

STEP INTO SPRING with new beauty and complete foot comfort. No. 1 is De Liso Debs' revolutionary "Bear Hug" pump. The completely soft shoe involving gentle leather and lastex gives you the pump that clings like a caress to your foot in motion. It is glove-fitting and so comfortable you'll forget you're wearing shoes. No. 2 is De Liso Debs' "Statler" of twinkling patent leather, collared and bow-trimmed to add the appropriate touch of decor to the new season's new emphasis on femininity. No. 3 is another version of the "Bear Hug" in unadorned sleek black patent. No. 4 is De Liso Debs' "Nifty," a social butterfly of a shoe that will add light-hearted, airy charm to the late-day scene. A distinguished approach to the nude-look is done with typical De Liso Debs extreme finesse. No. 5, "Kohinoor," a jewel of a shoe is a smartly unusual approach to the glamorous Cinderella Slipper. Here, fashion's important vinylite gains new distinction and drama through strategically placed, king-size solitaire.

Ideas IN PAINT and WALLPAPER

By JACK NEIPP

"MODERNIZE" WITH WALLPAPER

Have you, like hundreds of others, fallen in love with the clear, uncomplicated feeling of modern rooms, yet you have an undying affection for your old familiar traditional furnishings and feel you must use them? You have no problem, really. The gap can be bridged easily and effectively with wallpaper. The new papers give you an opportunity to introduce not only clear modern colors but also new designs that are fresh and imaginative.

A modern foliage pattern used on one wall, in the room sketched, gives the setting new character. Other walls have been painted to match with background of the wallpaper—slate grey. Upholstery colors of periwinkle pink and aqua-marine blue were picked up from the design in the wallpaper. All unnecessary bric-a-brac has been removed.

Layette Shower At Fort Klamath

FORT KLAMATH — The G.I. clubhouse was the scene of a delightful affair on Friday evening, March 5, when Mrs. Elmore Nicholson was complimented with a layette shower.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Gail Oliver, Mrs. Elmer Zumbun, Mrs. Gene A. Page and Mrs. Dan Brown. Twenty-four were in attendance and many unable to be present sent gifts and congratulations to Mrs. Nicholson. A color scheme of pink, blue and silver predominated throughout in decorations and refreshments. The lace covered gift table was piled high with packages and had for decor the figure of a huge stork, with babies' playthings used to further carry out the prevailing motif.

Prior to opening the gifts, games were played. For "Nursery Rhymes," guests were divided into groups, the following winning the prize: Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson and Barbara Nicholson; Mrs. John Bergstrom was awarded the prize for a guessing contest.

Assisting the guest of honor at the gift table were her husband's mother and her two daughters, Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson, Mrs. Carroll Pittman, both of Ashland, and Mrs. Norman Ottoman, Malin. The three came here especially for the shower, as a surprise for Mrs. Nicholson.

The gay evening was brought to a close by the hostesses serving refreshments, which featured pink and blue cakes, decorated with baby booties fashioned from cake frosting.
