Funeral To Be Held Tuesday For Comedian Fred Allen

NEW YORK (AP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Fred Allen, the veteran humorist with the baggy eyes and sharp wit.

The 61-year-old radio and television comedian died of a heart ailment as he strolled a Manhattan street late Saturday night.

A Solemn Requiem Mass will be sung for Allen at the actor's chapel of St. Malachy's Roman Catholic Church in the theater district. He will be buried at the Gate of Heaven Catholic Cemetery in suburban Westchester County.

Allen was an entertainer in radio, television and motion pictures for a quarter of a century. He was a regular panelist on the CBS television show What's My Line? Last night the show went on without him. His widow Portland Hoffa said he would have wanted it that way.

SHOW GOES ON

Master of ceremonies John Daly said at the start of the program that despite their sorrow the cast would put on the show "the way Fred would like to have had it done."

This, said Daly, meant doing no more than Allen himself had often done, making his audiences laugh "when he didn't feel like laughing."

Steve Allen, no relation, substituted for Fred.

After an autopsy yesterday, Dr. Milton Halpern, chief medical examiner, said the comedian died of occlusive coronary heart disease. He said Allen had had a heart condition "over the years."

His health and sponsor trouble put Allen on part-time work on the airwaves in 1949. He gave up his struggle against TV about the same time.

"Let someone else pioneer it," he once said of the new medium. But 2 1/2 years ago he became a regular on What's My Line?

Allen was born John Florence Sullivan in Cambridge, Mass., on May 31, 1894. He changed his name early in his career at the suggestion of his agent, a man named Allen.

His first venture on the stage was as a juggler.

Road Repair Program Set

YREKA — The Siskiyou County Road Department is in the process of launching a repair and construction program designed to put the county road and bridges back in good shape by early fall, according to Road Commissioner Orel E. Lewis.

Lewis added that the major undertakings include replacement of the Meamber Bridge, repair of the Scott River road, replacement of the bridge across Scott River at Kelsey Creek, realignment of a portion of the Grider Creek road to a higher level, realigning and raising the old Klamath River road, and extensive repaving on the Salmon Mountain road from Etina to Sawyers.

Piling is now being driven to accommodate the prefabricated timber bridge which has been ordered for the Meamber Bridge across the Scott River west of Fort Jones. The portion being replaced is approximately 160 feet long and the replacement will cost about $35,000.

To date the road department has received approximately $25,000 from the civil defense administered money, and anticipates additional funds from that source this summer. It is also probable that the county will receive aid from the U.S. Army Engineers, and additional monies for contracting projects from the established federal aid program.

Minnesota Reaches Primary Eve; Kefauver Confident

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota reached the eve of its crucial presidential primary today with Sen. Estes Kefauver scenting a come-from-behind victory over Adlai E. Stevenson.

The White House ambitions of one Democrat or the other will soar or sink with the outcome of tomorrow's balloting.

As Kefauver calls it, 30 per cent of the votes will represent a victory for him. He told a news conference last night that "of course, I am going to do much better than that."

He said too he expects to top Stevenson in four or five of the state's nine congressional districts. If he does, he will clinch at least 8 or 10 of Minnesota's 30 votes at the Democratic National Convention in August.

In the Stevenson camp, signs of concern and hedging have appeared.

FORECAST LOWERED

Gov. Orville Freeman lowered his forecast of a 3-1 margin for Stevenson to "somewhere between 2 and 3 to 1" although he held to his prediction that Kefauver won't get a single congressional delegate.

The governor said on a television program the loss of any delegates would be a setback for Stevenson, but:

"Whether it would be a serious one is problematical. . . I think Gov. Stevenson is going to be the nominee regardless of what happens in Minnesota."

Stevenson is in the paradoxical position of being able to win on ballot figures alone and still turn up as something of a loser. For
