

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH HARRIS of Cedarville were honored by 20 friends and relatives at the Golden Hotel banquet room in Cedarville Sunday evening to observe the couple's 65th wedding anniversary. The 86-year-old pair were married in 1891 in London, England, and left for the United States two weeks later. They have lived in Surprise Valley ever since. They have six living children, 21 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. — Photos by Chas. Goulden

Church Group Holds Meeting

PORT KLAMATH—Mrs. William Zumbrun entertained members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Port Klamath Community Methodist Church Thursday afternoon, March 8, for the regular monthly meeting.

Election of officers was held for the ensuing year, with the following being reelected: president, Mrs. William Zumbrun; secretary, Mrs. Bert Gray; treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson.

The business session was conducted by the president and was followed by the usual book study hour. Mrs. Richard H. Wilson reviewed a chapter from the current book subject, "Revolutionary Faith."

Refreshments served by the hostess brought the afternoon to a close.

The February meeting was held Thursday afternoon, February 9, with Mrs. Rollo Moore hostess to members at her Klamath Agency home. The April meeting will be on April 12 when Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson will entertain at her home in Port Klamath.

In attendance at the March meeting were Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. William Zumbrun, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Raymond S. Looney, Mrs. Myrtle Denton, all of Port Klamath; Mrs. Forrest Dilling, Mrs. W. J. (Barney) Cox, Agency Lake district; Mrs. Ben Foster, Mrs. Rollo Moore, Klamath Agency; and Mrs. Edmund Stanton, Chiloquin.

Ladies Aid Hosts Luncheon

DUNSMUIR—Spring flowers decorated candle-lit tables at the luncheon for Sunday School teachers given by the Lutheran Ladies Aid at the Lutheran Recreation Hall last week. Mothers of the Sunday School pupils were also guests at the party.

The honored Sunday School teachers were Mrs. Ollie Schabacker, Mrs. Gretchen Knack, Mrs. Jackie Taylor, Mrs. Alice Griffin, Mrs. Edmo Loney, Mrs. Dorothy Conwill and Mrs. Elaine Loney. Mrs. Nellie King and Mrs. Beth Jones were co-hostesses.

A tribute was sung to the honorees and following introductions, each teacher was given a corsage by Mrs. King. Mrs. Jones presented each with a silver bookmark and gave a short reminiscence talk.

The Rev. Martin Schabacker told of the work of Sunday School teachers and expressed appreciation for their services.

At the luncheon's close, Mrs. Schabacker played the newly acquired Hammond organ. As a farewell, Mrs. Beth Blumberg sang "My the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Aloha Chapter Meets Feb. 28

A stated meeting of Aloha Chapter No. 61 OES was held at the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, February 28, with Martha Powell, Beverly Luper, and Harold Rush, worthy patron presiding.

Silhouettes of George Washington and a miniature cherry tree decorated with ripe cherries and a hatched were arranged about the chapter room. Gwendolyn Pierson, associate conductress designed and arranged the decorations.

Rhoda Harnden, Claris Williams and Exene Humble greeted the guests upon arrival.

First time visitors introduced and welcomed were Helen and Robert Simpson, Gwendolyn Pierson, and a representative from the Kluks chapter, Gwendolyn Pierson.

Interesting reports of a recent trip made to the Hawaiian Islands were given by Mona Dixon and Minnie Robinson. Betty Thornton introduced the members of the KUHS chapter, Gwendolyn Pierson, and a representative from the Kluks chapter, Gwendolyn Pierson.

Refreshments were served in the banquet room by co-chairmen Gertrude Huff and Norma Verlings. They were assisted by Mary Barkdoll, Dixie Bobber, Charlotte Osborne and Gretchen Thompson.

Women Moose Chapter No. 18

MEETING—Women of the Moose Chapter No. 18, meeting February 21, with members of the College of Regents presiding over the meeting. Rose Bailey acted as senior regent in the absence of Evelyn Rush.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Rose Van Meter, Recorder and the quarterly reports were given by the various committee chairmen.

The College of Regents presented a clever and entertaining skit. After the meeting members were served refreshments at Moose Hall.

SET FOR SPRING—Hair styles this season put the emphasis on back interest. Again, length is a matter of personal preference, with the general trend toward longer—than—short hair, swept back from the forehead.

Extra cover-up for the winter sheath is the short black wool sweater trimmed in jet. Fine for air-conditioned spots in summer, too, when it's worn over black or white.

Church Plans Made by Rainbow Girls

MALIN—Maiden Order of Rainbow for Girls met Monday evening at the Masonic Hall with Worthy Adviser Carolyn Fargo presiding. Observation of the founding of the Rainbow for Girls by W. Mark Saxon will be noted by attending church on April 8 at the Community Presbyterian Church. The Rainbow girls will sell artificial Easter Lily flowers in Merrill and Malin for the benefit of crippled children on March 24.

