A vote of thanks was given to all who made the recent rummage sale a success.

The lounge was gayly decorated with shamrocks and a top-hat filled with fresh daffodils centered the refreshment table.

Following the dessert course served by hostesses Rae Eckerich, Ann Poch, Alben Johnston and Ruth DeWitt, the members enjoyed an hour of games. Mrs. Vera Ralston won the special prize, a potted English ivy plant.

The next meeting will be held on April 10.

Silver Lake Party Honors Newlyweds

SILVER LAKE — A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Verle Emery was held Saturday evening, March 3, by Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Long and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Emery, parents of the newlyweds. Guests were received at the Long home and dancing at the school gymnasium followed.

During the evening the bride presented her father-in-law with a cake in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Lorena May Long and Verle Emery were married February 21 in Reno and traveled to San Francisco for their honeymoon, returning on the Coast highway. They are now at home in Silver Lake where Emery is a timber faller for the Darst Logging Company. Before her marriage, Mrs. Emery was employed at the Klamath Falls branch of the First National Bank of Portland. Both young people were graduated from Lakeview High School.
