

British Stop Cyprus Riot

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UP) — Hundreds of flag-waving Turkish Cypriots swarmed through the streets of Nicosia today smashing Greek shop windows and shouting for revenge against Greek Cypriots.

The mob, shouting "We want revenge," was stirred up by eyewitness reports of a clash between Turkish and Greek Cypriots in the northern coastal town of Vassilia yesterday.

The reports said 38 persons were injured; many of them Turkish women and children beaten by Greek villagers in retaliation for a Turkish stone-throwing barrage.

Violence today erupted in Meisaxas Square after the Turks had marched to the Greek section through city streets.

Windows of at least two Greek-owned shops were smashed. Other Greek shopowners, obviously anticipating the violence, had their windows shuttered.

The mob then turned toward the Turkish consulate but British troops armed with Sten guns blocked the way and turned it back.

A Turkish leader had scheduled a speech there. As the demonstration started, British officials reported that an 18-year-old Greek Cypriot was shot and seriously wounded by security forces when he failed to answer a challenge during the night at Stroumbali village.

PNW Senators Split On Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pacific Northwest senatorial delegation split, with one exception, along party lines in crucial voting on the farm bill in the Senate Monday.

On an amendment to boost price support levels for wheat, cotton and corn, the voting found Democrats Jackson and Magnuson of Washington and Morse and Neuberger for and Republicans Welker and Dworshak of Idaho against. The amendment passed, 50-44. Morse joined Welker and Dworshak in voting for an amendment to deny price supports, effective in 1957, to most farmers if they fail to participate in the soil bank program, Magnuson, Neuberger and Jackson voted against. The amendment was adopted, 48-46. The Democrats were for and the Republicans were against as the Senate adopted, 49-44, an amendment to assure that farmers receive the government support price or a fair price in Agriculture Department purchase programs.

More Depreciation Angles Described For Income Tax

(Editor's Note: This is the second of two discussions treating aspects of depreciation, with emphasis on tax savings. The "sum-of-the-digits" method was discussed previously. Prepared by the Oregon Association of Public Accountants' tax information committee, this discussion is presented by the Herald and News as a reader service.)

The changes made by the internal revenue code of 1954 in the methods of computing depreciation have created new interest in the declining-balance method of depreciation. The declining-balance method, sometimes called rapid or accelerated depreciation, has long been recognized by the accounting profession but very rigid restrictions were placed on its use by the revenue code.