After the business meeting, members of the advisory board, the Rainbow members and their parents had a round table discussion regarding the Rainbow organization. Mrs. Richard Drucker, mother adviser, led the discussion.

Other advisory board members present were Mrs. L. B. Schreiner, A. E. Street, Richard Kruger, Mrs. Frank Zlabek, Mrs. Richard Halousak, Mrs. James Otoman, Mrs. Cecil Jackson and Mrs. Philip Blohm. Refreshments were served by the board members.

Langell Valley Couple Feted

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graves (Clara Strand) were guests at a reception given for them at the parish hall in Langell Valley on March 4, from 2 until 4 o'clock.

One hundred friends from Malin, Modoc Point, Klamath Falls, Bonanza and Langell Valley braved a blizzard to attend the party and offer congratulations to the newlyweds.

Daffodils and pussy willows were used for decoration. A wedding cake beautifully decorated and topped with two wedding rings centered the long refreshment table. Tall yellow tapers in silver candelabra complemented the cake.

The piece of cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. The confetti was later served by the bride's sister, Mrs. Katherine Crowson of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Owen Peppie of Bonanza was at the silver coffee urn.

MR. AND MRS. GUTHRIE B. CRUTCHFIELD, Klamath Falls, exchanged wedding vows on March 2 in the Klamath Temple. Following a honeymoon trip to Sacramento, the newlyweds are at home at 2124 Bisbee Street. — Photo by Ferebee

Young Couple Wed March 2

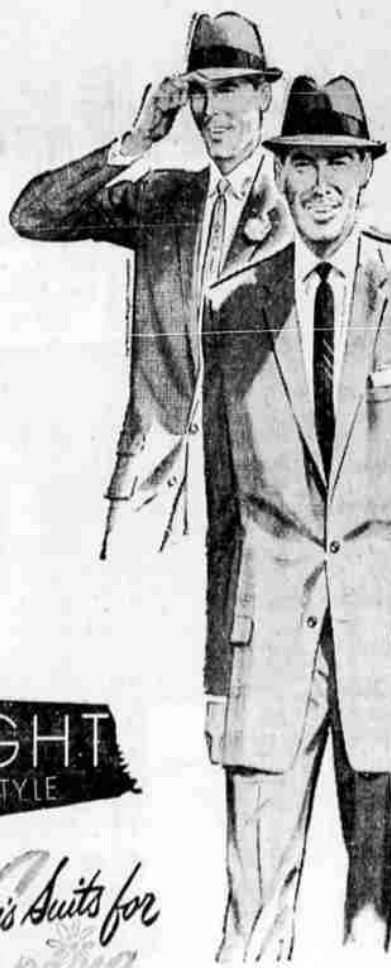

In an informal ceremony in the Klamath Temple on Friday, March 2, Beverly Luper, became the bride of Guthrie B. Crutchfield. Both young people are from this community.

Dunsmuir Engagement

DUNSMUIR—Mr. and Mrs. Tony Barber of Dunsmuir have announced the engagement of their daughter, Diane, to Arno Agostini, also of Dunsmuir. Agostini is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Agostini.

The bride-to-be is employed at the Mercy Hospital in Redding. She is a graduate of Dunsmuir High School and Heald College. Her fiancé is a graduate of Dunsmuir high school and is employed by the Southern Pacific Company. No wedding plans have been announced.

"Swing Into Spring" at DON'S ..

RIGHT IN STYLE

Men's Suits for Spring

... A Full Selection of the Latest and Smartest in Fabrics Cut in the Newest Styles.

- FLANNELS Light and Dark Colors 39⁹⁵
- THREESOMES Mix and Match 49⁵⁰ 59⁵⁰
- WOOL and SILK TWEEDS 50⁰⁰
- FAMOUS "DONCASTER" 65⁰⁰

Worsted and Flannels

And A Complete Line Of Accessories

DON'S

6th and Main

We Give
2^{1/2} "N" Green Stamps

LOCAL WOMAN NAMED TO POST

The president of the Oregon State Division, American Association of University Women, Mrs. Willard R. Duncan, Klamath Falls, has been named to the general planning committee for the Conference of Presidents of State Divisions to be held at the Sheraton Park Hotel, Washington, D.C., June 20-23. Mrs. Duncan will serve as hostess for the Wednesday evening social hour.

Every other year the association calls state presidents to Washington for a conference on programs and plans for the national convention and for the association in general. Theme for this year's meeting—based on the 1955 Los Angeles national convention theme—is "The Future: Product of our Choice."

Mrs. Wade E. Shurtliff, Ohio state president, is chairman of the 10-member planning committee of presidents from nine states and the District of Columbia.

Participants in addition to state presidents will be the national association officers, including Dr. Anna L. Rose Hawks, president, former dean of women at Mills College, Oakland, California; board members and headquarters staff.

In anticipation of the 1957 national convention at Boston, a survey committee has presented the following question for consideration at the state presidents conference: How can the American Association of University Women develop a vital program for its members and for society in its next quarter of a century? The survey committee is inviting branches and individual members to study this question and make recommendations for AAUW program in the next 25 years.

BIG PARTY

The Oregon State Mother's Club will sponsor a bridge-tee at the Willard Hotel on Saturday, April 7. Proceeds from the affair will be used for student scholarships.

PTA District Convention

WEED—Mrs. George Beanson, state historian, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, was guest speaker at the 25th District PTA meeting held in Dorris, Wednesday, March 7, in the Dorris City Hall beginning at 10 a.m.

Plans for the district meeting were completed at the meeting of the district executive board held at the Weed Community Church Tuesday afternoon, February 28.

Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Dunsmuir, District 25 president, presided at the Tuesday meeting and with the vote of the attending board members, planned a workshop for district officers, unit officers and chairmen, to be held in Weed April 17. The California State PTA Congress President, Mrs. Beulah Spencer, will be a guest speaker at the workshop.

The meeting will be held in the Weed Community Church with a noon luncheon served by the church societies.

Executive board members attending from Dunsmuir, Yreka, Edgewood, Mount Shasta and Weed, included Mrs. David Reese, Mrs. John Jensen, Mount Shasta; Mrs. David Fidler, Mrs. James Murock, Mrs. N. Graves, Mrs. J. Mathier, Dunsmuir; Mrs. John Mazzini, Mrs. Ernest Solus, Edgewood; Mrs. Everett Barr, Mrs. Carl Frenson, Yreka; Mrs. Henry Reents, Mrs. Boyd Meline, Mrs. Harry Hedgepeth, Mrs. R. G. Gaynor, and the Rev. George Telle, Weed; and Mrs. Anderson.

IRISH DECOR AT MEETING

The Ladies Auxiliary of Canton Grater No. 7 met March 8 in the 100F Hall. The meeting was called to order by Arloa Andrus, president.

Under the order of business the secretary read the report of the inspection officer who had inspected the auxiliary in December 1955.

According to this report the rating was noted as so high that the commanding officer deducted 50 points on general principals.

Following the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room by chairman Arloa Andrus and her committee, Anna Bean, Zelma Howard and Margaret Bidon.

The next meeting will be held March 22 in the 100F Hall. Shamrocks, pipes, Irish hats and green tapers were used on the refreshment table and about the rooms.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

NEW PINE CREEK—Art Lenkelt was honored on his 71st birthday when friends dropped by Monday evening, March 12, to pay their respects. The group played pinocle and enjoyed refreshments served by Lenkelt and his wife.

Lenkelt came to America in 1903 on an out-fitter sailing vessel, and has traveled on many ships and spent considerable time in charge of a coast guard ship for the government in Alaskan waters. He entertained his friends with stories of his early life as a sailor.

A new You every day in the week with the robert curley hair styling kit!

Do it yourself in minutes... it's easy as A-B-C! For the Robert Curley Kit contains all you need to change your hair style daily right in your own home! Nourishes, bleached, dyed hair, brings back "permanent" hair to life, lustre and loveliness... works wonders regardless of hair texture or color—even if your hair is straight as a string!

THURSDAY FRIDAY SATURDAY SUNDAY

FREE DEMONSTRATION

By ROBERT CURLEY

REPRESENTATIVE
Thursday, Mar. 22nd
Friday, Mar. 23rd
At

4⁰⁰

plus 22¢ (rd. tax)
You save $1.00
when you buy the kit.

Kit contains Robert Curley Hair Conditioner, Hair Styler, and Lanolin (Compound) Cream Shampoo... together with complete easy-to-follow instructions and illustrations.

LEE HENDRICKS

"Your Neighborhood Druggist"

2212 South 6th Street

Double Brown Stamps With Every "Robert Curley" These Two Days

Phone 4321

Fashion News for Easter

Susan Thomas

HIGHLY CO-ORDINATED

This Trio in Pretty Pastels

Blouse & Skirt

Matching Cardigan

Complete

39⁹⁵

Quick to flatter is Susan Thomas' planned-for-beauty threesome for town and travel wear. First in sight—the blouse and skirt in pure silk pongee in the most inspiring pastel shades, all prettied up with tiny tucks and cart-wheel lace. The cardigan cover—a perfect match in wear-without-a-care orlon.

COLORS: Pink, Natural SIZES: 10 to 16

BOUFFANT PETTI SKIRTS

In New Spring Colors - Nets, Lace Trimmed, Ruffles

3.98

To 14.98

These Dainty Little Slips In Embossed Cotton Will Make Your Spring Dresses More Pleasingly Feminine

"Shop The Store You Enjoy"

The Town Shop

• 500 Main • Free Parking in Rear